DELAWARE COUNTY

WEST PHILADELPHIA

FRANKFORD

The monthly meeting of the Business Men's and Taxpayers' Association was held on Tuesday evening at the Mar-shall public school.

The ushers' association of the Central Methodist Episcopal Church gave a banquet on Tuesday evening in the social hall of the church, when addresses were made by Captain Violet V. McAllister and Lieutenant Alice McAllister, Salvation Army workers who distinguished themselves as was hearings by casking themselves as war heroines by making doughnuts for the boys at the front. The Rev. Farnest Bowden also gave a talk on "The Essence of Americanism.

Mrs. A. Andrews, of Sellers street, is spending several weeks at Atlantic

TIOGA

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Heaton. of 3430 North Eighteenth street, will give a dinner on Monday evening at their home for their daughter, Miss Edythe Heaton, in celebration of her birthday anniversary. The guests, who are classmates of Miss Heaton in Mrs. Frank Ritchie's class of the Bible school of the Tioga Methodist Episcopal Church, include Miss Gladys Behm, Miss Maty Watkins, Miss Kathryn Oechler, Miss Eva Fletcher, Miss Phyllis Kirk, Miss Ruth Oechler, Miss Elizabeth Ensworth, Miss Margaret Ritchie, Miss Florence Huett, Miss Alice McWilliams, Miss Rachel Battersby and Mrs. Ritchie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Walters have returned from their wedding trip, and are at home at 3650 North Mar-shall street. The bride was Miss Eth-elyn E. Knell.

ROXBOROUGH

Mrs. Edmund H. Keely, of 350 Green

Charles Kruger, Miss Marian k, Mrs. Richard Hey and Mrs.

Mrs. Harry H. Thompson, of 477

HOCKEY

GENERAL SKATING 8:80 P.

Phila. Auditorium & Ice Palace

45TH-MARKET-46TH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Reuss. of 1005 South Sixtieth street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a Penna. vs. Quaker City

The Willow Tree

ROBERT WARWICK STRAWS
Next Week ETHEL CLATTON
TO YOUNG MRS. WINTHROP

ICTORIA

MARKET ST. ABOVE STH

Coming-"IN OLD RENTUCKY"

ELSIE JANIS THE IMP

MARKET STREET

MARKET STREET

CONTINUOUS

VAUDEVILLE

WM. O'CLARE & GIRLS

BROADWAY Broad & Snyder Ave. ANNIVERSARY WEEK ORACE GOLDIN & COMPANY

CROSS KEYS MARKET ST. Bel. 60th

Willard's Fantasy of Jewels

PHILADELPHIA'S LEADING THEATRES

LYRIC Evgs. at 8:20 P. M. Next Mat. Temorrow at 2:20

Philadelphia Critics Charmed!
PRESS AND PUBLIC UNITE IN

SONGS OF PRAISE!

THE GUEST OF HONOR"

Read the Radiant Reviews

"Mr. Hodge is at his best in this play it seethes with merry things."—Record.

This William Hodge isd has certainly, discovered some deep secret of popularity.

Public Ledger.

"The Guest of Honor is a fairy story and the audience is happy in its make believe. Their laughter was loud and frequent and their applicance so insistent that Mr. Hodge was collect to respond with a neat speech. It is destined to enjoy a long rin in Philadelphia."—Press.

SEATS NOW, EXTRA HOLIDAY MAT. MON.

SAM SHUBERT NIGHTS, 8:15
S. MAT. TOMOR.
POSITIVELY LAST: WEEKS
A Revusical Comedy of N.Y.'s Latin Quarter.

VILLAGE

FOLLIES

with FRANCES WHITE and

JAMES WATTS, TED LEWIS.
ADA FORMAN, AL HERMAN AND
20 FAMOUS ARTISTS MODELS
SEATS NOW, EXTRA HOLIDAY MAT. MON.

ADELPHI NIGHTS at 8:15 Sharp No one seated during Prologue MAT. TOMORROW AT 2:15

CRIMSON ALIBI

with Original Cast and Production, SEATS NOW, EXTRA HOLIDAY MAT. MON. CHESTNUT ST. OPERA HOUSE MAT. TOMORROW AT 2:15

THE SEASON'S MUSICAL SUCCESS

TOE-TICKLIN' TUNES

and the Best Singing Chorus in Town. SEATS NOW, EXTRA HOLIDAY MAT. MON. PHILADELPHIA'S FOREMOST THEATRES

BROAD NIGHTS AT 8:15 Mat. Temerrew at 2:16 ROBERT B. MANTELL

TONIGHT MACBETH

MAT. TOMOR, MERCHANT OF VENICE TOMORROW NIGHT RICHARD HIS SHATS NOW FOR THE LAST WEEK Extra Holiday Matinee Monday.

