D. R. Gebhart Says They Fail to Fill Needs of Culture and Instruction

CITES LACK OF VIOLINISTS

The inadequacy of normal schools of the country in meeting the needs of the student as regards culture and real education was scored today by D. R. Gebhart, director of music at the Georgia Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn., in an address before the national conference of music supervisors in the Bellevue Stratford.

"The average student of the normal school or teachers' college has never heard an opera, an oratorio or a cantata," said Mr. Gebhart.

29 PULPITS CHANGES HERE SATISFACTORY

Methodist Clergymen Express Approval of Appointments Announced by Berry

CONFERENCE HELD SUCCESS

Methodist ministers today expressed complete satisfaction with the appointments announced yesterday by Bishop Berry at the close of the annual Philadelphia Methodist conference, held at the Wharton Memorial Church, Fifty-fourth and Catharine streets.

An analysis of the changes showed that twenty-nine Philadelphia pulpits received new preachers. In practically every instance, the pastors who discussed the changes said, the men who were moved had benefited.

The only assignment which was not better than the post relinquished, according to the Rev. Dr. George W. Henson, district superintendent for the south district, was that of the Rev. C. H. Shirk, who was moved from the East Allegheny Avenue Church to the Episcopal Church. This post was about as good as the one relinquished, said Doctor Henson, and the pastor could have had a better post had he been willing to go outside the city.

"The only men who I have heard expressed have been of complete satisfaction," said the Rev. Dr. Ernest Bowden, who sat transferred from the Oak Lane Church to the Central Church. Notable among the Philadelphia pastors who benefited by the changes were the Rev. W. C. Skeath, who went from Siloam, in West Philadelphia, to Cooper Memorial, the Rev. Richard Radcliffe, who went from Cookman to Fletcher; the Rev. Ernest Bowden, from Oak Lane to Cookman; the Rev. J. G. Peters, from Philadelphia to St. Luke's; the Rev. William Bamford, from St. Luke's to Siloam, West Philadelphia.

Housing Problem Tackled by Mayor

We are looking about and buying land in Ardmore and in the immediate vicinity. We found, when we started out, that some property owners kited the price on us. We have left them severely alone, and are only paying what we think to be fair prices for our ground. Incidentally, the exorbitant prices asked are beginning to come down now that our attitude on the price question is known.
