PRACTICAL COOKING-THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE-PRETTY FROCK-CYNTHIA-ADVENTURES

MRS. WILSON TELLS HOW TO PREPARE HAM

This Can Be Kept for Two Weeks in Winter and Used in Various Ways

Sausage Can Be Made of Been Taken Off

By MRS. M. A. WILSON (Copyright, 1920, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson, All

THE average family who like ham I frequently hesitate when about to purchase a whole ham because they feel that it is expensive. Yet, if the bousewife will just plan her menus for about three weeks ahead she will find the purchase of a whole ham occasion-ally a real help in reducing the cost of Select a regular ham from a small pig, remembering that a lean ham is poor meat. Be sure that the ham has a reasonable amount of fat. Nine and one-half to twelve pounds is a good buy. To cut the ham with a saving it is necessary for the hensewife to own a meat saw. This saw need not be expensive. Purchase a hacksaw at the hardware shop, costing about a dollar. This will be several sizes smaller than the butcher's and of a somewhat similar shape.

similar shape.

Have a good butcher knife and keep it for cutting meats. It will be a real saving to keep these two tools for their saving to seep these two tools for their special work.

Make a slanting cut across the butt, near the hip joint, cutting the meat to the bone. Saw through the bone and then finish cutting. This butt should be about four to four and one-half pounds. The ham should be cocked in the fireless cooker to be done perfectly. It prevents undue loss or shrinkage of the meat tissue. This slow method also prevents the meat from becoming ragged

When it is impossible to cock in the fireless cooker place the butt of the ham in a large saucepan and cover with cold water. Bring quickly to a boil and then place where it will just simmer, allowing one-half hour per pound. If it is desired to serve cabbage with the boiled ham lift one quart of the water in which the ham was coked to another. which the ham was cooked to another saucepan and add sufficient water to cover the cabbage. Cook the cabbage until tender. This gives the cabbage the until tender. This gives the cabbage the finvor of the ham. Replace the water which has been removed from the cooking of the ham.

Out the amount of ham that is required for the serving and then return the but, to the water in which it was cooked and allow it to cool. This presents the meat from drying out. Cold vents the meat from drying out. Cold cuts may be taken from the butt. Use the water in which the ham was cooked for bean, pea and lentil soups. Navy, lima and soy beans may be used for wasiety. when unable to obtain sizable cold cuts from the butt of the ham, use the balance for emince and the bone, with the meat clinging to it, for baked beans. For a family of four this four-andone half-pound butt will provide enough ham to serve with the boiled dinner, gold cuts of ham for dinner and lunch. ean or pea soups, emince of ham for reakfast and baked beans. Take the shank end of the ham and Take the shank end of the ham and cover the cut side with a piece of wax paper. Wrap the ham in heavy paper and hang in a cool cellar or in some cool place, such as the wire shelf in the icebox. This ham will keep for two or three weeks in winter and for about ten days in summer. Should the skin side of the ham become moldy, wipe it with a cloth which has been wrung from bot water and rub with shortening bot water and rub with shortening. See recipes given June 19 and De-Four or five slices may be cut from this cember 2.

Ask Mrs. Wilson

If you have any cookery prob-lems, bring them to Mrs. Wilson. She will be glad to answer you through these columns. No personal replies, however, can be given.
Address questions to Mrs. M. A.
Wilson, Evenino Public Ledger,

Remnants After Cold shank end and it can then be cooked

Ham Sausage Put through the food chopper

The onions,
One cup of cold cooked catmeal,
Three branches of parsley, and sufficient cold beiled ham to measure one cup when chopped fine. Now

One-quarter teaspoon of thyme, One-quarter teaspoon of sweet mar

One-half teaspoon of pepper, Mix and then form into sausages; roll in flour and brown in bot fat. Serve for breakfast with hot cakes.

Ham Loaf Put through the food chopper Six branches of celery. Four branches of parsley, Two pimentos,

and sufficient ham to measure one and one-half cups. Now add

and sufficient ham to measure one and one-half cups. Now add
One cup of bread crumbs,
One teaspoon of paprika,
One teaspoon of salt.
One-half teaspoon of theme,
One-half teaspoon of sweet mar-

One and one-half cups of thick cream

Mix thoroughly and then grease and thoroughly flour a loaf-shaped pan and pack into it the prepared loaf. Set the pan in a larger one containing hot water and bake in a hot oven for one hour.

