Birmingham, Ala., March 23. YOU never can tell what will happen to a ball club by studying the advance dope shipped out during the cold, dry winter...

WILLIAMS also is good, especially early in the season, and Stengel should make quite a name for himself in the Phils park with that short right fielder...
Jack Miller Going Good
THE infield was a big problem before the training trip started...

CAPTAIN DAVE BANCREFT, being about the best shortstop in the league, will fill that position and work smoothly with Jack Miller.
Ludy as Good as Ever
FIRST base still is a problem, but Gavy's should worry...

CECIL ALGERSON is a pretty good heater and will win a few games for the folks down here. He strengthens the staff because the staff needs lots of strengthening.

Phil Sixed Smallest in South
EPPA JETHRA RIXEY, who almost was traded to the Cubs last month, is back again, and appears to be finding his old time form...

George Smith will come through, though. George has been coming for three years, and if he doesn't make good now, he never will.

THE Phils, with any kind of pitching, will not occupy the cellar this year. There are too many good players on the club, the morale is excellent and the boys will fight hard for every game.

"We'll Get 'Em Thursday," Slogan of Quaker Five After Reverse in Title Series Against Chicago. Mike Sweeney Scores Eighteen Points

The reverse last night, while a terrific blow at the chances of the Quakers, by no means was a slap at the ability of the eastern champions. They played snappy ball, but they were a trifle too slow on their feet to be able to outpace the Red and Blue squad.
