

BOY SCOUTS READY FOR HOLIDAY HIKE

Between 300 and 400 Will Gather Tomorrow at Valley Forge

TREASURE HUNTS PLANNED

Some will hike, some will ride in automobiles and trains, and others will just jolt their way to Valley Forge on trucks, but altogether from 300 to 400 Boy Scouts are expected to arrive there before 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

In fact, the Narberth troop is expected to set out tonight in order to walk all the way and still arrive in time for the party tomorrow.

This is the eighth annual pilgrimage of the Delaware county and Montgomery county Boy Scouts and it is moved ahead one day this year because Washington's Birthday falls on Sunday.

The boys are busy today getting ready their heavy equipment of luncheon, which will be cooked over open fires built by the boys on the hills behind the Washington Memorial Chapel.

Nobody will know how large the party will be until the boys meet at Washington's headquarters, which will be the starting point of the sightseeing expedition.

Immediately following will be four treasure hunts. The boys will divide into four sections and take up different trails leading to the buried treasure. Guided by notes, the boys will pretty well cover the ground of Valley Forge before they arrive at the buried treasure.

The treasure hunt will be followed by lunch at 12:30. Cooking utensils and wood-chopping implements will be busy for the best part of an hour; that is, until all the food has disappeared.

A special patriotic service, exclusively for the boys, will be held in the memorial chapel at 1:30 o'clock and at 2:41 o'clock the boys will return home.

E. A. Carlson, scout executive for the two counties, will be in charge of the pilgrimage.