This lost may be served the first time while hot with tomatoes, creole or cream sauce, the second time as cold cuts and the third time by forming into

Mrs. Wilson Answers Queries

My Dear Mrs. Wilson-Will you give me your recipe for pepperhash and oblige. MRS. W.

Pepperhash Chop fine one head of cabbage weighing about three pounds, and then turn into a large bowl and add:

Two green peppers, chopped fine, Two red peppers, chopped fine, One ounce of celery seed. One-guarter ounce of cloves, One-quarter ounce of allspice, One ounce of mustard.

and sufficient white wine vinega Store in crocks or in all-glass jars in a cool place. My Dear Mrs. Wilson-Will you kindly publish a recipe for making fruitcake containing raisins, currants and citron? Also what amount of each will I have to use?

MRS. H. F. See the cake recipe for the Christmas

My Dear Mrs. Wilson-I expect to have about eighteen persons at a little party and would like to have a little spread. Would you kindly suggest what would serve? I have had very good luck with your recipes.

MRS. A. D.

THE GLAD SURRENDER By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

Laurel Accepts an Invitation

Laurel Stone and Winona Bell, two newspaper women, have an apartment together in downtown New York. Laurel is sent by the Chronicle to in-Granville Burton, an important financial head, and he, in spite of himself, becomes interested in Laurel as a type. He meets her by chance and takes her to lunch.

CHAPTER VI

LAUREL was late for dinner, which was unusual. Winena straightened was unusual. Winona straightened up from the stove where she was locking anxiously at the chicken that reposed in the oven and looked at Laurel reproachfully. Ned Banning, who was making mayonnaise in a blue bowl, an apron tied around his waist, winked at her solemnly. From the other room. Tom Benton, who had been asked to dinner as something quite unusual, excepted out something at Laurel over ing me an assignment on a blue morn-ing." Laurel laughed, divesting herself of her outer things. Out with it, Win, and get it over," she finished.

the next room threw down his paper and came to the door. Winona stood looking at Laurel as though she

"I didn't know you knew Burton," Benton spoke first.
"Why, she doesn't." from Winona.
"I do now." Laurel said calmly.
"Let's have dinner. I'm starved."
Winona, recalled to the ruined dinner, forehore asking any more duestions until they had rescued the chicken from the even and were seated around the tiny gateleg table. Then when Ned was carving she turned back to Laurel.

"Well!" she exclaimed.
"Well!" Laurel returned. "What is it?"

You act as though it were an ordi-"You act as though it were an ordinary thing to go to tea with Granville Burton. Tell us about it," Winona demanded. "You are the most exapperating woman. Laurel Stone."

"There's nothing to tell. I methim at the exhibition and he asked meto tea. We had it and here I am.

"And I suppose you think he asks any woman he happens to meet to have ten with him like that?" Winona snappool.

"Of course," approved Laurel with of course; why not?" Laurel's tone was quite matter of fact. "I don't see why you are making such a fuss about it." "Of course, he isn't one of the best-known men in the city and hasn't all kinds of money." Winons returned. "And it's an ordinary thing for you to go to tea with him.

Laurel smiled complacently. She had actually thought very little of it, but something about the way Winona acted and the way the two men, even Benton, who gave out the assignments, looked at her, kept her from telling them that Burton had asked her to go motoring with him some time. It an-noyed her vaguely to have them think things. After all, why was it so exthings. After all, why was it so ex-traordinary? Burton was just being kind and he was no different from other people excepting for his money and the power that it gave him power that it gave him.

Winona could not seem to get over winena could not that night after the matter at all, and that night after the men had left she made Laurel tell her in detail what had happened.

dinner as something quite unusual, growled cut something at Laurel over his paper.

"You sound as though you were giving me an assignment on a blue morning." Laurel laughed, directing herself of her outer things. Out with it, Win, and get it over," she finished.