—AND FRIDAY NIGHT—

The Merchant of Venice

Mon. Tuss., JULIUS CAESAR Sat. Mat. & Byg. JULIUS CAESAR Wed. Mat. HAMLET (with FRITZ LEIBER) Wed. Eyg. RICHELLEU: Thurs., MACBETH

Garrick Last 2 Evgs. Last Mat.

ELSIE JANIS

AND HER GANG

STARTING Mat. Monday SEATS

A big MARC KLAW musical production

Forrest Last 2 Works. Mygs. at 8 Matines Tomorrow at 2

NO ONE SEATED DURING PRILIDE SEATS NOW FOR LAST WEEK EXTRA HOLIDAY MAT. MONDAY

KLAW & ERLANGER'S

Peoples Peek-a-Boo

Casino GIRLS DE LOOKS

ORPHEUM Mat. Tomorrow, 25c, 55c, 55c, Evgs., 25c, 85c, 50c a 72d

MAE DESMOND The Five Million February 23—"THE WOMAN IN ROOM 18"

Trocadero The RAZZLE DAZZLE of 1915

SWEETHEART

SOMEBODY'S

MARKET STREET

APITOL

CORTISSOZ SCHOOL

Tickets, $2.00 to 75c. Box Seats, $2.50 On sale now at Heppe's, 1117 Chestnut trection C. A. Ellis Steinway Plan

WITHERSPOON HALL WALTER DAMNOSCH, Conductor WALTER DAMNOSCH, Conductor Pines Eve. Feb. 26 A Midsummer Night's Dream The Players Guild of Arden

sion Box Office, Witherspoon Bldg. UNIVERSITY MUSEUM, Sat., 8:30. Free DUMONT'S & Emmett J. Welch Minstreis, ARCH & OTH STS
The Shivery. SPIRITS & SPOOKS

Miss Mary Tyndale, of Media, whose marriage to Mr. George Tatum, of Plainfield, N. J., takes place tomorrow, will entertain her bridal party and a few friends at dinner this evening. Her guests will be Miss Amanda Leeper, Miss Emily Jones, Miss Mary Tatum, Miss Emily Jones, Miss Mary Tatum, Miss Maebelle Hough, Miss Elizabeth Tyndale, Miss Alma Dorennis, Mrs. John Latimer, Mr. Robinson Tyndale, Mr. Morris Satterthwaite, Mr. Pierce Sherry, Mr. Clarence Hartzell, Mr. John Lutimer, Mr. John Tatum, Mr. Branson Satterthwaite, Mr. Robinsom Tyndale and Mr. Henry Justi.

Mr. James Spear, of Wallingford, is spending the winter in the South.

Mrs. F. Warner Bennerman, of Moylan, is recuperating, after her recent illness, at Atlantic City, where she will remain for a short time.

Friends of Mrs. Artlar Burton, of Chester, will be glad to know that she is recovering from her recent illness.

HOCKEY

HOCKEY

WEST DHILADEL PHIA

Norma Talmadge A Teacher for Each Pupil $5 "A DAUGHTER OF TWO WORLDS" Week-"BACK TO GOD'S COUNTS
ing, L. Barrymore, in "The Copperhee Individual Instruction
Exclusive Method
Mirrored Studio

1520 Chestnut
OFFICE 550
Locust 8192 RCADI

Academy of Music, Feb. 2

RACHMANINOFF

New York Symphony

Tickets, 75s to $2.50, Heppe's, 1119 Chestne

The Shop of Sensible Prices

$39.75

Judged by all standards they are worth fully $50.00 at current prices. A goodly assortment for both women and misses.

127 S. 13th St.

1337 Chestnut St.

Photo by Vanity Fair Studies, Allen Drew Cook MRS. EDWARD A. BACON

THINK the musical entertainment which has been planned by the committee on music of the Art Alliance will be interesting next Tuesday, don't you? You know they have started a registration bureau there and the program for Tuesday is to be given by some of said registrants.

Small Richard Townsend, aged seven.

Miss H. Re Robey, daughter of Mr. Miss H. Re Robey, has issued invisional to the control of the cont

Small Richard Townsend, aged seven.

