Contempt Charges LABOR CAUCUS IS STORMY WITHDRAWS FROM CASE

Displeasure of Roland C. Evans, an attorney, over the line of questioning Washington, Feb. 20 .- Union labor, of his client nursued by Judge Rogers, led by officers of the American Federain Quarter Sessions Court today, re-sulted in a clash and the withdrawal of Mr. Evans from the case under the threat of being held in contempt of tion of Labor and the railroad brotherboods, today had well under way its fight in Congress against that adoption Eugene Lehman, who conducts a Eugene Lehman, who conducts a garage on Orianna street, was being tried for receiving a stolen automobile. "How many cars have you boneht and sold in the last year?" Judga Rowers asked the defendant.

"About 135." Lehman replied.
"That's better than they do in New York," commented the judge.
Mr. Evans was on his feet with an objection, charging that the question representatives of fifteen railroad unions conference yesterday and which was addressed to Congress as a whole, individual congressmen were deluged today by letters and telegrams from union leaders generally protesting against enactment of the bill into law.

The plan of the unions, it was shown, provide first for a determined fight in the House and Senate. If defeated there the controversy will be taken direct to President Wilson in the hone of a veto. Opposition of the unions, as shown in the memorial to Congress declaring the bill to be destructive of the employes' constitutional privilege, is Lehman testified that he bought the machine from a George Miller. It was stolen from or lost by John Hess, January 22, 1919. Lehman said he had misplaced the bill of sale and receipt and said that he found later that Miller had given a fertificus name. ler had given a fictitious name.

After a witness testified as to the character of Lehman, the Court sent