"Well," she remarked finally, as she if I secub my frying pan the next time to bed. "All I want to say is, that if it happened to me I'd think a let more about it than you do." And she snapped off the light vigorously leaving Laurel smiling to herself in the dark.

Win, and get it over," she finished.

"Where have you been? Everything's ruined." she said in one breath.

"Out to tea with Granville Burton." Laurel announced calmly.

Ned's spoon clattered against the bowl as he dropped it and Benton from the next room threw down his paper and came to the door. Winona stood they dressed slowly and leisurely and they dressed slowly and leisurely and they dressed slowly and leisurely and looking at Laurel as though she couldn't have heard aright.

Laurel looked from one to another.

"What's the matter with you people?" she asked finally. "I haven't killed any one you know." I didn't know you knew Burton,"

"I didn't know you knew Burton,"

"I didn't know you knew Burton," they dressed slowly and leisurely and the day's program began. On rainy days they lounged around, read, wrote a few letters and went out somewhere newspaper crowd. One Sunday morning, before either of the girls was out of bed, the telephone rang and Laurel, half asleep, slipped out of bed to answer it. A man's voice said "Hello," and Laurel with a little thrill realized that it was Granville Burton.

"It's a good day for a picnic," he said lightly. "If you have nothing better to do we might go out into the country for the day. Would you like that?"

"I'd love it." Laurel returned. "Dulcie and Grace are on their best behavior." he went on evenly. "I've promised that they may superintend the a girlish little laugh. It was exciting to be referred to in this way as though Granville Burton really cared what she thought about things.

(To be continued on Monday)

The Woman's Exchange

A Class Party

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Our class wishes to entertain the other classes of the academic department. Will you kindly publish a novel kind of entertainment? We do not wish cards, luncheon or any elaborate displays, as this must be gotten up with as little expense as possible. A CLASS SECRETARY.

Why not have this affair in the form of a reception or a tea, if it is in the Cuts and Emince Have the same way as the butt was cooked. afternoon? Then for part of the time there are some attractive ways of serve you could have shadow movies. Hang ing the ham when it is trimmed from a thin curtain without folds across one a thin curtain without folds across one end of the room. Have strong electric lights some distance back of it so that shadows will fall distinctly on the curtain. Then stage a ridiculous scene in pantomime, between the lights and the curtain. The balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet" could be done in a burlesque fashion, and, of course, the more that is shown in the shadows of the "workings" behind the scenes the funnier it will be to the audience. You would have to use a stepladder covered-with a "wall" and vines for the balcony. If the stepladder throws a clear shadow it would not make any difference. Any other scene would do as well. You might take something from a play that has been in town this season, provided One and one-half cups of cooked it is known well enough to be under stood by the audience.

it is known well enough to be understood by the audience.

Then when it is time for refreshments have the guests stand in line and draw numbers from a huge tray.
Tell each one to take two numbers, or three, according to the amount of your refreshments. Then tell them to hand the numbers to a member of the class, who will bring them "eats" from a prettily decorated table, according to the numbers they present. Of course, the guest who draws 7 and 3 will think she is going to get something entirely she is going to get something entirely different from the person next to her who has drawn 10 and 14. But since there will be only punch and sand-wiches, or ice cream and cake, they will all draw exactly the same thing. The suspense and the surprise cause lots

During the rest of the time you could dance, or play games, or stage an impromptu yaudeville show, calling upon every girl who has any special

DAILY READER.

Dishwashing used to be the bane of my existence, and I am glad to say I can use the past tense, for I have worked out a system so that I never put my hands into hot, greasy water. stack the dishes on edge in a colander and let the hot water run over them freely. After a moment or two they are quite clean and the hot, greasy water runs away. If any food sticks water runs away. If any food sucase to a dish it can be easily rubbed off with a long-handled mop. I put my silver into the colander too, being caresful to keep the bone-handled knives to be the way of the bodice and on the sleeves, and this, by weighting un well out of the way of the ful to keep the bone-handled knives sticking up well out of the way of the hot water, but the beauty of my system, too, is that because the water is so hot it only takes a moment to dry the dishes, or if I am in a great hurry I simply stack them on a tray and they dry by themselves.

