

BUSINESS BOOMING, SPEED PRODUCTION
Big Orders for Machinery Indication of Prosperity of City's Enterprises
NEW SHOPS BEING BUILT

An increase in production by the utilization of labor-saving devices and machinery in increasing quantities is one method the iron, steel and machinery manufacturers are adopting to meet the present situation of huge orders.
According to the Niles-Bement-Pond Co., manufacturers of cranes and machinery, shops are being extended, old and worn-out or antiquated machinery is being scrapped and replaced by up-to-date devices, and new shops are being erected to take care of the business that is pouring in upon the manufacturers.

WILLS HER BOOKS TO FREE LIBRARY
Scandinavian Collection of Mrs. Charlotte Y. Otsen Eventually Comes Here
OTHER PAPERS PROBATED

A request that her collection of Danish, Swedish and Norwegian books ultimately revert to the Philadelphia Free Library, to form the nucleus of a Scandinavian department, is made in the will of Mrs. Charlotte Y. Otsen, probated today.

Mrs. Otsen formerly lived at the Gladstone Apartments, this city. She died in Pasadena, Calif. She bequeathed a $69,000 estate to her husband, children and grandchildren. The husband, Tenius Otsen, who receives her library, is requested to bequeath her

BURGLARS DINE ON VICTIM
Enjoy Meal in Kennett Square Home After Taking Cash
Burglars entered six homes in Kennett Square, near West Chester, Sunday night, and completed their program with a dinner in one of the victim's homes. Cash was the chief desire of the thieves, and they overlooked a large amount of silver in their eagerness to get currency.

Money was taken from the homes of Frank Milhous, Alexander Guthrie and H. S. Corson. A suit of clothes and other articles were stolen from Joseph Bostie's home, and Sinclair Bazaar was the unconscious host of the marauders in their final entry. They took some cash and cigars after they had raided the ice box.

It was at the home of William Cochran that the thieves, too intent upon obtaining money, overlooked valuable silver.

Moving merchandise is an old story with us. Moving our offices and effects is a new adventure. More floor space, more up-to-date facilities and a more convenient location for our out-of-town clients, were the urge behind the move.

We are now located in the Cuyler Building at 116 West 32nd Street, within a stone's throw of the Pennsylvania Railroad Station.
While there may be no selling benefit to advertisers in our new address, there is plenty of selling ingenuity in this organization which we are ready to apply to your sales and advertising problems, be they simple or complicated.
