

LLOYD GEORGE IDEA IN HOME RULE BILL

Two Parliaments, With Extensive Powers to Control Internal Affairs in Ireland

BRITISH MISRULE SCORED

London, Feb. 26.—The bill for Irish home rule, long promised by the government, was presented in the House of Commons yesterday. The first reading was of the title alone and was a mere formality, preliminary to taking up the measure at the session today.

The present bill, it is understood, adheres comparatively closely to the measure outlined by Premier Lloyd George last December. The government's project centers on the setting up of two parliaments in Ireland, one for the south and one for the north.

For the north of Ireland the area embraced will probably include the six counties mentioned by the premier. Slightly some slight modifications, as a consequence of which the northern parliament will be a very much smaller body than the southern organization.

The proposed legislatures will have extensive powers and also representation in the Imperial Parliament. Such matters as education, agriculture, agriculture, transportation, municipal affairs, insurance, and the collection of taxes will be under the control of these two legislatures, while matters of more serious import to the empire, such as foreign affairs, defense, navigation and the higher judiciary are reserved for the decision of the Imperial Parliament.

Premier Lloyd George announced that the proceeds of land annuities in Ireland would be given as a free gift to the two parliaments, and estimated that this would amount to $2,000,000 for the year. This sum, or other equitable provision will be made for the maintenance of the parliaments, if the government's bill is accepted.

The report of the commission of inquiry into the conditions in Ireland is a strong denunciation of what is characterized as the British misrule of Ireland. The report declares, "would drive any spirited nation into deep-seated and dangerous discontent, adding that where the administration is not merely unintelligent it appears to be deliberately provocative."

"The economic regeneration of Ireland, which would help materially to destroy existing animosities and speedily efface the memory of historic wrongs, cannot be successfully achieved unless and until the political problem is solved. The fundamental necessity there is a change in the political system."

Sinn Fein a Real Factor The report says it is undeniable that the Sinn Fein "in some directions functions as the de facto government. It has established courts, whose decisions are respected, and issues decrees that are obeyed by a very considerable part of the population."

The report expresses the belief that either a dominion self-government, with provision for the protection of minorities or a measure of self-government determined by an Irish national assembly elected by proportional representation, in both cases reserving defense and foreign relations to the Imperial Parliament.

Non ostante che gli ufficiali del Concilio non abbiano dato alcuna notizia relativa al contenuto della nota, si apprende che essa non contiene alcuna minaccia secondo la quale l'America si ritirerebbe dagli affari europei, ma si insiste sull'adozione del piano per la sistemazione dell'Adriatico secondo l'accordo stabilito il giorno 9 dicembre scorso.

Parigi, 26 febbraio.—La replica del Presidente Wilson agli Alleati, dice Pertinax, lo scrittore dell'Espresso di Parigi, "in forma moderata e non dice contenere la minaccia di ritirarsi dagli affari europei, ma in sostanza insiste sui piani per l'Adriatico del 9 dicembre scorso."

Londra, 26 febbraio.—L'On. Nitti, presidente del Consiglio dei Ministri d'Italia, sembra che prolunghera la sua permanenza in omdra, allo scopo di definire e quanto meno avviare alla sua definizione la questione Adriatica.

We have never sought to develop the Hudson Super-Six as the greatest speed and power car in the world.

It is true that in speed—in hill-climbing—in quick acceleration—no stock car ever matched it. Official records show that. But they are incidental. They were made in tests to prove Hudson endurance.

A Distinctive Design An Exclusive Motor

Surely these great performance qualities are enough to account for Hudson's five years of leadership as the largest selling fine car in the world. Any owner would take pride in a car that none has equalled in any worth-while performance record.

Yet a large class of Hudson buyers selected it for an altogether different quality.
