

Band at 9; organ at 11, 11:55 and 4:50
chimes at Noon

WANAMAKER'S

Store Opens at 9

WANAMAKER'S

Store Closes at 5

WANAMAKER'S

WEATHER
Fair

After the Gale the Sunshine, and the Beautiful Goods for Spring

The Make-Up of the First Cabinet of the First President

George Washington, and the first Secretary of State, Thomas Jefferson, of Virginia; the first Secretary of the Treasury, Alexander Hamilton, of New York; the first Secretary of War, Henry Knox, of Massachusetts, and the first Attorney-General, Edmund Randolph, a Governor of Virginia.

The transcendent wisdom of Washington stands out magnificently in his selection of such men of ability and patriotism to aid him in administering the United States Government. As he expressed it himself: "The selection of the fittest characters to expound the laws and dispense justice has been an invariable object of my anxious concern."

The dignity and dress of these gentlemen of our early days as they appear in the picture might be copied in Philadelphia and Washington at the present time to great advantage.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

March 6, 1920.

Next Friday Evening Celebrating Founder's Day

Mr. Courboin, the great organist, and a brass choir from the Philadelphia Orchestra will render a concert of particular excellence in the Grand Court at 8:15.

Tickets for this concert may be had now at the Orchestra Concert Bureau near the Motor Entrance.

The Most Beautiful French Beaded Handbags

that we have ever shown—or even seen, anywhere—have just come in from abroad.

In the marvelous combination of their colors, these bags are masterpieces, especially the antique bags and others in light colorings. In such the blending of delicate shades is exquisite.

In texture these fine bags seem more like some rich, soft fabric than beaded work. Some are draw-string style, some have handsome sterling silver frames and others have carved celluloid frames.

Prices $30 to $500. (Main Floor, Chestnut)

Women's Novelty Suits With Coats of Finger-Tip Length

Fashion and common sense and becomingness for once go together—the coat of finger-tip length is smart, it is short enough not to seem too warm on a bright Spring day and it suits both the tall and the short. And you may see it here in some of our finest novelty suits.

As a rule these suits are tricotine, Poiret twill, herring-bone or tricolette; and, of course, there are more navy blues than other colors. There are hardly two suits alike; some are very simply bound and decorated with silk braid and some are heavily embroidered, the decoration being kept to the lower part of the coat.

The tricolette suits are the most delightful of all—one gray one is combined with black charmeuse and embroidered with black. Prices $85 to $275. (First Floor, Central)

The Long-Waisted Effect Is Creeping Into Spring Coats

Paris has repeatedly hinted at it and it has already appeared in dresses.

Now you may see it in some beautiful new coats of duvetyne, bolivia, evora and vicuna weaves. Sometimes there is a long panel effect front and back with the skirt part put on in gathers or straight.

One lovely new silk-and-wool duvetyne has this new low waist line, the upper part being straight and plain and the lower part stitched all over in diamond-shaped figures.

All the colors are light and Springlike and the prices are from $175 to $300. (First Floor, Central)

Women's Charming New Hats That Follow the Newest Fashion Trends

as decreed by Paris and the last Fashion dictates. They are all hats from our own workrooms, are unusual and charming, and there is, of course, just one of each.

Many hats are of the glistening, pretty, callipane brim—and a particularly fascinating affair is of the new brown-red, with a brim of brown maline.

Horsehair, too, makes many charming hats—one of this airy braiding has a medium-size brim, slightly curled up, a twist of French blue ribbon and embroidered, colorful flowers, flat on the brim.

Even leather is used this Spring—a bewitching little turban of red leather has embroidery in bright hues and a gleam of patent leather.

And taffeta is liked by Dame Fashion for other hats—you will see it in a huge hat of black with a smart cockade of black grosgrain for its only adorning, and in another blue-and-red hat, much embroidered.

But these are only a few of the many new things to see and admire and wear! $16 to $28. (Second Floor, Chestnut)

A Pretty Bracelet Compliments a Pretty Arm

Some of the most fascinating new bracelets are of the flexible sort and they are in 14-kt. green gold. The links are either engine-turned or engraved gold or they are set with small sapphires, tourmalines, amethysts or diamonds. A few have the entire link made of black onyx.

