

Skiing in Norway : Teaching Crippled Scholars to Make Baskets : Boxing Kangaroo

Miss Mary Brown Warburton, of this city, prominent member of the younger set, at Palm Beach

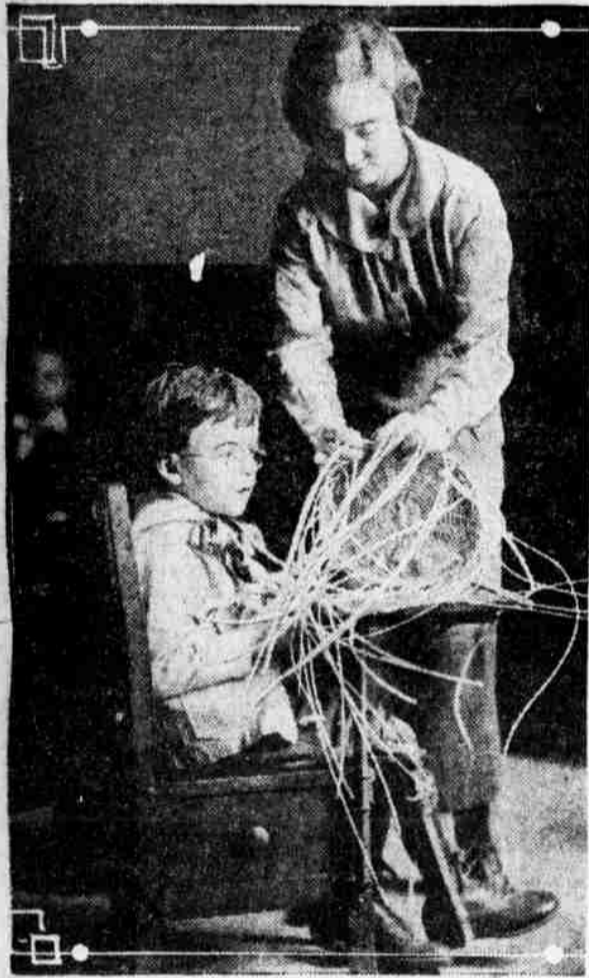

Blocking, footwork and the way to land an uppercut being taught a boxing kangaroo.

Mrs. E. Silver and "White Hope," her champion English bull, at the New York dog show

Mrs. L. M. Watson, Hayden, Colorado, in Chicago shopping, accompanied by her full-blooded coyote.

Mrs. Nan J. Kelly, demonstrating the way to make baskets to little John Reilly, at the department for crippled children, in the Newton School, Thirty-sixth and Ludlow streets.

Mrs. Maxine Dempsey, wife of Jack Dempsey, now repudiates many statements supposed to have been made by her against the heavyweight champion.

Raoul Peret, elected president of the French Chamber of Deputies.

Fences no obstacle for the lover of skiing in Norway.

Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, was in consultation yesterday afternoon with officers of the Emergency Aid.

Count Szechenyi, Hungarian minister to the United States, now in Norway, assisting in reorganization of its foreign service.

Count Szechenyi, Hungarian minister to the United States, now in Norway, assisting in reorganization of its foreign service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

Miss Angeline Delbruno, 531 Christian street, operating a corner-cutting machine for the Edwin J. Schoettle Co., paper box makers, 533 North Eleventh street. The cutting of corners is necessary before cardboard can be folded into box form. The machine cuts 40,000 daily. Miss Anna Reilly, 1115 Parrish street, is inspecting and piling.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

Duke of Athlone, who will soon leave England to assume the office of governor general of Canada.

MISS ESTHER GOLDNER, 1949 North Eighth street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.