ULSTERITES FAVOR

Unionists Welcome Chance to Be Free From Rest of Ireland

OPPOSE ONE PARLIAMENT

By the Associated Press

Belfast, March 11. — Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, in Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, in a speech yesterday said that if the present home rule bill passed Ulster won. They would be lucky, he added, in getting without fighting what they had covenanted to fight for.

The Unionist Council decided in favor of the six Ulster counties being controlled by the Ulster Parliament, should the bill be enacted. The council declined, however, to accept any responsibility in regard to the bill, and it is understood will make no attempt to defeat it.

The address was made at a meeting of the Ulster Unionist Council, which was attended by delegates from all parts of the province. Sir Edward Carson presided. Lord Farnham offered a resolution to the effect that the council would abide by the covenant and refuse to accept any form of every remark which to accept any form of government which did not include the whole of the province of Ulster. It called on the parliamentary leaders to take steps to secure its inclusion in the present home rule bill. The resolution was defeated.

Still Strong for Empire Colonel Wallace then offered a resolution, which was adopted, reaffirming faith in the legislative union of Ireland and Great Britain, adding:

"Inasmuch as the new bill is based on the principles of home rule and would deprive us of our equal citizenship in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, this council cannot recommend. om, this council cannot recomno prospect of procuring a simple re-peal of that act, this council is of the opinion that the Ulster representatives should not assume responsibility for attempting to defeat the bill, but should press for such amendments as are necessary and desirable in the interests of Ulster and the Unionists throughout the south and west of Ireland."

Business Men for Separation At a largely attended meeting of Ulater Unionist business men a resolution was unanimously adopted affirming the belief that the business interests of Ireland would best be served by legislative union with Great Brit-