Such a bracelet, and at about this price is very much liked for gifts, $19 to $85. (Jewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

Daintiest of Laces Real Valenciennes

Few are being made now, but our representative on his recent trip to Belgium and France did succeed in finding some really beautiful pieces of this lace, and they have made our collection unusually complete.

All the widths that are so very fashionable for trimming lingerie dresses and blouses and for making round and straight collars, and also the narrower widths for trimming baby's clothes.

Edges, 3/4-inch at 38c a yard up to 3 1/2 inches at $22.50 a yard. Insertions from 1/4-inch at 38c a yard up to $15 for one 3 inches wide. (Main Floor, Central)

THE Silk Stocking Shop has received some waited-for domestic silk hose—white open-work at $8; black open-work with all-over vertical stripes at $7 and $8. Black with open-work ankles, $6 and $7. White grenadine open-work, $8. Black-and-white shot silk with white and colored clocks, $8.

(First Floor, Market)

Silk Petticoats for Spring

Taffetas in the dark and bright colors to wear under street dresses, $9 to $12.

Jersey petticoats, with fancy founcings, $12.

All-Jersey petticoats, with tailored founcings and others more elaborate, $12 to $22.50.

Pompadour taffetas in all leading shades, $12.

Extra-sized taffetas and messalines in the leading shades, $10. (Third Floor, Central)

Waists at Special Prices

We can promise a pretty fair assortment Monday of the pretty things put on sale today.

Georgette and crepe de chine waists at $8.85.

Net waists at $5. Cotton waists, lingerie and tailored styles, at $3.85.

And those excellent tailored pongees at $3.85. (East and West Aisles)

Women's Mercerized Lisle Hose, "Seconds," at 37 1/2c

4200 pair of black, white and colored mercerized lisle stockings that would be almost double this price if they were first-grade goods. It will pay you to buy them by the dozen. (West Aisle)

Household Soap Special

100 cases of Wanamaker oleine soap, full 9-ounce cake, 10c cake, $8 a case of 84 cakes.

A high-grade, all-round household soap. (Fourth Floor, Market)

Delightfully New Fashions in Spring Furs

Since women have learned the becoming possibilities of furs they are reluctant to confine their use to one season—which is one reason the furriers have planned so many attractive pieces for Spring wear.

Among the new and beautiful things is a wrap of silver-gray crepe Georgette with silver thread embroidery and wide bands of soft, rich moleskin around the whole wrap and to form the sleeves. It is lined with the same gray crepe, and the price is $400.

Rather unique and most distinctive is a cape of gray mole, natural gray squirrel and gray silk cord and gray silk fringe, the whole most effectively combined. First there is the squirrel to form the collar, next there is the cape of mole and below it the silk cord and fringe with a band of mole between. It is $600.

A new Kolinsky scarf, quite wide and very handsome, has many hanging tails and a cape effect in back. It is $375.

Another Kolinsky neckpiece is a straight stole with six rows of tails—$350.

And a smaller Kolinsky stole, with tails for trimming, is $250. (Second Floor, Chestnut)

New Spring Wash Silks and More Fashionable Than Ever

Until lately it has been difficult to get enough of these silks, for the demand for them is always increasing. Now, thanks to several large shipments, there does seem to be enough, and, what is more, there is plenty of variety.

No need to tell anybody who has ever worn a wash silk on a hot day about the coolness or comfort of these silks. And, in the long run, they are about the most economical fabric you can buy for Summer garments.

Silk broadcloth, white with colored stripes, $3.50 and $4.50 a yard.

Japanese habutai, striped, $3 a yard.

English wash silk shirtings in plain colors, $4 a yard.

Chinese Ninghai pongee, $3 a yard.

Flesh pink wash satin, $3 a yard.

The new silk-and-paper shirting in light-colored stripes. This was imported by us from Japan, and so far it has proved very satisfactory. It washes very well. $1.50 a yard. (First Floor, Chestnut)

Pretty Frocks and New Suits for Young Women

Every day brings fresh, pretty new things to the Young Women's Salons—and these are some of the charming new things just out of their wrappings:

New dark blue suits, of Poiret twill, of fine serge and of wool tricotine in many fetching models; some new Eton jackets that are so attractive, some new beautifully tailored suits. $65 to $105.

