VAUCLAIN TO SEEK POLICEMAN FOILS CONVENTION SEAT WINDOW THIEVES

Candidacy for Delegate to Republican National Meeting

Samuel M. Vauclain, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, announced Republican national convention, Mr. Seventh congressional district, Delaware and Chester counties, the home district of Governor Sproul. It is conceded generally that the Governor and the Republican state organization will support Mr. Vauclain.

Up to this time it had been expected that William I. Schaffer, of Chester, attorney general, close friend of the Governor, would be a caudidate for the same district. As two delegates are to be chosen from each district, Mr. Vau-clain and the attorney general may be running mates or Mr. Schaffer may be put on the ticket at large.

Schaffer is "slated" to make the nom-ating speech at Chicago in the event at Governor Sproul is proposed on e floor of the convention as a can-late for President. May Nominate Sproul

PROVOST'S PLANS REJECTED

Dr. Edgar Fahs Smith, provest of the University of Pennsylvania, today refused to comment on the assertion that he was forced to hard in his resignation because of the blocking of his plans for state aid for public schools

Doctor Smith's resignation to this the people of this commonwealth? naming two of the trustees, Wharnton Pepper and Hampton L. Carson, as "corporation lawyers who rendered those who possess accumu-lated wealth a service when they helped to defeat the provost's proposals.

"I Do Not Read Such Things" "I have not read Doctor Witmer's statement; I do not read such things." was the only comment Mr. Pepper would make on the Witmer statement. Horace M. Lippincott, who according to Doctor Witmer was the "promoter of much unwholesome alumni sentiment," said that "the majority of the alumni are enthusiastically in favor of Provost Smith's reconstruction program, made public last year, which called for 'training of leadership' rather than for the education of the magnetic statements. than for the education of the masses." He added that "concentration rather than expansion" is needed and that it is only right that the state should pay for such public work as the medical and dental clinics.

Members of the board of trustees and faculty alike declined to comment in detail on Doctor Witmer's statement. Doctor Smith is a member of the constitutional revision committee and serves on the subcommittee intrusted with educational matters.