Of course there are certain hints that help to make dishwashing easy. For instance, I always tinse out a glass that has had milk with cold water before washing it in hot water, and I find that if I fill egg cups with cold water and let them stand for a few moments before washing they are no trouble at all to get clean. Then, when I use baking dishes or sancepans I al-I use baking dishes or saucepans I al-ways fill them with cold water im-mediately after using, for this prewents the fragments from clinging to them and, later, when I come to wash them, it can be done in half the time it would take otherwise. I always keep a supply of newspaper on hand, and as soon as I finish with my frying pan or broiler I pour off the grease and rub pan with pieces of newspaper, then quite easy to rinse it out later.
I've learned by sad experience that

Today's Inquiries What is the ensiest way to re e a spot from wallpaper? escribe a pretty use of tulle on satin or charmeuse evening

What style of nightgown is com-fortable for the small baby on cold winter nights?

How can a veil be stiffened?

In what dainty way is a handbag made for use with an afternoon or evening dress?

What material is popular for spring dresses?

Toterday's Answers Miss Maud Cleveland, of the Y. W. C. A. oversens, has been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal for conspicuous service as chief of the casualty service of the Red Cross at Brest. Court plaster got its name from the fact that it was first used by court ladies in olden days. Chinese silk with elaborate designs can be used to make a dressy sweater that would really take the place of a blouse. In using alum, precaution should be taken not to get it on the hands or face, as it is injurious. Reanbaga made of bright-colored denim and marked with each child's initials can be used dur-ing a party and given to the chil-ing a party and given to the chil-dren as fuvors.

A novel way to make the invita-tions for a Valentine party is to make a little heart-shaped bag of red cheesecloth, and inclose a plain white card bearing the invi-

A SLENDER WAY OF BEING BOUFFANT

I not been overeager at adopting the bouffant hip silhouette launched in from me he went with another girl and upon every girl who has any special talent, such as dancing, singing, re-citing, drawing, or playing piano, to perform. I hope these suggestions will help you.

But in What Year?

To the Editor of Woman's Pape:

Dear Madam—Kindly let me know through the Evening Public Ledger what day did the Sth of February come on.

DAILY READER.

bouffant hip silhouette launched in Paris and seen so interestingly developed they were engaged to be married and they broke it off. While I was dancing with him I said, "Why didn't you get married?" and all he said was that he made a mistake and it was for the best. I love him very much and I still the time. I think he would like to go out with me, only he would like to go out with me, only he would like to go out with me, only he would like to go out with me, only he would like to go out with me, only he would like to go out with me, only he would like to go out with me, only he would like to go out with me, only he world no handerchief, they were engaged to be married and they were engaged to pression of the new mode from the him to go out some time with me?

But I think you meant some former year and forget to write it down, didn't you? Send me your query again with the date of the year and I will look it up for you.

To I. E. K.

It would not be possible for me to advise you about the strength of this concern. You would have to consult some one who is engaged in that kind of business and has facilities for looking up the information.

Dishwashing

But I think you meant to son Sunday. You see the new bouffancy is a thing that springs out directly beneath the waistline. It makes the hipline appear young women and very young women and very you let him take you once in a while? Perhaps he likes your theatre tickets or the woman who is fat or forty—much more the woman who is both—to davise you about the strength of this concern. You would have to consult of the American woman that she has you sone one who is engaged in that kind of business and has facilities for looking up the information.

Dishwashing

By NINA T. HEIDELBERGER
In Pictorial Review

Dishwashing used to be the bane of my existence, and I am and I am each I am and I am

In Pictorial Review

Dishwashing used to be the bane of my existence, and I am glad to say I am use the past tense, for I have worked out a system so that I never but my hands into hot, greasy water. Scrape off all the grease and them tack the dishes on edge in a colander and let the hot water run over them reely. After a moment or two they are quite clean and the hot, greasy vater runs away. If any food sticks o a dish it can be easily rubbed off the soft and clinging and therefore does not add bulkiness. Colored beads are used heavily on the sides of the still so dear to the heart of well-dressed women. A rather lowered waistline is defined by a length of metal ribbon. (Copyright, 1929, by Florence Rose,)

