

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES
THE HUNTING PARTY

(Peggy and Billy are taken back to the long ago by a charm which the medicine man, chants a song in which he calls the deer to be hunted by the Indians. At the same time he calls wild bears to come and eat Peggy and Billy.)

The Game Find Game

"U-L-A-UL-LA-UL-LA! Come, wild deer! Come, wild bears! Come to make good hunting for the Indians. Come to eat the saucy, pale-skinned strangers."
The Indians looked up and grunted in amazement.
"Ugh! Wild Geese in summer! They should be far, far to the north at this time of the year."
Watampoo saw a chance to make another charge against Peggy and Billy.

New Homes With Private Garages, $6900

THEY are well built on a street where the distance from house to house is wider than Broad street.

The open fireplaces make them most attractive. The tiled bath with tile shower and built-in soap cups add greatly to the comfort and beauty of the bathroom.

One thousand dollars in all that is needed to buy, balance monthly payments. Would you like to know more?

Watampoo has lost his magic," grunted the Indians.
"White Spirits have taken it away from me! White Spirits have driven away the hunting," growled Watampoo.
"Ugh!" grunted the Indians, much disgusted with Watampoo and his excuses.
Just then there came a honking and gabbling from the sky. Over head swept the V-shaped lines of the Wild Geese. The big birds, led by the King of the Wild Geese and the Beautiful Blue Goose, were seeking Peggy and Billy.
The Indians looked up and grunted in amazement.
"Ugh! Wild Geese in summer! They should be far, far to the north at this time of the year."
Watampoo saw a chance to make another charge against Peggy and Billy.

"If in the work of the pale-faced strangers," he declared, glaring at the children. "To have the Wild Geese fly over head in any season except the spring when they are going north and in the fall when they are going south, means bad luck."
"Nay, it meant good luck to all you Indians, for if the geese hadn't brought us here you would have killed each other by this time," declared Peggy.
"And to prove they mean no evil, we will call them to us and see if they can find the fine hunting you seek," cried Billy. He put his fingers to his mouth and gave a shrill whistle.
The Wild Geese knew that whistle. The moment they heard it circled around and went toward the Indian village.
"Honk! Honk! Honk! What can we do for you?" honked the King of the Wild Geese.

"Please see if you can find good hunting for the Indians," cried Billy. "They want plenty of deer so they can have a feast."
Away sped the Wild Geese.
"Ugh! White Spirit talks to the Wild Geese and the White Geese obey," grunted the savages in wonder.
Soon the Wild Geese, looking down from the sky, found what they sought and came firing back.
"Honk! Honk! There are dozens of deer in a glade beyond the western hills," they honked. The Indians couldn't understand goose talk, so Peggy told them what the geese said. Eagle Feather sent more swift runners to see if their report was true. The runners darted up the hill at full speed. They looked down into the glade and came rushing back.
"There are lots of deer," they cried.

"We will have good hunting and a great feast."
"Ugh! Ugh! This is witch work," grunted old Watampoo, the medicine man.
(Tomorrow will be told how the Indians start on their hunting party.)

What do you ask for when you buy motor oil?

Do you simply ask for "oil"? Do you say "light," "medium" or "heavy"—or do you actually know the type of oil suited to the particular conditions of your car and insist on getting it? This matter of choosing oil is no "hit-or-miss" affair. You can greatly prolong the life of your car or you can ruin it—and in either case the oil you use will be a big factor.

Even though you may specify a particular grade you are not sure of getting exactly what you need, because the "light" of one brand may correspond to the "medium" of another and then not be uniform.

SUNOCO Motor Oil has the following advantages:
It is made in six different types, so as to exactly meet every automotive lubricating requirement. You are always sure of a type that will "fit" your motor.

SUNOCO Motor Oil is a straight-run, distilled oil, absolutely uniform—each drop being as pure, clean and efficient as every other drop.

SUNOCO Motor Oil never leaves a hard, flinty carbon deposit that causes so much worry, trouble and expense. Any deposit that should happen to form—and this is quite negligible—is soft and can be readily removed with a rag.

Let us make this suggestion, Go to a reliable dealer or garage, have your crank case drained, cleaned and filled with the proper type of SUNOCO Oil (Sunoco dealers know) and then compare the results with your previous experience.

This is your opportunity to get better service from your car and save money.

SUNOCO is sold by reliable dealers and garages, who are furnished with our lubrication guide prepared by eminent lubricating authorities. Look for the Sunoco sign. Sunoco is sold in any quantity; also in 1- and 5-gallon cans and in handy drums for home garages.
