

New French President's Family: Liberty Glo Broken in Two: Assay Commission Busy Here

Wide World Photos. FAMILY of new French president, Madame Paul Deschanel and their three children. The new president takes office tomorrow.

Ledger Photo Service. BY STRIKING a mine off the Netherlands coast on December 5 of last year the Liberty Glo, a steel cargo-carrying ship, was so badly wrecked that a storm took away more than half the ship. The ship was built for the government at Hog Island.

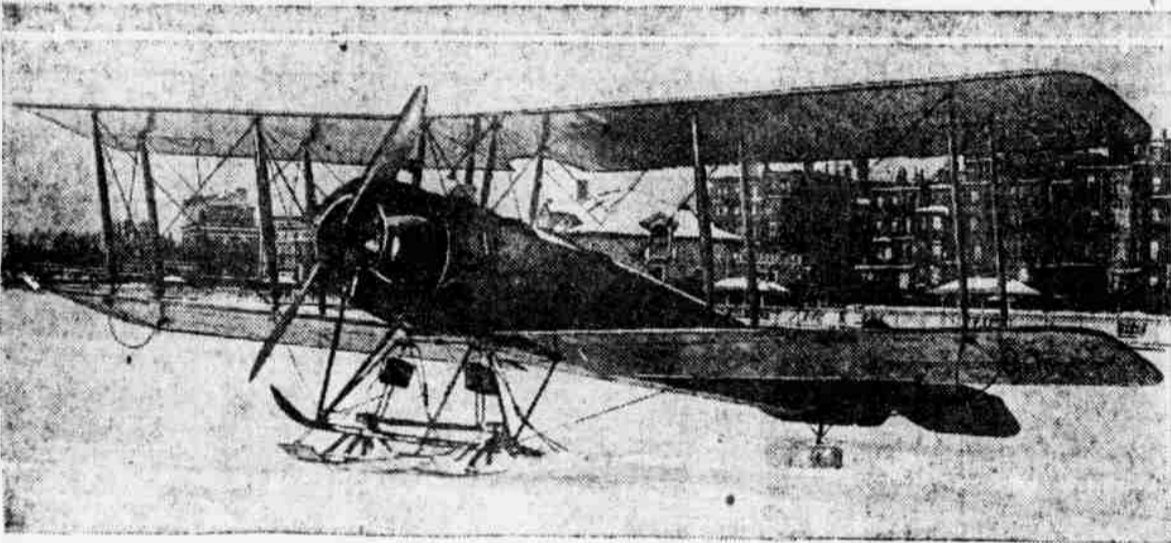

Ledger Photo Service. LEADING Penn's track team, Marvin Gustavson, team captain, is keeping his runners busy.

Ledger Photo Service. MISSES Marion Peder and Katherine Oelschlag, who will take part in a pageant at the Kensington High School tonight.

Underwood & Underwood. PRINCESS ALICE, Countess of Athlone and wife of Lord Athlone, governor general-elect of Canada, with her two children, Lady May Cambridge and Viscount Trematon.

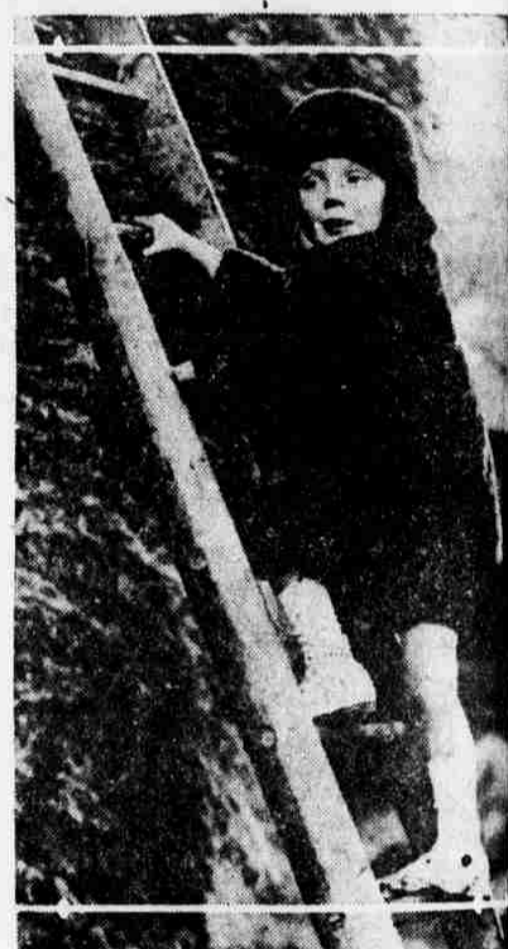

Underwood & Underwood. BY ADDING skids this Avro airplane has been used as an aerial snow and ice sled with great success.

Ledger Photo Service. MRS. KELLOGG FAIRBANKS, Chicago, member of assay commission which started work at the Philadelphia Mint yesterday.