Adventures With a Purse

Real Chinese jade is quite likely to be rather expensive. If the chains and ornaments I saw today, for instance, were of real jade, they would, in all probability, cost many dollars. But they are made of some composition, and resemble jade closely in every respect but the price. They are curiously carved ornaments on effectively contrasting black ribbons. One, for instance, is a fat Buddha, the price of which is but $1.25. And the ornament measures some two inches high. There are any number of designs you will like,

Please Tell Me What to Do

For the "Woman in the Way" Dear Cynthia - In answer to the nillon-dollar question, would state if I had the million I would have it placed where any single woman who is depending on relatives for a home could draw enough money to start a little business for herself, thereby carning her own living, and, when she was able, to pay it back with interest. There is no sadder fact in this world than for a refined, intelligent single woman (through no fault of hers) to have to depend on relatives for a home. If there was such a fund where she could borrow, she could soon establish a little business or rent a large house, and have rooms nicely furnished for rent. Think how many happy hearts and glad faces there would be if some millionaire would use one of her millions for that good cause. I often wonder why these wealthy single women do not make a wealthy single women do not make a will for their single sisters. That will, made by a single woman a few weeks ago, leaving $2000 for the "woman in the way" sensed the need of just such a fund. But the pity of it—there is not and the "woman in the way" will e and the "woman in the way" will still have to endure her humiliation. C. E. R. She Certainly is in Love ontributes to the up-and-down lines.

T IS not necessary for me to call your attention to the fact that short sleeves are again becoming popular. Nor need I refer to the fact that handembroidered waists are always effective. the remains but for me to tell you of a shop which has some very graceful pretty blouses, with short kimono sleeves, and which are stamped for heavy embroidering around neck and sleeves. They are made of what appears to be the statement of the come in blue that the statement of the stat They are made of what appears to be marquisette, and they come in blue, black or white. They are ready made, are priced at $2.25 each, and when embroidered make very striking blouses worth several times their purchase price. One, for instance, in dark blue, was embroidered in solid greens and reds,

The sets for a child's room or nursery are quite adorable. They are decorated with those roguish fat little Drayton babies, which we have come to know through the advertisements of a famous soup manufacturer. There is a bureau scarf, linen colored, stamped in colore, ready to be embroidered in outling stitch. The price is $1.25. The one I saw embroidered even had tiny pearl buttons sewed on the rompers, and was irrestible. A whole set may be purchased, including a laundry bag, hose bag, pillow cover, chair back cover and even a quilt for a diminutive bed. Each shows a round-checked little girl and boy and sometimes a gay wag of a dog.

Per names of shops address Woman's Page Editor, or phone Walnut 3006.

By any means let him see that you are worried about him.

For Love or Money?

Dear Cynthia—I am just a plain working girl, but really I am perfectly be autiful black, soulful eyes, also I have a very good figure. Now I saw there is a young sentleman friend of mine who says he loves me and wants there is a young sentleman friend of mine who says he loves me and wants there is a young sentleman friend of mine who says he loves me and wants to marry him. Now I like him very much, but also in this same place there is a nolder man and I know he has money; he also wants me to marry him.

Now, I like this other fellow the best, but he doesn't make any more money than I do and could never live on eighteen dollars a week. I know that much myself, so I thought you could tell and Cuticura Talcum

What Do the Readers Advise Her to Do?

Dear Cynthia—You have helped others and I know you will kindly help me, as I read your letters every night. The American woman certainty has not been overager at adopting the men as I read your letters every inject.

The American woman certainty has not been overager at adopting the men as I read your letters every inject. The American woman certainty has not been overager at adopting the men as I read your letters every will see the more walking the letter of the men and he does not come that the considerable to examine the period of the same age, considered jolly and rather field by the opposite sex, but, Cynthia, there is a question we would both like do yet opposite sex, but, Cynthia, there is a question we would be the like do yet opposite sex, but, Cynthia, there is a question we would be the like by the opposite sex, but, Cynthia, there is a question we would be the like by the opposite sex, but, Cynthia, and then the tries and the same age, considered jolly and rather field by the opposite sex, but, Cynthia, and then the tells me and he does not come that the constraint of the same age, considered jolly and rather field by the opposite sex, but, Cynthia, there is a question we would be think its only to cover up the other what would happen if she ever what which my fiance objects to. A YOUNG WIDOW.

