CRIME REVEALS DUAL LIFE Man and Woman Found Dead, Vic

tims of Pistol Shots Chicago, March 9 .- (By A. P.)-Some of the details of the dual life of Clifford M. Bleyer, president of an advertising agency which bears his name, were bared today by a murder and suicide according to facts brought before the county coroner. Late last night in an apartment in a fashionable Chicago neighborhood Bleyer and Mrs. Ruth Randall were found dead, while Mrs. Bleyer was at her own home awaiting word from friends who were searching for her husband, missing since

Saturday night.
Mrs. Randall, a vivaciously pretty woman, twenty-seven years old, was divorced from her soldier husband, Nor-man Brown Randall, and had been emman Brown Adduction and been em-ployed as an advertising writer. From the position in which the bodies were lying the police believe Mrs. Randall shot Bleyer as he was sleeping and then turned the weapon upon herself. Tending to strengthen their opinion. peem in woman's handwriting, some what clever as to meter and rayme, but almost maudin in sentiment, foretold the dramatic conclusion of the two

Bleyer was the son of a prominent Chicago family. He was educated in fine arts in several European countries, and some of his paintings are said to be noteworthy. He met his wife while studying in Paris. They had two children

Mrs. Randall was the daughter of E. Vale, a business man of Okla-

NURSE SAVED FROM TURKS

Mother of Miss Shultz, of Reading. Gets Good News From Near East Reading, Pa., March 9.-Miss Helen E. Shultz, the Reading nurse, who was captured by Turks while administering aid to the Armenians, is safe, according to word received today by her mother, Mrs. George P. Shultz, from the New York committee of Near East relief. The message is based on a communication the committee has received from its agency in Constantinople.

This is the first official notice Mrs. Shultz has got from the Near East headquarters. It said that the workers at Marash, where Miss Shultz was stationed, had seen more trying experitioned, had seen more trying experiences than foreigners in a distant country had endured since the Boxer re-bellion in China, twenty years ago.
