

SOVIETS MUST PAY, ATTITUDE OF POLES

Drastic Peace Terms Are Being Framed at Warsaw for Bolshevik Aggressors

ASK RETURN OF STOLEN ART

By the Associated Press
Warsaw, Feb. 16.—Terms which may be viewed as quite drastic have been advanced by Polish Nationalists in framing military conditions of the peace to be submitted to the Bolsheviks. These include a demobilization of soviet armies on the front and the establishment of Polish frontiers over the Rivers Dvina and Dnieper.

Shanghai, China's greatest port, has joined in the protest against a Japanese settlement of Shantung. A recent demonstration by 7000 students, women and shopkeepers, forced the commissioner to take cognizance of the protest and forward it to the Peking government.

The Baltic Landwehr, composed of Letvian citizens of Teutonic origin, led by Colonel Alexander, of the British army, demonstrated in its recent campaign the worth of the Bolshevik army. Although only 600 strong the Landwehr, by a series of amazing deeds, vanquished the Red army many times their strength. In less than two weeks the 600 had driven the Bolsheviks back over fifty miles, taken two-score villages and 500 prisoners, besides killing and wounding many more.

While the United States is haggling over the question of recognition of the new Lithuanian government, British bankers have made a fifteen-year contract with the new-born nation, by which its finances are assured and British trade will be encouraged almost to the exclusion of other countries.
