British Ex-Commoner, at Soviet Capital, Says Terrorism Is Played Out

CHURCHES ALL REOPENED

By the Associated Press
London, Feb. 10.—Terrorism has run its course in Moscow and now the city is no worse than any other European capital, according to George Lansbury, former Socialist member of the House of Commons, who arrived in Moscow on Sunday. News of his projected trip had caused much surprise in official circles here.

In a telegram to the Herald, organ of the Labor party, Mr. Lansbury gives his impressions of the soviet capital. "Churches are all open," he says, "and the people are going in and out of the magnificent shrine of the Kremlin, which is being visited as formerly. Churches are being restored at the public expense; true religion has not been interfered with and marriage is as sacred as ever."

"There is nothing worse here than in other capitals, and there is very much that is better. I am streets and free from the malignant shrine of the Kremlin, which is being visited as formerly. Churches are being restored at the public expense; true religion has not been interfered with and marriage is as sacred as ever."

"There is great faith and great hope in idealism, but everybody wants to know if the Allies will now leave Russia free to work out her own salvation. I have never met people so determined to win their fight for economic freedom."

"The Russian people under Leon Trotsky have cheerfully allowed themselves to be organized, trained and disciplined to repel foreign and internal enemies," the telegram quotes Foreign Minister Tchitcherin as saying. "Now they will be organized, trained and disciplined for the purposes of production."

Mr. Lansbury declared scenes outside the Moscow railroad station were similar to those at any terminus in England, many men and boys waiting to transport baggage and passengers in sledges or droshkies. All classes of people were seen in the streets, he says, and, although badly dressed, were looking remarkably well considering the privations suffered from hunger, cold and sickness.

"The outstanding fact," Mr. Lansbury says, "is that the blockade and civil war have let loose disease and want of every description."

UN COMMENTO AL DISCORSO DI NITTI

Se il Patto di Londra sarà Attuato l'Italia Perderà Fiume

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 341. Authorized by the act of October 3, 1917, on file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia, Pa. A. S. BURLINSON, Postmaster General.

Roma, 9 febbraio.—In discorso pronunciato dal Presidente del Consiglio dei Ministri, On. Nitti, sabato, alla Camera dei deputati, è descritto come "una parafasi alla intervista che egli recentemente concesse ad un rappresentante dell'Associated Press," in un articolo pubblicato dal giornale "Il Popolo Romano." Nel suo discorso Nitti dice che se il Patto di Londra verrà applicato, l'Italia dovrà rinunciare a Fiume.

"Noi abbiamo spesso osservato—continua il giornale—che ogni qualvolta, l'On. Nitti parla a stranieri e' più nazionalista di quando parla alla Camera."

In un articolo sulla egemonia finanziaria d'America sull'Europa, la rivista Finanziaria Italiana dichiara che il Governo d'America ha un'inconsiderato linguaggio verso l'Europa e così dice:

"L'America e' necessario che sia soddisfatta con la sua enorme espansione commerciale, le sue esportazioni, avvedute, già quadruplicate dal 1914."

L'On. Nitti nel suo discorso ha trattato della politica estera. Il Deputato

Ministeriale, On. Fiammingo ha detto: "L'Italia bisogna che non si unisca alla alleanza Anglo-francese fino a che il trattato di Versailles subisca una revisione e tutte le odiose, ingiuste e tormentose clausole siano abolite."

Egli, inoltre, ha detto che il deprezzamento della lira italiana, del franco francese e della lira sterlina inglese e' dovuto al fatto che nessuno degli Alleati possiede credito in America.

L'On. Graziadei, socialista, asserì che la guerra fu vantaggiosa per l'Inghilterra, che si prese le colonie tedesche, e criticò la propaganda anti-italiana all'Estero.

"Il Presidente Wilson—egli asserì—avrebbe accettato le nostre proposte se non avessimo commesso dei sbagli a Parigi e se Gabriele d'Annunzio e l'Ammiraglio Millo non ci avessero discreditate innanzi al mondo."

Passando in rivista la politica del passato Gabinetto, il predetto onorevole disse che un accordo fu firmato con l'Austria nel 1913 per la di visione dell'Albania. A queste parole l'On. Giolitti scattò in piedi e ugo' che un tale accordo era stato raggiunto. Il deputato finì il suo discorso dicendo che Nitti ha rinunciato alle aspirazioni alle aspirazioni sulla Dalmazia nel compromesso recentemente raggiunto a Parigi e che l'Italia dovrà ritirarsi da detta regione.

ESSEX MOTOR CARS

HUDSON SUPER SIX

Only Essex Shares Hudson's Qualities

They Show Why Essex Went 3037 Miles in 50 Hours, and is Rightful Runner-up to the Super-Six Performance

A critical public has judged the Essex. In the year past it set a world's sales record.

More than $35,000,000 was paid for 22,000 Essex cars now in service.

That shows how men wanted what Essex offered.

Now Essex proves the accuracy of motordom's judgment.

Let the official tests speak:

On the Cincinnati Speedway a stock chassis Essex made a new world mark of 3037 miles in 50 hours, under observation of the American Automobile Association.

With other trials the same Essex ran a total of 5870 miles in 94 hours, 22 minutes driving time, averaging over a mile a minute.

Both Have This Motor Heat Control

Still another Essex phenon holds the world's 24-hour road mark of 1061 miles.

The Essex and Hudson are of course totally different types.

But note the advantages Essex shares with Hudson.

For instance, the radiator shutters by which efficient operating heat is maintained in coldest weather. They mean everything to satisfactory winter driving. Closed, they keep the heat in.

No unsightly hood covers are needed. They give summer efficiency to gasoline. They end hard starting. And in warm weather, opened, they give the maximum cooling.

The Performance Leaders in Every Community

The Essex, of course, does not cost as much as the Hudson, and though it is admittedly the runner-up in performance, it can never be all the Super-Six is.

In speed—in acceleration—in hill-climbing—in endurance—no stock car ever matched Hudson's famous records.

In every community you will find the two cars most noted for performance are the Hudson Super-Six and Essex.

Demand for both is so large that only by placing your order ahead can you insure delivery when you want it.