It is perfectly natural for your finance to object to your wearing a ring which is the symbol of your former marriage. Now that you are to be his wife, he does not want to be reminded of any one else who once held his place in your affections. Of course, you would not wear the ring after you are married again, for you will have green arried again, for you will have cynthia?

It is perfectly natural for your finance to object to your wearing a ring which is the symbol of your former marry. It is his people my mother and father object to.

This boy has done his duty over there, but comes home to wait on the corner each evening. He is willing to wait for me to marry him as long as I say.

Could you try to help me, dear

Cynthia?

It is perfectly natural for your finance to object to your search of your former had making a big salary, after coming out of the recent photoplays.

We hope to publish our idea of "love" in the near future.

Hoping to hear more opinions on such a broad subject as this, we remain, me to marry him as long as I say.

Could you try to help me, dear

Cynthia? are married again, for you will have another one, and it would be better, now that you are engaged, to agree to your fiance's wishes and stop wearing the Go to

A Reply for "At Sea"

Dear Cynthia-In regard to "At Sea," I do not think that men are made for love after all. Tell me, and answer through Cynthia's column, what is it that you men care for about girls? Is it the good looks? Is that true love? I do not believe that men are made or love after all, or know much about t. It seems as if their hearts are nade of stone. 'They forget the lost ove and leave an aching heart behind. ove and leave an aching heart behind. We women are the ones who suffer, for we alone know what it means. So tell me, men, do you believe in love, or is it just a folly or pastime? Do you think it is proper for a man to leave his sweetheart or wife for a prettier and the control of the contr his sweetheart or w.te 101 girl? Thank you, Cynthia, Best wishes and love to you, Cynthia, for you wishes and love to you. How I are like a dear mother to us. How I are like a dear mother to us. How I

Another One in Love Dear Cynthia-I read your very ineresting column every night and now that I need advice I am sure you can help me.

I have been going with a crowd for quite a time, but there is one fellow 1 really care for. He always brings me home from different affairs and we have

Dear Cynthia—I am twenty and am engaged to a young man twenty-five. We became engaged three years as ago against my parents' consent and they will never give their consent and they will and each give their give their consent and they will and each give their give their consent and they will and each give their give their consent and they will and each give their give

He Gives Them a Shame Face

arm remarried. But, as my husband I am a girl twenty-one years on and do not like to have other boys in my home as I hate to see my mother and home as I hate to see my mother and them so fine. He is just father treat them so fine.

WEST PHILADELPHIA GIRL.

WEST PHILADELPHIA GIRL.

Go to your mother, dear, and tell have known a young man for over Go to your mother, dear, and tell her just what you have written. Let her know that you have written. Let her know that you have been meeting this young man on the corner because you do love him. I am sure she will understand. If there is anything really wrong with his family, of course, it would not be wise to marry him, but if your parents have just a personal dislike for them, you can surely make them overlook it. Of course, it is not right for you to meet any man on street corners, you know, no matter how much you love him.

Others, I know that you will help me. I have known a young man for over a year and we have been the best of friends until lately. I promised to go to a picture with him, and when he came to the house I was still nbed, as I had forgotten to tell mother to call me, and when he came it was 6::30 a. m. He was very angry, no doubt, when he left. I wrote and apologized, blaming my self, but he wouldn't answer, and mother, thinking he may not have received it, told me to write again. So I wrote a second time, but as he didn't answer I stopped. when he came it was 6:30 a, m. He was very angry, no doubt, when he left. I wrote and apologized, blaming myself, but he wouldn't answer, and mother, thinking he may not have received it, told me to write again. So I wrote a second time, but as he didn't answer I stopped. Do you think I was wrong. Crathia, in writing to him? I would like to have your advice, as mother and I liked him very much.