Will play on his flute and there are to be Russian folk songs, harp, cello, violin and piano solos and duets; contralto and tenor solos and "songs with action" including "Matilda, who told a lie and was burned to death," by Lisa Lehman. Altogether a varied and vertical several weeks at finddon find.

Miss H. Re Robey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Robey, has issued invitations to a dance at the Springhaven Country Club, Wallingford, this evening. Sixty guests are expected, Miss Robey is at present staying at Haver-ford Court, Haverford.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hale Trumbull. of Bala avenue and Cynwyd road, Cynwyd, have issued cards for an at-home
Sunday afternoon, from 3 to 7. Mrs.
Trumbull will be remembered as Miss.
Adele M. Mosier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Mosier, of Overbrook.
Miss. Locabias F. Homes, daughter

Miss Josephine E. Hooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Hooper, of Woolverton, Chestnut Hill, left yes-

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Paxson, of 2036 Locust street, will entertain at

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Tells of the Plays and Players' Forty-fifth

Club Night-Art Alliance Musicale of Interest

WHAT would we do without Plays positively nothing doing but theatres positively nothing doing but theatres and an opera or so, and then we hear and an opera or so, and then we hear and an opera or so, and then we hear the Plays and Players will come to that the Plays and Players will come to the rescue with their Club Night, which the rescue with their Club Night, which sa usual, and the three one-act plays as the play will be essentially as the play will be account to the control of the bride, will be maid of honor. The bride small will be Miss Dorothy Toung, of Easton, Pa.; Miss Helen Washburn, of Schenectady, N., sand Mrs. William Amos Warren Grier, of Salem, N. J. Mr. J. Waldo Harvey, of New York, will act as best man, and the ushers will include Mr. Davis A. Roberts, of Fort Washington, will be miss Dorothy Toung, of Easton, Pa.; Miss Helen Washburn, of Schenectady, N., sand Mrs. William Ar. Dorif Moore, a brother of the ushers will include Mr. To Mr. George Y. Edwards and Mr. T. Davis A. Roberts, of fort Washington, will act as best man, and the ushers will include Mr. Davis A. Roberts, of Salem, N. J. Mr. J. Waldo Harvey, of Salem, N. J. Mr. J. Waldo Harvey, of New York, will act as best man, and the ushers will include Mr. Davis A. Roberts, of Salem, N. J. Mr. J. Waldo Harvey, of New York, will act as best man, and the ushers will include Mr. Davis A. Roberts, of Salem, N. J. Mr. J. Waldo Harvey, of New Yor

DID I tell you about the card party terday for Lake Placid to join a party women on the board of which Mrs. Alexander Sellers, of Hav-

DID I tell you about the chard party terday for Lake Placid to join a party the women on the board of the women on the board of the Edmund's Home for Crippled Children will give in the Rose Gardens of the Bellevie-Stratford on the Bellevie-Stratford on the Bellevie-Stratford on the Bellevie Stratford on children will give the Bellevue-Stratford on March 6? Any number of women have taken tables already for the affair, so it has every promise of success. Among them are Mrs. Robert Lesley, Mrs. Arthur Baugh, Mrs. Charles Townsend, Miss Tack, Mrs. Samuel Castner, Mrs. Francis Maneely, Mrs. George Watt, Mrs. James Pequignot and various others. Later in the month these women will have their annual rummage sale for the benefit of the home and do you remember they raised more than eighteen thousand dollars at their sale last year? It would not surprise me if they cleared twenty this year, they are so enterprise ing.

Township the musical entertainment of the fact of the surprise me if they cleared twenty this year, they are so enterprise ing.

ing.

I THINK the musical entertainment which has been planned by the committee on music of the Art Alliance week-end at the Traymore, Atlantic ton. Miss Merion D. Grant and Mr. William S. Jamison. Jr.

The program gives net one idea of who everybody's husband is, because it does not even call Mr. Jamison anything but a Donino, so I am like Alice feurioser and curioser, though one feurioser has meaning was quite the cannot say her meaning was quite the lie and was burned to death." by Lisa Lehman. Altogether a varied and vermarkably interesting afternoon.

The artists who will take part include Miss Anne Hettinger, Miss Posic Tucker, Miss Ruth Lloyd Kinney, Miss Helen Ferguson. Mr. Joseph Levy. Miss Rebecca Kolker, Mr. Gilbert P. Albrecht, Mr. Otto E. Albrecht, Miss Blanche and Miss Irene Hubbard, Miss Blanche and Miss Irene Hubbard, Miss Lillan Taix, Miss Helen Winneberger. Miss Jeanette Wells Urban and Miss Elizabeth Gest.