New cloth dresses for wear under coats now and without them later on—serges and Poiret twills in deep blue. Some dresses are richly embroidered, some have a dash of bright color, some are braided. $45 to $75.

New silk frocks—a bewitching affair of midnight blue taffeta with a skirt formed of eight ruffles and a quaint bodice is $55; a simple and becoming little satin dress has many tabs for trimming, a round neck and some creamy lace at the throat—it is $40. Other dresses are $47.50 to $85.

All in 14 to 20 year sizes. (Second Floor, Chestnut)

Newest Paris Dress Trimmings

which will give you some idea of the lovely things Paris has planned to adorn and make gowns for this Spring.

The new founcings are lovely and there are any number of these in radiant new designs and colorings. Plenty are in black, with artistic designs worked out in bright or subdued colorings with tiny beads and many spangles; some are on colored nets, with spangles or beads of the same hue. Some in sapphire blue and others in gold tones are perfectly beautiful.

There are many hands to match the founcings, which may be used separately, however. These are all on net, beaded and spangled in new ways.

There are new all-overs, too—all-overs with the rows of beads or spangles in zigzag effects, or in scallops, instead of the straight rows of former seasons.

New opalescent trimmings—for evening gowns—radiant, beautiful trimmings that are a delight to see.

And all just out of their Paris wrappings! (Main Floor, Central)

Irish Table Linen and Napkins of Rare Merit at the Price

We have just taken out of bond about 1000 yards of Irish table linen, with matching napkins, to sell at prices that are really astonishing in the face of what manufacturers are asking for goods of this kind today.

The table linen is a full 72 inches wide full-bleached and handsomely patterned in five floral designs. We have marked it to sell for the extraordinarily low price today of $2 a yard, although makers have asked us to pay more for goods of an inferior grade at wholesale.

Napkins to match this table linen are 22x22 inches and priced at $10.50 a dozen.

In view of conditions in the linen business, this is one of the best groups of goods we have been able to offer in a long time. (First Floor, Chestnut)

Pretty Quilts

Two groups, one of wool-filled quilts, the other of cotton-filled ones.

Both kinds covered in silkline of a good quality and in a selection of new and pretty floral patterns. In blue, pink and rose.

Wool-filled quilts without borders are priced at $10, with borders at $11 each.

Cotton-filled quilts without borders are $7.50; with borders $8 each. (Sixth Floor, Central)

You Can Get Silver King Golf Balls Now

And golfers who prefer this splendid ball to any other, and who were unable to get any during the latter part of last season, will stock up while they can. The price is $13.20 a dozen.

The same plan is a good one to follow with golf supplies in general. Just now our selection of clubs is at its best.

Drivers and brassies, $5 to $7.50. Imported irons with selected shafts, $5 and $6.

Radio, Red Flash, Blue Flash, Taplow and other standard makes of golf balls, $7.20 to $12.60 a dozen.

Golf bags, $1.75 to $4.00. (The Gallery, Chestnut)

Women's Collar and Cuff Sets of Organdie

Of sheer and spotless organdie, in fashionable shapes and sizes and quite new.

All are hand embroidered. There are any number of pleasing designs, and all are trimmed with Valenciennes lace, to make them still prettier.

$2 to $4.50 the set. (Main Floor, Central)

Next Week in Egyptian Hall a Notable Literary Occasion

Authors' Week will be made notable in the March Anniversary by an interesting exhibition in Egyptian Hall of

Precious Manuscripts of Famous Authors

There is scarcely a name great in English literature that isn't represented in the form of some souvenirs from Disraeli to Roosevelt, from Dickens to Van Dyke and from Louisa M. Alcott to Booth Tarkington.

The original manuscripts include, among others, the handwritten title-pages of Henry James's "Daisy Miller" and Richard J. Dana's "Two Years Before the Mast"; manuscript poems by Eugene Field, Bret Harte, Edmund Clarence Stedman, Henry Van Dyke, John C. Saxe, William Cullen Bryant and Julia Ward Howe (the last being a stanza of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic").

Other original manuscripts represent books from the pens of Mark Twain, Henry Van Dyke, Robert W. Chambers, Conan Doyle, Charles Reade, John Hay and Wilkie Collins.

