

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR FRIDAY, MARCH TWENTY-SIXTH, 1920

BUSINESS HOURS FROM NINE TO FIVE-THIRTY O'CLOCK

Strawbridge & Clothier Have Three of the Most Famous Lines of Men's Clothing in America

This Store is Philadelphia's exclusive distributing centre for the famous Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes, the Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing and the "Alco" Clothes—which means, the best ready-to-wear clothing in America is here. The new models in SUITS AND TOP COATS FOR SPRING are ready—unrivaled variety, and the quality it pays to buy.

Spring Styles in Matchless Variety

The first warm breath of spring and the near approach of the Easter season bring thoughts of new clothes to the minds of men everywhere. A few weeks ago you could scarcely have realized how a bit of warm sunshine adds to the weight of a winter suit and makes a heavy overcoat a burden.

Thousands of men who were in uniform a year ago will be buying their first Spring Suit and Top Coat since their return to home life. These, added to the thousands of last spring's customers and the many who have since learned that THIS IS THE STORE THAT HAS THE BEST VARIETY AND BEST VALUE, will make this our busiest season.

Prices are higher than a few years ago, of course; but we assure you that our forehanded provision, our large outlet, and close co-operation with the manufacturers, keep prices down to the lowest possible level under the present conditions. Comparison will prove that the following are all very excellent values:

"Alco" Suits of fine worsted, in neat stripes and mixtures, beautifully tailored—special at $62.50.

Young Men's Suits—two lines ordered long ago, and unequalled at these prices—$35.00 and $40.00.

Young Men's "Alco" Suits, of fine fabrics, finely tailored, unsurpassed anywhere in America at the price—$45.00.

Men's Dark Worsted Suits, for which there is a year-around demand; regular and stout sizes—exceptional value at $45.00.

Serge Suits—fast color and excellent quality; wonderful values, considering the scarcity of this favorite fabric—$37.50 to $57.50.

"Alco" Flannel Suits—single- and double-breasted models; plain blue, green and brown; regular, slender and short sizes—exceptional at $47.50.

Austin & Co., London, Top Coats—delivered to us at the present low rate of exchange—hand-some herringbone, diagonal and other typical English coatings—$57.50 and $65.00.

Knitted Top Coats—several different color effects—special at $37.50.

Silk-lined Top Coats from Hart, Schaffner & Marx—special value at $55.00.

Young Men's Long-Trousers Suits—designed especially for the hard-to-fit young men of 16 to 19 years—$25.00 to $47.50.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Trousers for men—attractive new styles to wear with dark coat or the smart cutaway frock coat—$15.50 to $18.00.

Attractive Under-Price Groups for To-morrow and Saturday

Smart Suits of Dark Blue Unfinished Worsted, $48.50

The Suit most men regard as the most practical in their wardrobe—dark blue unfinished worsted; single- and double-breasted models for men and young men, tailored in the famous "Alco" shops. Regular, stout, slender and short sizes. Exceptional value at $48.50.

Hundreds of Men's Suits, $28.00, $38.00 and $43.00

Men's and Young Men's Suits—special purchases, late autumn shipments and some that were in our great winter clearance at reduced prices. Serges, cassimeres, worsteds and chevrons. Many in proper weights for practically year-around wear. All at a decisive saving.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Light-weight Overcoats, Less Than Present Wholesale Value—$23.50 and $33.50

These Top Coats were bought for last autumn's business, but arrived late and were carried over—fortunately for the men who now buy them at these prices. Many dark Oxfords included—fully-lined with serge or silk. Regular, stout, slender and short sizes.

Trousers Under Price

Men's dark blue Serge Trousers, special at $6.75; Trousers of neat striped fabrics, special at $7.25.

Young Men's Leather Coats, now $17.50 to $57.50

Specially priced groups at $17.50, $33.50, $46.50 and $57.50. Some of the famous "Pelter" Coats in the groups at $33.50 and $46.50—leather one side, tweed or heavy tan fabric on the other—either side can be worn outside.

