

To-morrow—Saturday, Will Be the Greatest Day of the Strawbridge & Clothier Clearance of Men's Clothing

THE climax of this extraordinary event will undoubtedly be reached to-morrow! Hundreds of men who could not leave their business earlier in the week will be able to share the great benefits of the Sale on Saturday! Permit us to urge those who can come before noon to do so! But, whatever hour of the day you can spare, IF YOU NEED CLOTHING, DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY! In view of the fact that Clothing costs more to produce right now than ever before, and that spring Clothing costs us more than we paid for these winter lines, the REDUCTIONS ARE EXTRAORDINARY! No matter how many seasons you may count on wearing an Overcoat, don't hesitate a moment to BUY IT NOW. As for the Suits, they also are a gilt-edge investment—and many are half-lined; just right for early spring.

SUICIDE HUSBAND LOYAL, SAYS WIFE

Declares Edward W. Maxwell, of Wayne, Deranged When He Wrote Note

"If my husband left a note saying he was unfaithful to me, I believe he was deranged and killed himself while out of his mind."

Loyalty to her husband is the uppermost thought in the mind of Mrs. Edward W. Maxwell, of Wayne, who is now on her way to claim the body of her husband, a suicide, in Colorado Springs. Unfortunate speculations by Maxwell with his own and his wife's money may be what the note referred to, Mrs. Maxwell said.

Police reports from that place say Maxwell was found in a park on Tuesday. He was unconscious with a revolver by which he shot himself beside him.

"I have been untrue to my wife, please forgive me," the police say was written on a note left by the dead man.

Maxwell disappeared mysteriously on February 10. He left his home to go to his office in the city, but never arrived. Mrs. Maxwell had the police make a thorough search for him, but no trace of him could be found.

"Our home life was very happy," Mrs. Maxwell said before starting.
