STRAIGHT SET DEFEAT

Boston, Feb. 21-Jay Gould, Philadelphia's world champion racquet

player, was eliminated this afternoon

The famous Quaker City player dropped out of the championship run-ning when he was beaten by Fulton Cutting, of this city, in the first round of play on the courts of the Tennis and Racquet Cub here. Cutting's victory came as a complete surprise, especially the apparent ease with which he eliminated the great

Philadelphia player. It was a straight set victory. The scores were 15-5.

Set victory. The scores were 15-5, 15-11, 15-12.
 Another Philadelphian, S. W. Pearson, was beaten in the only other match played today. Pearson was defeated, 15-11, 15-7, 15-11 by F. F. Freling-burger of New York.

Gould started poorly and it was not long before Cutting piled up a big lead in the first set. In the second set, Gould

In the first set. In the second set, Gould got under way better. It was nip and tuck in the third set with Gould giving the local player a fight for every point. Although Gould holds many titles at racquets, his best game is court tennis. Some time ago he defeated Walter Kin-cells for the national open court tennis huysen, of New York.
