Boxing Board Says He Will Be Needed at Investigation Tomorrow

New York, Feb. 10.-Jack Dempsey world's heavyweight boxing champion world's heavyweight boxing champion, will probably be requested personally to attend the hearing of the Army. Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control Committee, which will tomorrow begin an investigation into the titleholder's war record. It was declared yesterday, by an official in close touch with the situation, that Dempsey's presence was considered absolutely necessary that the considered absolutely necessary that the matter might be thoroughly investigated.

matter might be thoroughly investigated.

Members of the committee selected to review the situation include Alfred L. Marilley, counsel to the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, who has been appointed chairman; Major Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, President of the Board of Boxing Control; Gutzon Borglum, Dr. Joseph E. Raycroft, who during the war was chairman of the War Department's Commission on Training Camp Activities; Robert Edgren, Rosweil F. Easton, R. Brecken-ridge Steele, Adam Empie, and John S. Smith, chairman of the New Jersey State Boxing Commission.

Eppa Rixey Slated to Leave Phils

but several players, I believe I would consider a trade.

Want New Talent

If Cravath and Baker can get three or four good players for the giant hurler, it will be a great thing for the ball club. Bixey is a good pitcher, but probably would not show his best with the team as it now stand. Several spots must be bolstered and if men can be procured to fill those positions, the club will be much stronger.

The chances are Cravath will get what he wants, for New York, Cincinnati and Chicago are bidding for Rizey's services. Eppa, at present, is in Virginia. He has signed a contract for this year.

Great College Hurler

Eppa J. Rixey was one of the greatest college twirlers of a decade prior to signing with the Phillies in July, 1912. As a member of the University of Virginia team be attracted the attention almost every major league manager of almost every major league manager in the country.

Upon the recommendation of Umpire Charles Rigler, of the National League staff, the Philadelphia Club signed him at a large salary, after his graduation from Virginia. Rigler's part in the signing of Rixey caused bitter feeling in National League circles and he was reprinanded and fined by President Lynch for his part in the affair.

In his first season with the Phillies the big southpaw pitched sensational ball, but in 1913 he took a postgradduate course at Virginia and would not raport to the Phillies until June. He reported in poor shape and after losing commission to select a chairman of the National Commission, consents to meet W. Baker, Veeck and Ruppert today. They will draw up a list of candidates for the job and submit it at the open meeting tomorrow.

Shot At Ban

The commission will take a hot shot at Ban Johnson, as was predicted. It will insist that the sixteen clubs take action in the selection of a chairman, and the majority rules. Heretofore each league acted separately. This means the plan to put Garry Herrmann over for another year will be ruined.

One big trade was announced today. The St. Louis Cardinals have procured Jaques Fournier, the first baseman for the Los Angeles in exchange for an exchange for the second part to the first baseman for the Month of the Month of Jewson, despite his youth, was good enough abroad to go to the finals of the Sussex county open championship. He taught over there at Sandwich, Walmern Kingsdown, Seaport Golf Club and Royal Cinque Ports, Deal.

Thus he had plenty of chance to put together into his own game all the theories where golf flourishes in a good part of the meadowland.

- On the length and rise of the ball and the lower the deal root has simple rules. The closer the right foot to the ball and the lower the bands on the shaft. Also the more the weight is in back of the ball the quicker the rise, he says. To illustrate this the midget Britisher dropped his ball some twenty yards back of a fifty foot tree, took his stance in back of the lie of the ball, and, with a powerful swing and snap of his wrists, made the bally pill hooks, but in the present running let us gaze solely on the pitch-and-run. It is the shot of nice carry over the jumps and rills to the spot before the open green where there is green lawn and a fair run-up. Holding the run depends on the backspin, and the backspin depends on several things.

Jewson is making a comfortable shot without much back on it. The hands are coming into the shot before the clubhead. The ball is hit, not swept, the clubhead biting the turf after the ball is struck and about an inch or two in advance of where the ball lay.

"The weight of the body at the stance

"The weight of the body at the stance is on the right foot." said Jewson. "and it is important that it should so remain until after the little pill is on its way, or the balance essential to the shot is
