

ASK LEGION POSTS FOR BONUS VIEWS

State Commander Asks All to Tell Congressmen What Compensation Is Wanted

PLAN HOME IN KENSINGTON

In a communication to all the posts of the American Legion in Pennsylvania, George F. Tyler, department commander, has asked that the Legion's position on the question of adjusted compensation for former service men and women be stated to the Congressmen in their respective districts.

"At a meeting of the national executive committee at Indianapolis, February 10, special consideration was given to the question of the resolution relating to adjusted compensation passed by the national convention at Minneapolis. That resolution stated:

"That while the American Legion was not founded for the purpose of promoting legislation in its selfish interest, it recognizes that our government has an obligation to all service men and women to relieve the financial disadvantages incidental to their military service—an obligation second only to that of caring for the disabled and for the widows and orphans of those who sacrificed their lives, and one already acknowledged by our Allies—but the American Legion feels that it cannot ask for legislation in its selfish interest, and leaves with confidence to the Congress the discharge of this obligation."

No Congressional Action

"In view of the fact that no definite action has been taken by Congress and because of the many inquiries from members of Congress as to what a fair adjustment would be, the national executive committee unanimously passed a resolution after a thorough investigation of 100,000 savings bank accounts of men who were not in the service showed an average increase of $400, and the average length of military service being eight months, stating:

"That it is the sense of the national executive committee that all service men and women are entitled to adjusted compensation in the form and amount of a $50 bond for each month of service."

"In view of the fact that the state convention at Harrisburg did not adopt a resolution opposing adjusted compensation, though it did defeat one endorsing it, and because the national convention itself did not stipulate any specific amount in its resolution, therefore each post in Pennsylvania is requested to communicate its own views regarding adjusted compensation to its congressman, stating the amount if the post favors such adjustment. In this way every congressman will have the opinion of the posts within his jurisdiction."

Campaign in Kensington

A campaign for a $50,000 home to be used as a community center and for the American Legion was launched by Kensington Post No. 68 in the Northeast Girls' High School, Amber and Cumberland streets, last night. This post outlined its movement for the collection of this fund, and gave assurance that very definite plans had been made to obtain the money for the building of the home. It will be dedicated to the boys who died in the service from the post area. The officers of this post who are promoting the campaign are: Commander, T. Matlack; vice commander, James Walker; historian, D. Elliott; finance officer, N. Simelson; adjutant, F. W. Thompson; chaplain, W. B. Pugh.

Carl Sachs, vice chairman of the county committee, represented the county organization at the meeting. David W. Jameson Post No. 183 has made the following appeal to its members:

"Musically inclined members are asked to send a postal to Louis Kiss, of 1919 Glenwood avenue, stating what voice they sing or instrument they play."

"Athletically inclined members are asked to get in touch with William McIntire, of 3247 A street, and tell him what teams they desire to be active on. There is to be a Philadelphia County American Legion Baseball League."

At the semi-monthly meeting held on Tuesday, February 24, Post Joseph V.

Post No. 277 declared itself unanimously in favor of the proposed bonus plan submitted to Congress by the legion's executive committee.

J. M. Schwartz, chairman of the third district, addressed the meeting and paid a high tribute to the activities of the post. An extensive campaign to enroll new members will be conducted in the First, Second and Third wards. Any former service men desiring to join can do so by communicating with Joseph A. Lombardi, 1713 South Eleventh street.

A minstrel show and games will be given at Moose Hall, 1317 North Broad street, on May 5.

Meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month at its temporary headquarters, 814 South Tenth street, Philadelphia.

Martin Post Plans Memorial

With $150,000 as their goal, the members of Robert J. Martin Post No. 98 have begun their drive for enough funds to erect a memorial building for service men in the Thirty-third ward. The men in charge, under the direction of Chairman John Mawhinney, began to canvass the various manufacturers and homes soliciting for the building drive. As an impetus to the success of the campaign, the northeast Kensington business men have endorsed the drive.

and will lend every support possible to make it a big success.

Posters are being distributed throughout this section, and meetings held in the churches to explain the purpose of the American Legion and the value of a community house for the residents of this section. At the present time there is no public community house suitable for meetings, and it is the plan of Post No. 98 to hold its own meetings in the new house and also permit the residents of this section to assemble there for public gatherings. Educational and physical features will be embodied when the memorial building is constructed.

The headquarters for the $150,000 drive are at 321 East Allegheny avenue, where the various division teams are meeting each day and reports made on the progress of the drive.

The Joseph Faussett Bellak Post No. 195, formerly the Fourth Naval District Post, American Legion, will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Bellevue-Stratford on Tuesday evening, March 24.

Mrs. Blanche A. Bellak, mother of the dead naval officer whose name the post bears, has been invited to attend the meeting and address the comrades. Mrs. Bellak represented the "navy mothers" at the exercises held at the Metropolitan Opera House on Sunday last. The entertainment committee is perfecting plans for another attractive program. "Joe" Tinney and "Charley" Boyden hope to be able to be present.

Memorial to Heroes

On Tuesday evening the Stern-Price Post 417, American Legion, held a meeting at the Continental Club, Eighth and Jefferson streets. The most important part of the meeting was to derive ways and means for the distribution of a fund for a memorial for the two heroes for whom this post is named in order to perpetuate their names. After a lengthy debate it was decided to plant a tree at the National Farm School, Doylestown, Pa. This tree is to be known as the Post 417 Memorial to Private Milton Stern and Sergeant Aaron J. Price.

At this school there is a special grove founded by the Rev. Dr. Joseph Krauskopf known as the patriots' grove. In it are planted trees by many families in memory of their sons, who died while in the service. The post also decided to hold memorial services at the grove, and a speaker, who shall be a member of the post and one who knew intimately these two soldiers prior to their departure "over there," will pay fitting tributes. The bodies of both Stern and Price are expected back in the United States, and upon their arrival the post plans a larger memorial. Post 417 is carrying out this activity from the funds which it recently procured through an affair given at the Second Regiment Armory on Lincoln's Birthday. The charge of all arrangements for both events: Morris H. Starr, post adjutant; Marvin H. Reinheimer, Dr. Charles K. Schaefer, Max Baylison, Armand G. Loeb and A. Hirsch.
