OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

FILLING pound boxes of candy at the Stephen F. Whitman & Son confectionery factory, 415 Race street. The boxes move along slowly on the large belt and as they pass each packer a piece or pieces of candy are placed in the boxes. The workers shown from left to right are Miss Edna Ballinger, 192 North Hobart street, West Philadelphia, and Miss Rose Toland, 622 Wood street.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

SAD ABOUT something, but not afraid to show the two teeth that she was born with, indicating the number by two raised fingers. She's a citizen of Chicago.

MAJOR CHARLES M. STEDMAN, of North Carolina, and Major General Isaac R. Sherwood, of Ohio, both members of Congress, who served with distinction in the civil war. The former was a Confederate and the latter of the Union ranks.

MISS FRANCES PAllen, 1331 South Fairhill Street, Phila. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.
