

Kugler's Restaurant Destroyed by Fire: "Strike," a City Hall Pet: Asquith in Parliament

The central section of the city was well illuminated by the fire that destroyed Kugler's Restaurant, at 1412 Chestnut street, last night. Many thrilling rescues added to the spectacular scene. On the left an apparatus, rendered useless by the intense cold that froze the falling water, is shown coated with ice at the Land Title Building in Sansom street. The center photograph is a view of the first floor dining room, showing the fallen balcony and the charred remains of dozens of tables and chairs and other fixtures. What is left to the skylight and interior directly under them is shown in the photograph taken on the first floor, at the right.

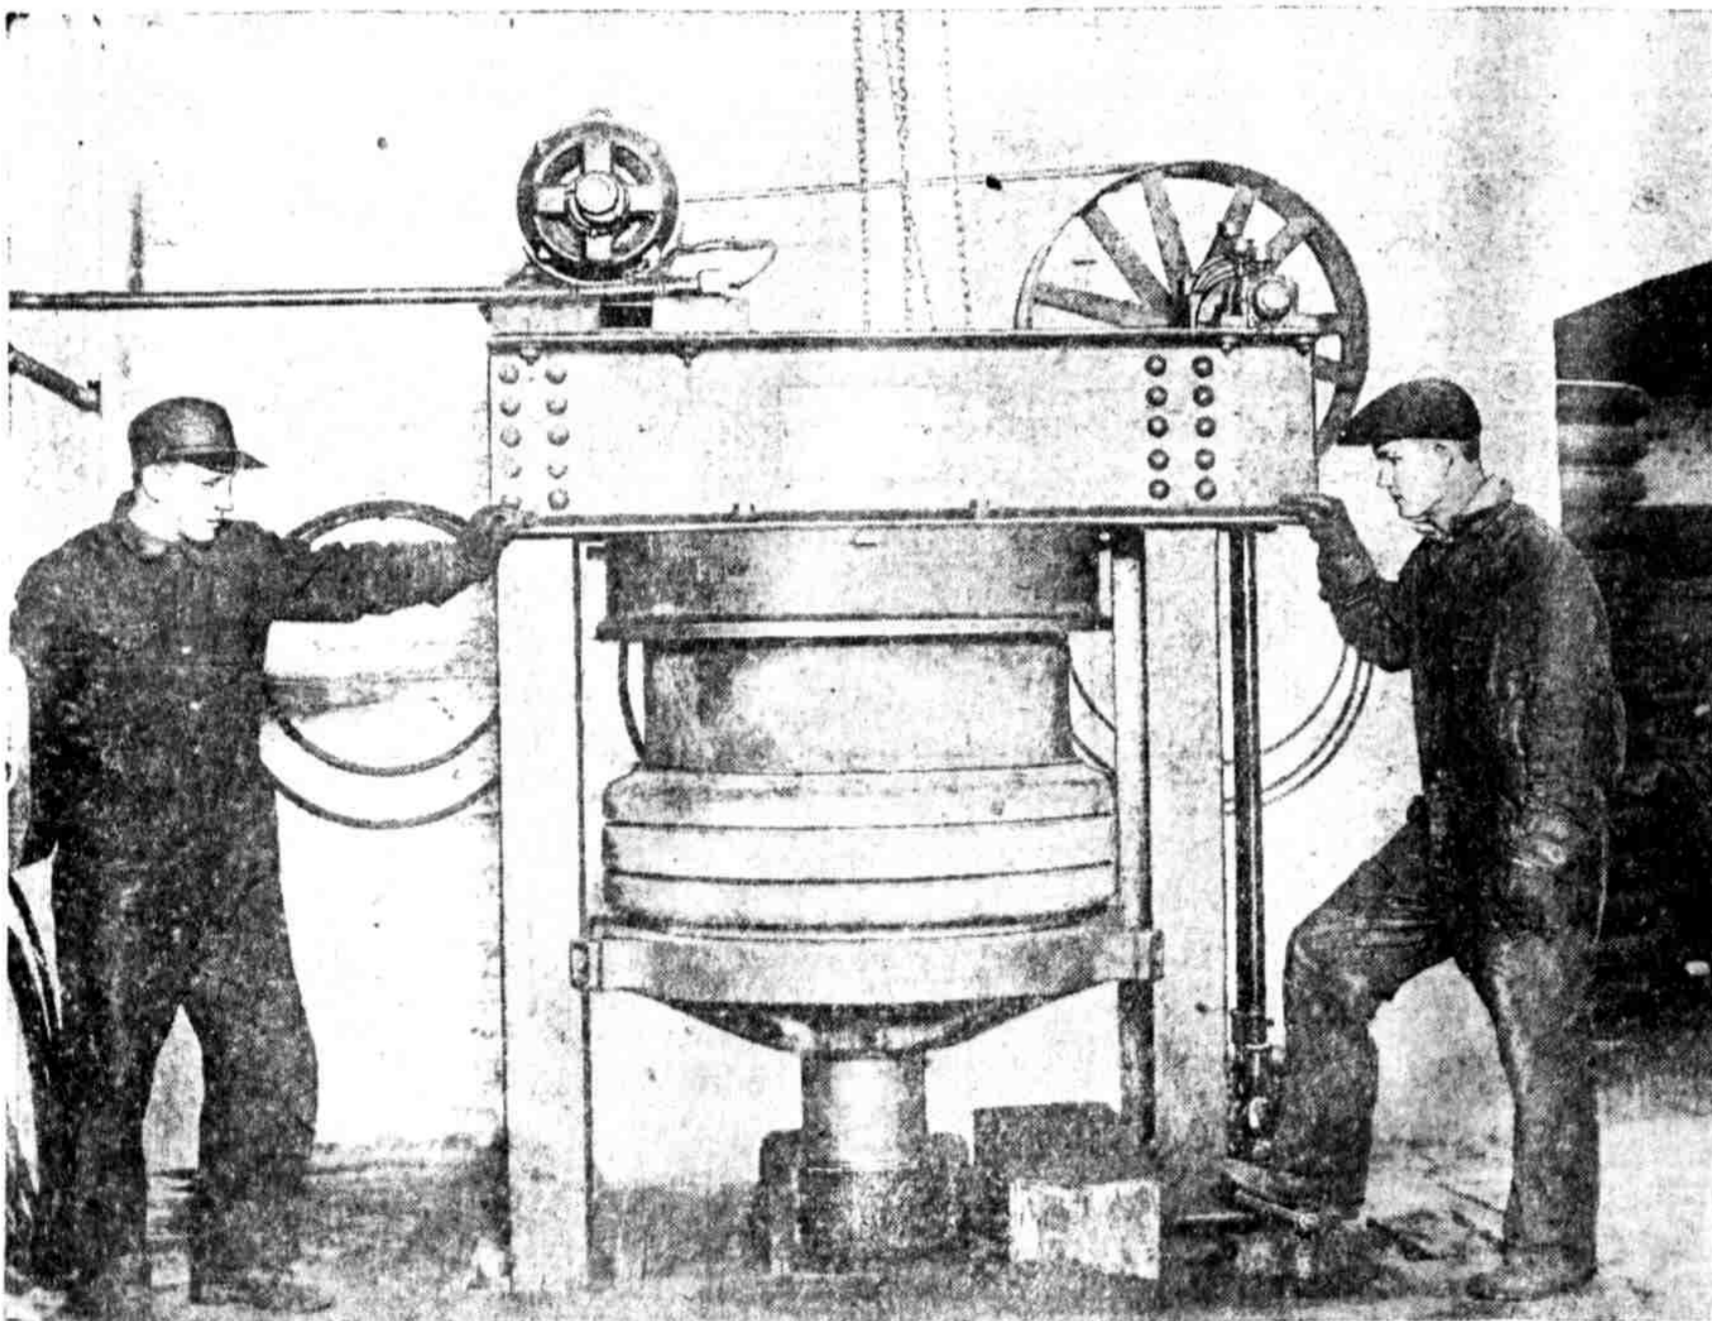

"STRIKE" the large cat, is City Hall's leading mascot. Brought from Kensington by a woman arrested during a street-car strike riot several years ago, the cat soon made itself a home. It is shown on Magistrate Rooney's desk.

SOMETHING NEW in mascots. These lion cubs were recently presented to a British regiment in the Sudan.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

CHARLES FOULKE, 312 North Twenty-second street, left, and Jack Gosner, 232 No. 21 Twenty-first street, applying a fourteen-inch solid tire to the wheel of a seven-ton truck at the service station of the Franklin Tire and Rubber Co., 2121-25 Vine street. A hydraulic press with a pressure of 300 tons is used, which is necessary to expand the steel base of the tire over the band of the wheel.
