

PENN MEN WIN PRIZES
Punch Bowl Men Second in National Contest
Six members of the University of Pennsylvania Punch Bowl staff had their contributions accepted by Judge in a national collegiate humorists' contest, conducted by that magazine. Penn took second in the contest, which was won by Cornell University.

of the Punch Bowl, contributed a water color; D. Jacques Benoit, 4508 Locust street, was the author of several humorous articles, and Alfred Bendier, 1818 West Erie avenue, submitted a pen-and-ink sketch. Others whose offerings were accepted are Malcolm H. Oettinger, A. C. Gwin and E. W. Goldsborough.

Will Expose Mexican Situation
T. Fitz Lee, of New York, will discuss conditions in Mexico this evening at a smoker given at the Walton by the Greater Philadelphia Chapter, American Officers of the Great War. All officers and former officers are invited. Mr. Lee lived in Mexico for twenty years.