The committee on music of the Art Miss Alaw made an address—"Ben Frank-lin Club, recently organized, took place on Wcdersday evening at the Adelphia Hotel, when a number of young men from Chester took part in the program. Mr. J. P. Eyre Price, of Chester, led the negative side in a debate on "The Amendment to the Amendment," the adiranctive being taken by Mr. Henry D. Boenning, of Philadelphia, Mr. William A. Law made an address—"Ben Frank-lin Club, recently organized, took place on Wcdersday evening at the Adelphia Hotel, when a number of young men from Chester took part in the program. Mr. J. P. Eyre Price, of Chester, led the negative side in a debate on "The Amendment to the Amendment," the adiranctive being taken by Mr. Henry D. Boenning, of Philadelphia, Mr. William A. Law made an address—"Ben Frank-lin Club, recently organized, took place on Wcdersday evening at the Adelphia Hotel, when a number of young men from Chester took part in the program. Mr. J. P. Eyre Price, of Chester, led the negative side in a debate on "The Amendment to the Amendment," the adiranctive being taken by Mr. Henry D. Boenning, of Philadelphia, Mr. William A. Law made an address—"Ben Frank-lin Club, recently organized, took place on Wcdersday evening at the Adelphia in Club, recently organized, took place on Wcdersday evening at the Adelphia in Club, recently organized, took place on Wcdersday evening at the Adelphia in Club, recently organized, took place on Wcdersday evening at the Adelphia in Club, recently organized, took place on Wcdersday evening at

The committee on music of the Art Alliance includes Mrs. Edward Coates, Miss Susanna Dercum, who, by the way, has the afternoon in charge; Mr. Henry Drinker, Jr., Miss Edsie Forderer, Mr. Philip Goepp, Mrs. Edward McCol'in, Mrs. John M. Oakley, Mrs. Mrs. Walter Goettman and her son, Ois Skinner, Mrs. Thomas Siewart and Mr. Harvey M. Watts.

street, Manayank, have gone to Sha-mokin and Sunbury, Pa., to visit DID you hear the rumor that the friends.

GERMANTOWN

DMarquis of Blandford and his bride will probably come ever in a few weeks to visit his grandfather Mr. William K. to visit his grandfather Mr. William K. Vanderbilt, in New York? Of course that does not mean anything particularly locally, but Philadelphians on account of the intermarriages of Astors and Vanderbilts and now Whitners and Towers are always interested in the New Yorkers and the fact that the Many out-of-town guests attended. The wedding will take place in the fall. Miss Prudence McCullin, of 4502 North Nineteenth street, will entertain their friends at a banquet and reception this evening at Heinz's Hall. The members of the guests were Mr. Charles McCulloush, Miss Dorothy A. Wheeler, Master, Mr. Joseph McCullough, Mr. Joseph Gilespie, Mr. Joseph Couloush, Mr. Joseph Gilespie, Mr. Joseph Zussy, Their marquis is the son of the Duchess of Mariborough, who was Miss Vanderbilt, is of interest. He married the Honorable Miss Cadogan in St. Margaret's Church just before Lent, you know, and the King and Queen and the Princess Mary and our own little friend "David," otherwise Edward Albert, were all at the wedding.

dancing class.

An interesting wedding to society in this city took place on Tuesday in Winchester, Mass., when Miss Helen Gretchen Avery became the bride of Mr. Horace Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Butler, of West Chester. The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Paul F. Avery was matron of honor and Mr. Samuel Butler was best man. The ushers included Brigadier General Smedley Darlington Butler, United States marine corps, Mr. Orville H. Bullit, Mr. Johns Hopkins, Mr. Charles Walton, Mr. J. Vaughn Merrick, Mr. Lawrence Sharpless, of West Chester; Mr. Paul F. Avery, Mr. S. Warren McKean Downs, Mr. James Austin and Mr. William Kirk, of New York, After their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Butler will live in Charleston, W. Vu.

