

BERGDOLL AWAITS PRISON SENTENCE

No Further Fight Will Be Made Unless Term Is Excessive, Says Counsel

EXPECT LESS THAN 10 YEARS

By a Staff Correspondent
New York, March 19.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, millionaire army deserter, will take the punishment the army authorities decree and serve his sentence without a whimper if, as rumored, he has been found guilty by court-martial.
Harry Weinberger, chief counsel for Bergdoll, today disposed of the suggestion that the Bergdoll money bags would be trapped without stint by free draft dodger, no matter what the penalty inflicted.
"The court-martial found him guilty," Weinberger said. "The method followed in filing the report of the court-martial shows that the report will not appeal unless the sentence imposed assumes the form of persecution. Any reasonable sentence will be served by Bergdoll without a whimper, and without appeal to the civil courts or to higher military authorities than those who tried him on Governors Island. We are resting until the verdict is announced. It should be known in about a week. If the punishment meted out to Bergdoll is out of all proportion to his act, we will fight the case to the highest tribunal."
Weinberger made a brilliant effort to obtain the acquittal of Bergdoll. His "rubber stamp defense" based on the fact that the slacker's induction notice was stamped instead of signed by the adjutant general threatened to work havoc with the prosecution for a time.

D. Clarence Gibboney, who along with Captain Bruce R. Campbell, military counsel, shouldered the defense, visited Bergdoll yesterday. He was accompanied by former Magistrate James E. Romig. Gibboney also said the defense is resting at present. The possibility of an appeal to the United States Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus to snatch Bergdoll from the military authorities and reopen the case in the civil courts is not being considered pending the announcement of the verdict, he said.
The general supposition is that Bergdoll will get off with less than ten years' imprisonment, possibly only one or two.
Lieutenant Colonel Charles C. Creason, who directed the prosecution, said that he had not thought of getting the thirty-year term he had asked. "The prosecution always asks for more than it really needs, and always gets less than we expect," he said. Bergdoll is working with other prisoners at the island. His chances of staying in the comparative proximity to his home that he is enjoying now, thus allowing of frequent visits from his mother, depend upon the length of this sentence. If less than a year, the draft dodger will remain at Governors Island and keep his quarters in Castle William the prison. If more, he probably will be shipped to Atlanta or some other federal prison.

Five Die as Home Burns
Montreal, March 19.—(By A. P.)—Five lives were lost today in a fire which destroyed the home of Philipp Lariviere. The victims were his wife, three little children, and his wife's brother-in-law. The fire broke out on the upper floor. Lariviere grabbed one child, but lost his hold on it as he jumped from a second-story window. The infant fell back into the blazing room.

THREE KILLED BY STORM
Blizzard of Sand and Snow Cripples Northwest
Chicago, March 19.—(By A. P.)—Terrific sand and dust storms continued today in the Southwest, with conditions changing to a blizzard on the Northwest. Three persons were killed in the eastern Rocky mountain region, which suffered heavily yesterday from wind which blew from forty-seven to one hundred miles an hour, was a return to nearly normal conditions reported. In the Southwest, principally Kansas, much damage was reported to newly platted wheat.
Sleet and snow were driven by a furious wind in Iowa, South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin, those states reporting a storm equalling in intensity any of the winter. Considerable sleet fell in Iowa, while farther north wet snow prevailed, the wind piling it into huge drifts.

In Denver yesterday the wind wrecked a number of automobiles.

BRYAN SIXTY TODAY
New York, March 19.—(By A. P.)—William Jennings Bryan celebrated his sixtieth birthday in New York today. He arrived here this morning from Washington to speak at a banquet to be given in his honor by friends at the Aldine Club tonight.

RIFT IN CHAPLIN LUTE
Film Star Takes Word of Wife's Threat Philosophically
Los Angeles, March 19.—"Oh, well, such is life in the great West," said Charlie Chaplin, when told that Mrs. Charlie, known to patrons of the screen as Mildred Harris, was about to start a suit for divorce.
The famous film comedian will file a counter-suit in the event action is taken by his wife, say friends of the family.
The only direct statement of Mrs. Chaplin was:
"I have not seen Mr. Chaplin in two weeks and he has not been living with me for several months. I am forced to conclude that he does not want to live with me."

Wanamaker's

A Man Tells Me How He Fooled Himself
He said, "I was flat on my back in bed in a room overlooking the ocean, looking out of a clear glass window twenty feet from where I lay, when I saw what seemed to be a small rowboat with a man in it, a mile and a half from the shore, being tossed up and down on the high waves."
He said he watched it for two hours expecting every minute to see it swallowed up and lost. What was his surprise the next day to find, while sitting close to the window, that his sight had deceived him and that what he had taken for a boat in the distance was a black speck of waste or color that had fastened itself on the glass—there it was, just over his nose. And as the waves danced up and down they seemed to move the black spot up and down.
How easy it is to be misled by our eyes, ears or memory, and get astray without knowing it for a time!—such a very little thing puts us into making a mistake.

