SUSPECT ARRESTED

Five Hours After Crime Is Committed Auto Is Located and Owner Taken

PATROLMAN TRACES TAG

A suspect was arrested this morning about five hours after three motor busses smashed a store window at 1025 Columbia avenue, grabbed several handbags, then fled as a patrolman was upon the scene. The store was that of H. Rothenberg. A variety of women's furnishings was displayed in the window, including a number of beaded handbags. Patrolman Harkins, of the Nineteenth and Oxford streets station, got close enough to the automobile to note the license number. As he tried to leap on the running board the bandit at the wheel shot the car ahead at great speed. Through the license number the police located the automobile, they say, in a garage at Island and Poplar streets. George McShay, twenty years old, Nineteenth street near Parrish, who came for the auto, was placed under arrest by a waiting patrolman. McShay was arraigned later before Magistrate Oswald and held in $1500 bail for a further hearing on suspicion of robbery.

EMPLOYEES ENTERTAINED
Employees of the Crew Levick Co. enjoyed amateur theatricals and a dance Wednesday night at the Philomathean Club. Two plays were given, "The Littlest Girl" and "The Senior." The cast, composed of Crew Levick employees, was directed by E. S. H. Gold. Others on the committee were J. H. Marvin and Charles Ford. Music was furnished by the Crew Levick orchestra.

Victim of Gas Recovering
John McGinty, sixty-three years old, 331 South Twenty-fifth street, who was found last night by his son overcome by gas in the living room of their home, was reported to be recovering today in Polyclin Hospital. It is believed that McGinty had lit a gas stove to heat the room, had then fallen asleep.