A. Edward Newton, author of "The Amusements of Book Collecting," has lent to the exhibit the original manuscript of one of Anthony Trollope's novels and of Thomas Hardy's "Far From the Madding Crowd," some manuscript of Charles Lamb's and some of Mr. Newton's priceless Johnsoniana.

Through letters, autographs or portraits, the personalities are vividly represented of Longfellow, Browning, Tennyson, Dickens, Huxley, Frank B. Stockton, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Whitman and numerous other notables.

The curious will have that unusual pleasure of a "private view" of a popular author's work before publication in the form of an exhibit of manuscript pages from "The Portygee," the forthcoming novel by Joseph C. Lincoln, to be published in April.

The exhibit can be seen at any time between 9 and 5 each day next week except during the hour of the lecture.

The Goods in It Are Making This a Wonderful Sale of China and Glass

Monday in the China Sale you will find an amplitude of the best dinnerware from the great potteries of France, England and the United States at considerable reductions from our own regular scale of prices.

For all purposes in which service, prettiness and richness are considerations, these are the best dinner sets in the world.

You will also find in this Sale a splendid selection of glassware, including an array of cut and light-cut and engraved crystal of rich, pure, sparkling quality at 20 to 33 1-3 per cent less than our usual prices. New casks have been coming in periodically, keeping the assortment constantly replenished, so that selections for Monday are beautiful and diversified.

Fine Cut Glass 20 to 33 1/3 Per Cent Below Regular Prices

- |                                 |  |   |
|---------------------------------|--|---|
| Flower baskets, $6 to $18.    | Orange bowls, $5 to $10.                 | Ice cream trays, $7.50 to $9.50.              |
| Vases, $2 to $12.             | Nut bowls, $2.50 to $6.75.               | Mayonnaise sets, $4.50 and $5 a set.          |
| Fruit bowls, $3.50 to $12.    | Fern dishes, $5 to $7.50.                | Lemonade bowls, $20 to $200.                  |
| Berry dishes, $2.25 to $7.50. | Sugar and cream sets, $3.50 to $6 a set. | Also a large assortment of light-cut glassware. |
| Compotes, $2 to $14.          |  |   |

(Fourth Floor, Chestnut)

The Arrival of Many New Domestic Rugs

makes selection unusually good just at this time.

Velvet Rugs

9x12 ft., $71.50.

Axinster Rugs

9x12 ft., $62.50 and $67.50.

Tapestry Brussels Rugs

9x12 ft., $39.50, $41.50 and $48.50.

Wool Fiber Rugs

9x12 ft., $28.75.

Special

9x12 ft. Axminster rugs, $61.50.

9x12 ft. wool fiber rugs, $14.50. (Seventh Floor, Chestnut)

Marquessette Curtains Special at $2.25 a Pair

And, from present indications, it seems that these must be the last at this price.

They are particularly good-looking curtains, hemstitched and 2 1/2 yards long. In white, ivory or ecru. (Fifth Floor, Market)

Dear Little Frocks of Organdie for Dear Little Girls

Shell pink, pale blue, orchid and canary—these are the lovely colors in which the dresses come, and they are all of crisp, fresh organdies, and all in delightful new styles.

Some dresses have dainty little frills of white, white collars and cuffs and white crochet buttons; some have shirring and fancy stitching; some have a bit of colored embroidery, hand done and most attractive.

They are charming little dresses; they were made just for Wanamaker's and they are in 2 to 6 year sizes. $9.50 to $12.75. (Third Floor, Chestnut)

After All the Sleet and Snow and Slush and Rain Comes the Sun Above the Southern Horizon and Comes Also

The Wanamaker Spring Sale of Housewares

with its great treasures and durable useful utensils for housekeeping and house cleaning at special prices while the limited quantities last. None past the end of March.

Counting altogether, we brought in for this Sale a total of 80,525 articles to be distributed at low special prices because we were able to buy them in large quantities from great manufacturers who are our regular suppliers and who owe it as a favor to our customers to provide certain articles at special prices at this time of year.

In particular, there are excellent selections among

- |                        |                                    |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Tinware         | Vacuum cleaners             |
| Galvanized ware | Soap and cleaning materials |
| Enamelware      | Sewing machines             |
| Aluminum ware   | Dress forms                 |

Bathroom furnishings

These things in special quantities are marked at prices 10 to 33 per cent below regular standard prices in the market today.

(Fourth Floor, Market)