Striking Novelties Among the Newest Silks
Sports silks, for example, in the most brilliant scarlet or tangerine yellow, either in very large stripes or plaids. Very, of course, but not more so than the new sports suits or skirts call for. 40 inches wide, $7.50 a yard.
Another new arrival is navy blue taffeta radium, 40 inches wide and $5.50 a yard.
New printed Georgette crepes in exquisite colors and designs, $4, $5 and $5.50 a yard.
Lastly, and one of the most welcome of all, new printed foulards, late Spring patterns, $4 a yard.
(First Floor, Chestnut)

Camel's Hair Coats
First Time in These Colors
In pale silver, chow (a rich reddish brown), deer, carrot and, of course, the natural tan shade. The material is the pure camel's hair and it is much softer and finer than the domestic variety.
Some of the new features found in these coats are the double throw tie with fringe on the ends. Another coat has a deep facing down the front of brushed wool in checker-board pattern. There are practically all lengths, from the finger tip to the almost full length, and the prices run from $115 to $145.
(First Floor, Central)

Chestnut Brown Buckskin Shoes
Shoes of the new "instep tie" sort, with beautiful curves, brown ribbon bows and 2-inch Louis heels. Price $21 in the Exclusive Little Boot Shop.
(First Floor, Market)

Paris Has Some New Ideas as to Parasols
One is of royal blue chiffon, embroidered in tinsel thread and bright colors, lined with white chiffon and rather frilly as to finish on the inside, and finished with satin bows of blue on the outside. There is a long handle, thickly beaded in a charming color combination.
The other parasol is of gold color, in much the same shape, and this, too, has a handle much beaded.
Each is $75.
(Main Floor, Market)

250 Silk Dresses at $32.50
At least two dozen smart, becoming new models. There are even a few fine serges and some fine tricotines in the group—beautifully braided dresses that would sell in many instances for half as much again. Dark blue crepes Georgette beaded and finished with brocade girdles; lustrous satins with gold-thread embroidery, shimmering taffetas in the newest fashions. Plenty of the fashionable dark blues; dresses for street and afternoon wear.
150 Spring Topcoats at $38.50
Velours, polo cloth in mole and the new tan shades, tweeds.
(Third Floor, Chestnut)

New $10 Millinery
Plenty of hats in small and medium sizes—the most fetching little affairs of dark braids, perhaps massed with flowers on the brim, perhaps finished with just a cluster of bright fruit, perhaps finished with a saucy bow or a dashing wing.
Plenty of hats to go with new suits—hats in the new blue shades, hats of rich, lovely browns, black hats, too, with colorful trimming.
A few fine hair hats with maline veiled flowers, some gay-hued hats of the fashionable Estavia cloth, and hats of shining braids—they are all here.
(Second Floor, Chestnut)

A Rainbow of Colors in Men's Silk Shirts
The selection is specially good among designs that are almost all color, with very little white ground showing. A great many men like these best, particularly for Spring and Summer wear. Of course, there are plenty with white ground predominating, or all white, for those who prefer them.
Prices are $8.50 to $15.
(Main Floor, Market)

The Prince of Wales—a New Soft Hat for Men
This is the hat that is worn this Spring by well-dressed Englishmen to the exclusion of almost every other style of soft hat. It is a pleasing shape, with gently rolling brim and softly creased crown. The color is pearl gray, relieved by a black band.
We have had this hat copied to such advantage that we can sell it for $7, which is almost as low as a really good soft hat can be bought for today.
(Main Floor, Market)

Men's Half Hose "Seconds" at Important Savings
900 pair of silk-mixed half hose at 50c. Two-color effects in cordovan and gold, cordovan and purple, cordovan and green and navy and green. If first grade these socks would be double this price.
(Main Floor, Market)

High-Necked Nightgowns
Fifteen styles of them, nainsook and cambie, with necks high, V, round and square. Prices $1.85 to $5.50.
(Third Floor, Central)

758 Pair of Men's Fine Shoes Reduced to $8.65 a Pair
In some cases this is close to half price; in no case is the saving less than a couple of dollars.
There are three styles of low shoes and six styles of high shoes, all of them the kind that men want for wear right now. In some groups the sizes are not complete, but there are all sizes in the lot.
Mahogany-color calf-skin and the new grain leathers are used, and there are straight-lace and blucher shoes, some with straight tips and others with wing tips.
For a quick clearaway we have reduced every pair in the lot to $8.65, regardless of the original price. It is an extraordinary opportunity for men who want new shoes.
(Main Floor, Market)

New Lot of Those Special French Beaded Handbags
This is our third shipment. Each of the other lots went out on the day it was put on sale.
Beautiful bags in draw-string and frame styles and in charming color combinations, with a fine selection of the favorite blues and some all black. Though these bags are imported, we will sell them for much less than American beaded handbags of the same quality would be.
$11.75, $12.75, $13.75, $14.75 and $15.75.
(West Aisle)

New Spring Gloves for Girls and Boys
Capeskin gloves, tan, pique or outerseam sewn, 1 clasp, $1.75 to $3 a pair.
Suede gloves in gray, tan or brown, 1 clasp, $1.85 to $2.25 a pair.
Gray and tan mocha gloves, pique or outerseam sewn, 1 clasp, $2 to $2.75 a pair.
Washable leather gloves, doe finish, with tab at the wrist, white or natural color, $2 to $2.75 a pair.
Washable capeskins, strap wrist, tan, $3 to $3.75.
(Main Floor, Central)

Young Women's Silk Dresses, Suits and Topcoats in a Special Sale and other good wools make the coats, which are all extremely well cut and tailored, lined or half lined with silk and in the newest shades of brown and blue. They are sports coats and coats for dress, and in full and three quarter length.
65 New Spring Suits at $32.50
Of wool Jersey and soft velour checks in shadow effect, these suits are in such fashionable shades as tan, green, blue and brown. They are in a youthful and becoming model, with narrow belt, narrow shoulder, tight sleeves and inverted pleat in the back.
All are in 14 to 20 year sizes.
