KRAMER NEVER WILL MAKE MILWAUKEE FAMOUS, BECAUSE HE HASN'T MORE THAN 2.75 KICK

KRAMER IS A GAME GUY WHO KNOWS NOT WHEN HE IS LICKED

Milwaukee Middleweight Is Walloped Promiscuously by Frankie Maguire, but Former Gets Big Reception Because Fans Like Gritty Boxer-Billy Is All of That

> By ROBERT W. MAXWELL Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

opuright, 1920, by Public Ladger Co A GAME guy always makes a hit with a boxing crowd, and for that reason Billy Kramer, of Milwaukee, was handed a big reception at the finish of * six-round massacre at the National Saturday night. Now Billy never will make Milwaukee famous with his elever boxing or glorious triumphs in the squared circle. He never will make Pabst and Schlitz and other noted citizens of that beery burg take a back seat because of his clever and brainy boxing. But just the same he is a credit to that metropolis which used to foam near Chicago, because he is a game guy and does not know when he is licked. Kramer appeared in the semiwind-up against Frankie Maguire, a bard hitting gent from Williamsport, Pa. Frankie has a kick in either mitt and demonstrated the possibilities of quick and early knockouts in the very first round. The only thing that ruined Frankie's good intentions was that he was opposed to Billy Kramer, and Billy is a game guy.

It happened about two seconds after the opening gong. Getting out of a clinch, Maguire swung his trusty right and scored a bullseye on Kramer's underslung chin. Billy staggered backward, and before he could recover Frankie socked him again. Kramer sagged to the canvas, and to the most experienced observer it looked as if he had gone down for keeps and was ready to be swept up with the peanut shells. But he crossed the dope, staggered to his feet at the count of nine and stood against the ropes while Maguire hammered him with a volley of lefts and rights. Billy looked as if he didn't have a chance in a million to weather the storm, but Joe Griffo, that very efficient and learned referee, allowed the battle to continue. Joe wouldn't stop it because it wouldn't have been fair to Kramer, and Billy was a game guy.

In some unaccountable manner, Kramer weathered the first round. He staggered to his corner, where he stolcally withstood the jabs and jolts of Willus Britt, who wielded a partially moistened sponge like a blacksmith shoes a horse. After that Billy could stand anything and be sailed forth to see what would happen in the second round. He forced the fighting and Maguire was urprised. It was the same in the third session and part of the fourth. In that chapter Frankie whanged Billy with a left uppercut, lifted him off his cet and sent him to the floor, but that meant nothing. Kramer was up in au nstant and kept fighting just as hard as ever.

Near the end of the round Maguire pushed him in the face and Kramer again went down. He was so weak that he couldn't help it, but once more scrambled to his feet and became aggressive.

boxers. Punches bounged off his jaw like rain off a tin roof, but Billy was there taking everything and wading in for more. When the final gong sounded he still was going strong. Maguire was bleeding from the nose and mouth and appeared to be all used up. There was a look of blank amazement on his blood-streaked face. He never expected to mingle with such a game guy.

Peace Settlement to Help American League

ASEBALL in the American League can start the week properly, now that the winter scrap "has been settled. Although Ban Johnson won three ints to one for the insurgents, both sides are perfectly satisfied and are willg to go along, doing the best they can, for the good of the game. But no natter who won the verdict, the peace settlement proved to be a good thing er the junior circuit. All of the troubles have been aired, the magnates now where they stand and all they have to do is carry out the terms of the

The meeting in Chicago last week was an important one. Many new laws re passed and these will add interest to the national sport. The elimination freak deliveries and allowing the spitballers one year of grace to learn anther method of pitching will help the batters and produce many lusty clouters. cotte's shine ball and Hod Eller's famous paraffine delivery are things of be past, and they must throw the ball in the old-fashioned way.

No longer will we see the pitcher rubbing the ball on his clothing, for that taboo. Discolored balls also will be conspicuous by their absence, for the impires have been ordered to throw them out of the game. Only the regular listed spitters and there are less than two dozen in both leagues-will be sllowed to lift the ball to their mouth. The others cannot even make a bluff

Another important ruling was on the intentional pass. In the past a atcher could stand at the far corner of the catcher's box and receive four wide pitches when a slugger was up with men on base. Now the receiver cannot move from his place behind the batter until the bail is thrown. In other words, the pitcher, if he desires to hand out an intentional pass, must throw at a mark about four feet to one side of the catcher and hope the ball is enught.

This will not be easy and the chances are that few pitchers will attempt Some of the experts claim the "bean ball" will be used considerably and the sluggers will spend much time flopping to the ground. Even this will add interest, for the "beaners" will get exceedingly unpopular and perhaps the nucleus of some swell mob scenes and riots.

THEN the bean ball becomes popular, Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb. I'res Speaker, Rogers Hornsby, Eddie Roush and other high-class swatters will take as many dives in a baseball game as Tom Cowler does on one of his good boxing nights.

Two Candidates for Chairman of Commish

THE identity of the new chairman of the National Commission still is a secret. Ban Johnson and John Haydler failed to agree on a victim in Shiengo last week, but it wasn't Heydler's fault. The president of the Na tional League was suger, willing and anxious to name a successor to Garry Herrmann, but Johnson thought differently. Ban held out for Garry as long he could and then suggested another candidate, thinking his man would be burned down. It is understood, however, that Heydler was perfectly willing to vote for Johnson's choice and then Ban asked further delay.

There are only two candidates now being considered, according to the inside dope. They are Big Bill Edwards, of New York, and Harvey T. Woodruff, of Chicago. Either man would make a good chairman of the commission and the presidents should get busy and dispose of the matter.

The new chairman will have some important work to do as soon as he takes office. He must climinate the gumbling problem in some manner, for this is one thing which threatens to undermine the sport. And it must be remembered that all of the gambling is not done in the grand stands in the ball

CHAIRMAN of the National Commission is needed at once and immediate action should be taken.

The Answer Is That "He Didn't"

HOW could a bimbo like that lear Johnny Kilbane?" asked a boxing fau at the National Saturday night as he watched Young Chancy, of Baltimore, take a severe lacing from Artie Root. The hoswer is not at all difficult. Chancy DIDN'T bent Kilbane in Jersey City last December. We saw the bout and were of the opinion that Johnny won easily. The champion did not extend himself and won five of the eight rounds.
