Coach Robertson to Take Thirty Athletes to New York Tomorrow Night

Penn athletes will figure prominently omorrow night in the Millrose A. A. neet, the event de luxe of the indoor rack season, at Madison Square Garden.

Princeton, Lafayette and other eastern institutions will enter athletes in the meet, which has come to be known as the "'indoor Olympics' because it brings out the best collegiate and club performers on the indoor track.

The Proof of

Coach Lawson Robertson will lead a band of thirty Red and Blue performers to Gotham for the big meet. Included in the Penn delegation will be Earl Eby, winner of the 400 meters in the interallied games last July and second in the 800 meters. Eby will carry the Red and Blue silks in the Millrose "600" against a great field of middle distance runners, including Dave Caldwell, Jack Sellers, Jimmy O'Brien and Frank Murray, of Princeton.