Muss Louise Strawbridge, daughter of

LANSDOWNE

Mrs. X. Byrne Dougherty is chair-man of a class in "Citizenship." which meets every Thursday at the clubhouse. Mr. Warwick James Price will give 1713 Spruce street day evening, February 25. Dr. Samuel Batten is spending sev-

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

New Yorkers and the fact that the marquils is the son of the Ducless of Markhorough, who was Miss Youngstown, Markhorough, who was Miss Youngstown, Markhorough, who was Miss Youngstown, Miss Cadegran in St. Margaret's Church just before Lent, you know, and the King and Queen and the Princess Mary and our own little filed "David," otherwise Edward Albert, we all at the wedding.

NANCY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Miss Sarah Atlee Downs will be the prince for the Sarah Atlee Downs will be the First of horor at a dinner to be given by Mrs. Norton Downs, of Fordhooke Farm. Three Tuns, on April 6, before the meeting of the Saturday evening aching of the Saturday evening the meeting of the Saturday evening in Wilson Presbyterian Church, Mrs. and Mrs. William F. Troost, the Miss Calves Wallow, Mrs. Robert of His month of the Church of the a lecture on current events at the Twentieth Century Club, under the anspices of the Junior Section Club, on Thursday evening, February 25.

The Visiting Women's Auxiliary of The we the Ocean City Presbyterian Church, of spring.

The Signa Deita Soverity will give a subscription dance at the Twentieth Century Club on Friday evening, rebruary 27.

which Miss Ida K. Baner, of 2016 West Columbia avenue, is the president, will give an informal tea on Thursday afternoon, February 26, at the home of Mrs. Andrew J. Paul, North Fiftieth street. Mrs. William D. Chambers, of 5217 North Broad street, is vice president; Mrs. William K. Harris, secretary 27.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. Luther H. Chatham and Miss Helen C. Chatham, of 5818 Catharine street, will spend the week-end at Atlantic City.

Who before her marriage on Tuesday, February 17, was Miss Lorraine Goodrich Graham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Eldon Graham, of

A dance will be held at the Crafts-men's Club, in Drexel Hill, on Wednes-ral weeks in California. Mrs. Robert F. Irwin has been spending several days at Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Matthews, of Brooklyn, N. Y., have been spending several days in Lansdowne with Mrs. Matthew's mother, Mrs. J. P. White-

A reception was given by Mrs. B.
Meiman in honor of the engagement of her daughter. Miss Anna Meiman, to Mr. Joseph Litz. on Sunday, at her home, 2630 North Thirty-first street.
Many out-of-town guests attended. The wedding will take place in the fall.

Miss. Guy S. Laue, of 2510
South Nineteenth street, are leaving this city for California. Their son, Mr. Robert B. Lane, will accompany them.

The Uno Country Club will entertain their friends at a banquet and reception this evening at Heinz's Hall. The mem-formerly of

1302 Walnut Street

Announce

The Premier Exhibit of FASHIONS DESIGNED

SPRING WEAR

MILLINERY

STREET, OUTING & COSTUME SUITS

UTILITY, TRAVEL & SPORTS COATS

DAY & EVENING DRESSES

TODAY AND SATURDAY

FORMAL SHOWING

lane, gave a luncheon on Wednesday both Hey, daughter of Mrs. Robert Hey, of Ridge avenue, whose engagement to Mrs. Keely's son, Mr. Edmund Keely, Jr., has been announced.
The guests included Miss Helena Rehfuss, Miss Roberta Rea Neill, Miss Mildred Hey, Mrs. Frederick Merrill
Brecht, Mrs. Charles Kremer, Mrs.
Ralph Hendrick, Mrs. Frederick Clark,
Mrs. Charles Kruger, Miss Marian
Clark, Mrs. Richard Hey and Mrs. tary; and Mrs. Robert C. Ross, Jr.,

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Berlin, who Mrs. Clark, in Atlantic City, have gone to Washington, where they will make their home. The bride was Miss Bertha Pinkowitz. Harry Motz. Monastery avenue, and her sister, Mrs. Charles Jones Thompson, of East Lev-erington avenue, gave a luncheon, fol-

Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. Laue, of 2510

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zecca, of 1431 South Fifteenth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Julia Zecca, to Mr. Angelo Santaro. The wedding will take place early in the guest of honor at a dinner this evening. which Mrs. Jones Wister will give at PARIS PHILADELPHIA

Miss Louise Strawbridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Strawbridge, of Three Walls, Chestnut Hill, will be the

Temporary Quarters

Second Floor of the Present Location

1422 Walnut St.

We are now showing in our temporary showrooms advance models of Gidding's Fashions for Spring

We Will Remove to the Ritz-Carlton as Soon as Alterations Are Completed.