Wedding Rings for Men Dear Cynthia—I have read your column for some time and have always enjoyed it. Now I would like to have your advias mother and I liked him very much AGNES R. T ways enjoyed it. Now I would like to put my question through your worthy column. Why isn't it the custom for men to wear wedding rings as well as the women? I think it wouldn't be more than fair that they should wear them just as well. I would like to hear what the readers have to say about this. Perhaps "Buck Private" would like to give some opinion on this. would like to give some opinion on this.

I was interested in his question. CLEOPATRA.

When the double-ring ceremony sed men do wear wedding rings.

Thinks Men Worse Cheaters

Real Chinese jade is quite likely to be rather expensive. If the chains and ornaments I saw today, for instance, were of real jade, they would, in all probability, cost many dollars. But they are made of some composition, and resemble jade closely in every respect but the price. They are curiously carved ornaments on effectively contrasting black ribbons. One, for instance, is a fat Buddha, the price of which is but $1.25. And the ornament measures some two inches high. There are any number of designs you will like.

I have seen these cigarette boxes a number of times, but somehow heve mover got to writing about them until today. Yet I think that you would probably like to have one for your living from table or desk. The box is of Japanese design, on the top of which is a work standing about two or three inches. The box is to be filled with eigarettes. Then one presses a spring, the box opens, the stork leans over, takes a cigarette boxes and thought, the price of one of these acton and the work of the stork with a cigarette waiting in its mouth. The price of one of these actonucing cigarette boxes as St.

The sets for a child's room or nursery are quite adorable. They are decorated for lower are quite adorable. They are decorated for lower in the set of a price of one of these actonucing cigarette boxes as $3.

The sets for a child's room or nursery are quite adorable. They are decorated for lower in the set of the set of the committed and the proposition, and the committed the price of the committed the pr

THE GIRL WHO EXCLAIMS "OH, I COULDN'T DO THAT!"

Doesn't Really Know Whether She Could or Not-She Han Never Tried to Find Out Just How Much She Can Do

She Makes the Girls Jealous friend's car.

The girly always invite me to their parties if no young men would be present. But I hardly ever get invited to so if you just treat them all as boys and good friends I am sure you won't have any trouble with the girls.

They Agree With "Just Jim" Dear Cynthia-Just a word from Blue Eyes and Blondy";

"Blue Eyes and Blondy";
We have read our readers' opinions about "love." We both agree with "Just Jim" and believe him to have the right done on the subject. As regards the other reader, we believe him all wrong. "Passion is not love." This is being brought out strongly in one of the recent photoglays.

He Was Very Rude Dear Cynthia-As you have helped thers. I know that you will help me. 1 any aftention to your note. Do not bother with him any more, unless he comes to see you and apologizes. He is evidently not worth worrying about.

My joy was quite complete Dear Cynthia—I am a girl sixteen years old, and am considered very good-looking by the male sex. But most of the girls. I think, are jealous of me. When I go to a dance, which I do most every Twas mine for such a little while, But I would not complain— Love dropped a flower at my door, And came for it again. -Vivian Yeiser Laramore, in Woman's week. I cannot get any girl to go with me. I do not like to go alone in my buy in the first of sixteen are not quite old enough to have "gentlemen friends," dear, and good friends I am sure you any trouble with the first of sixteen are not quite old enough to have "gentlemen friends," dear, and good friends I am sure you are trouble with the first of sixteen are not quite old enough to have "gentlemen friends," dear, and good friends I am sure you are trouble with the first of sixteen are not quite old enough to have "gentlemen friends," dear, and good friends I am sure you are trouble with the first of th

In Japan Teaism is a religion founded on the "adoration of the beautiful among the sordid facts of every day."

fragrant "Salada' will make a convert of you. It takes you away from the fatigue, the nerve strain of

A cup of steaming.

every day-refresh-

Any time of day BAKERS, COCOA is welcome

AGNES R. T.

Do not make the mistake of thinking that cocoa is only an occasional drink. It is so valuable a food beverage, so rich in the elements of nutrition, so delicious in flavor, and so wholesome that it should be used regularly and often.

Booklet of Choice Recipes sent free. .

WALTER BAKER & CO.Ltd. Established 1780. DORCHESTER MASS.