One of the popular children of the sotion-picture world is Lawrence shason, four and one-half years old, onnson, tour and one-half years old, he plays a juvenile part in this pic-re. He played with Elsie Ferguson "The Avalanche." William Faver-min "The Silver King" and Marrite Clark in "Mrs. Wiggs of the bage Patch."

With the distinction of being the rest production ever filmed in the st, "The Copperhead," from the play Augustus Thomas, marks an achieve at in the progress of the making of tien pictures. The picture enters its and week at the Palace. Thousands extras, men, women and children re employed, and they were transsorted to and from location in sight-seing buses. Two hundred G. A. R. s took part in the reunion Fifty battle flags, some so worn hat they are pieced together, were stried by the veterans.

A complete city was built on a large ract of ground leased near Elmhurst,

L. There were erected a church,

i. I. There were erected a cauren, conthouse, blacksmith shop, hotel, repeal store and houses, all of which had four walls, which is unusual in hieure work. As seenes for the different periods of the picture—1846-1861 and 1863 and 1903—were shot, hanges were made in the city such as mally would take place.