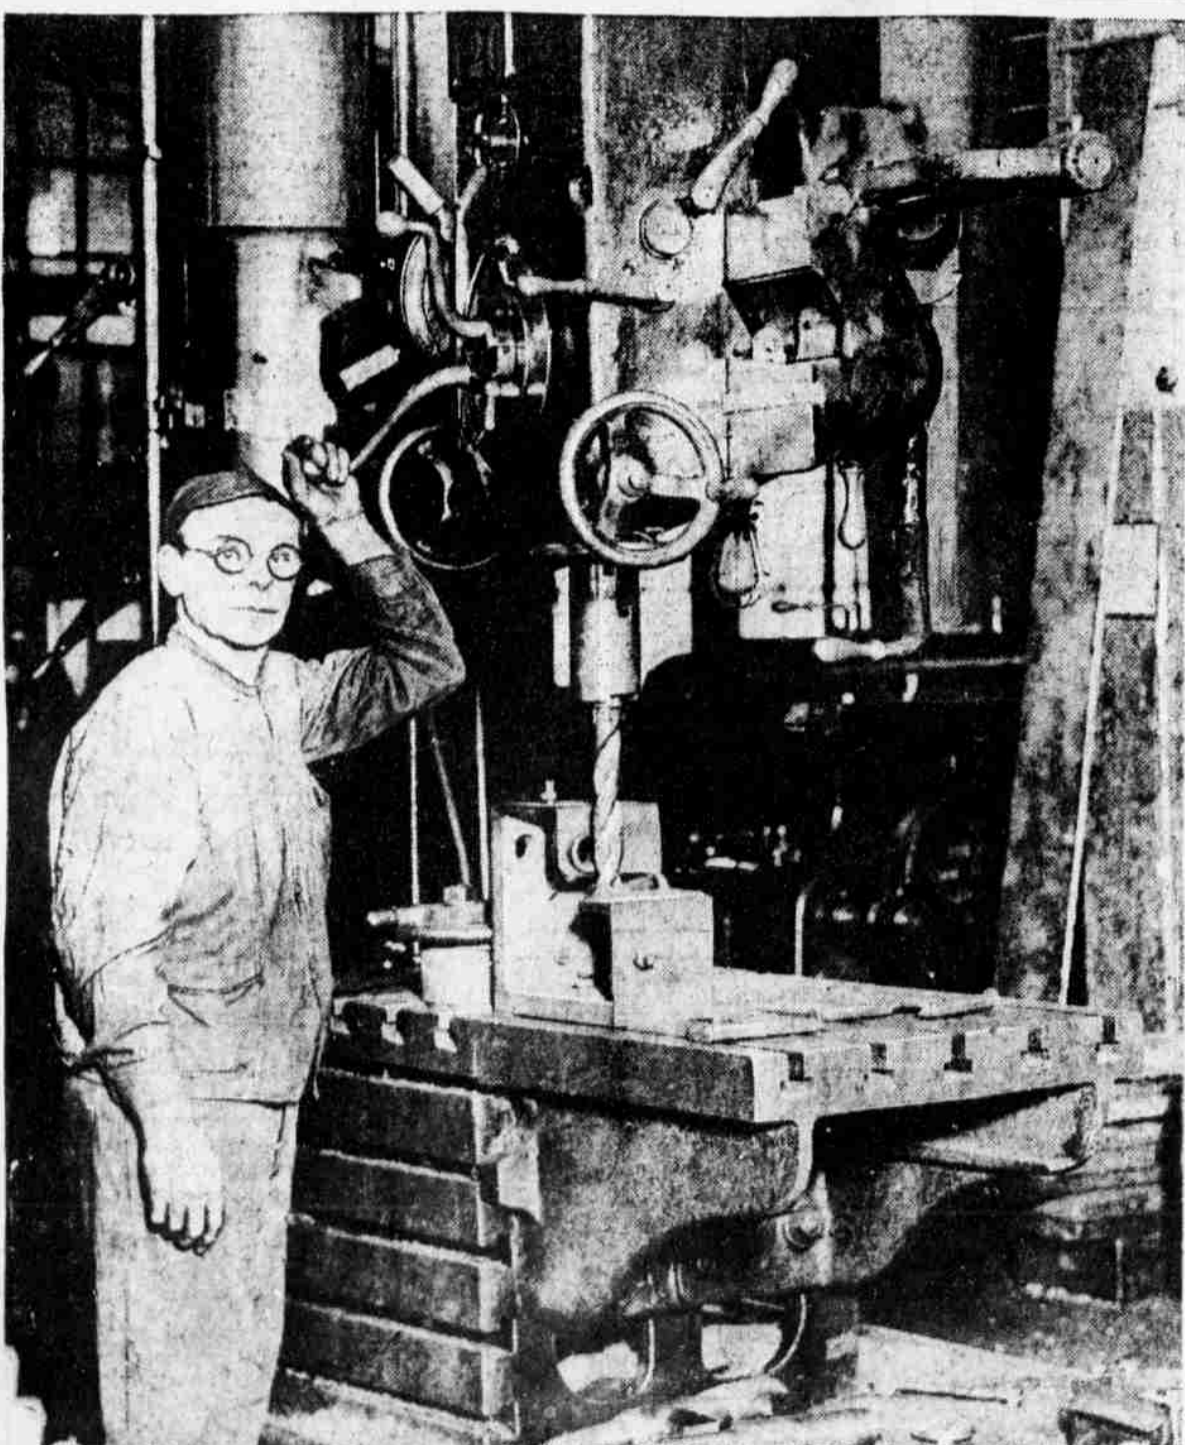

International. STEAM SHOVEL put into action to clear snow from New York streets.

International. "TONY" MARSH, son of Miss Peggy Marsh, former London chorus girl, who claims that the child's father is the late Henry Field, grandson of Marshall Field.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

A RADIAL drill press in operation at the Link Belt Co., Nicetown. Charles Boyd, the operator, lives at 3619 Sunnyside avenue, Falls of Schuylkill. The machine drills holes through steel and cast-iron parts at a depth of twelve inches and as large as six inches in diameter.

TESTING COIN of the 1919 coinage at mint by assay commission. It was assisted in its work by John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency; Raymond T. Baker, director of mint, Washington, and Adam M. Joyce, superintendent, Philadelphia Mint, left to right.

Ledger Photo Service. MISSES Mabel Stout, Laura Tubis and Susan Meyer, left to right, "Three Squaws," in pageant of womanhood, to be held soon by the Community Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MARIE FISHER, 1245 Marlborough street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.