Eton Suits vie with box, peplum, "nipped" waist and other distinctive modes usually developed in tricotine, Poiret twill or serge. 55 to 165.00 THE CLOTH FROCKS of navy blue tricotine, Poiret twill or serge have no rivals in Spring modes. Eton cloth frocks and those combined with foulard silk are naive expressions of youthful modes, as are those with straight or basque-like bodices, with skirts that accentuate hip fullness, pleatings or finished with wide ribbon sashes. 39.50 to 195.00 THE SILK FROCKS reveal that taffeta and satin take a special precedence, as they lend themselves so charmingly to youthful types of short-sleeved frocks. Delightful are those with Zouave skirts, graceful panniers, tiered flounces and colorful satin sashes; a note of Spring freshness is suggested by crisp white organdie, net or lace collars. 45.00 to 165.00 THE DINNER FROCKS of special appeal are dainty conceptions of fine laces, taffeta silk, Georgette crepe and net. Hip bouffancy is a dominant style theme accomplished by an amplitude of folds, lace ruffling, quaint puffings or a bouffant overdress entirely of lace. 95.00 to 300.00 MISSES' DEPT.—4TH FLOOR
