DON'T forget that the rummage sale for the benefit of the First Day Nursery will open today at 1511 Walnut street. For three days there will be things for sale, and remarkable things I am told, and I don't doubt it. I to'd an about the hat I bought at one sate last fall for $4, which was worth $16. and had only been worn once. Some shways went to the sales to buy—what on earth do you think? Why, old high hats. Imagine it! Who would be able to do anything with an old high hat? assure you she showed me one she was using heeself and it was a beauty.

Mrs. Joe Leidy is president of the day nursery, and Mrs. William Waterman. Mrs. Henry Bartol Brazier and say number of others are on the com-mittee. The sale will be held tomorrow

THEY are going to have a very in-A teresting time on March 16 at the Saturday Club at Wayne. I think I have told you once or twice of Dr. Elsie Rose of the Little House of St. Pantawho has done such splendid work wearing such a smart toproat of cara-cul and lynx fur. She also had a most fetching toque of black material trim-med with small flowers. Every time I see her I am more astonished when I we her daughter.