Raincoats Under Price

Men's and young men's; light and medium weights; many Aervento Coats included; some of rubberized/tweed. Special prices—$14.75, $16.50 and $18.50.

Good Selection To-morrow in the Clearance of Men's Shirts

There were more than 5000 Shirts in the clearance of incomplete lines from stock that began this morning. A sufficient quantity and ample variety to insure satisfactory choosing for several days. There are plenty of Shirts here to meet your requirements and the savings will make it well worth your while.

The Shirts are now marked—$2.00, $2.25, $2.35, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 and $7.65— which prices are 20 to 40 per cent. less than actual retail values.

Practically every good shirting fabric is to be found in the collection—various weaves and grades of percale and madras, and some silks (these at $7.65). A wealth of smart patterns.

cannot ask for legislation in its selfish interest, and leaves with confidence to the Congress to discharge this obligation," says an editorial.

"The Legion does not ask, nor do its members seek, a mere 'bonus'—a gratuity, a tip, if you will, for a sacred duty above the considerations of price and barter. The Legion does ask that Congress do the square thing by helping the ex-service man to buy a farm, or a home in town, or complete an education interrupted by the war.

"Surely any one of these options is the least that is due the men who went out and fought for a dollar a day and up while others stayed home and fought for higher wages."

Louis S. Fotsamer, commander of the David W. Jameson Post No. 183, announced today that a movement has been started within the post to boost its present membership to 225 by May 1 and 300 by June 1.

Clifford W. Haig, of 7210 Chestnut avenue, has been appointed entertainment officer for the Oak Lane Post No. 283, which meets in the Oak Lane Public Library.

Robert J. Martin Post, No. 98, will hold a special election tomorrow night at McPherson Library, 17th street and Indiana avenue, for the purpose of balloting on a commander to succeed James J. Lamond, who has resigned. The ladies' auxiliary of Post 98 will also hold a meeting on Friday night in McPherson Library.

Choir to Give Musical A musical will be given this evening by the choir of St. Matthew's A. M. E. Church in the church, at Fifty-seventh and Summer streets. The Rev. G. E. Dickerson is pastor.

Fine Easter Gowns Featuring Lace

Without exception, this is the most extensive, and most elaborate collection of Fine Easter Gowns in our history—nothing in spring fashions, worthy of note, has been omitted. The high note of fashion is Lace, and we have just added to our collection of—

Beautiful Lace Dresses

Several models of Cream Lace draped over brown taffeta. Another pretty conceit is shown in the matching of brown and blue taffeta with lace in the same shade. One also sees hand-made filet lace combined with pink crepe Georgette and touched with chenille embroidery. Black satin and heavy cream lace combined, is another new idea, and the effect is elegant. Margot, Bohemian, Chantilly and Filet laces are shown in this beautiful group. Prices range from $80.00 to $375.00. The Dress sketched, $125.00.

Fine Afternoon Dresses

Satin, crepe de chine, foulard, figured and plain crepe Georgette and tricotette, some softly plaited, some frilled and flounced, many with irregular tunics, also straight-line Dresses. Scores of new models. Prices $50.00 to $80.00.

It's High Time to Decide Concerning Easter Suits

Easter is fast approaching, and there is sure to be a last-minute rush for Suits, which so many women find the most satisfactory early-spring garment, particularly from an economy standpoint, and especially with the vogue for over-blouses which makes a costume out of a Suit immediately.

Tailored Suits, $47.50

Of men's-wear serge, tricotette and silver-tone, made in belted styles, some with plaited jackets, some with jackets smartly flaring from the waist-line.

Suits, $52.50 to $60.00

Of men's-wear serge, wool poplin, tricotette and homespun, belted and semi-belted, and having all the newest features in the way of plaits and tucks, and novel flat-braid trimming. Also in this collection are some plain-tailored Suits, shawl and Tuxedo collars. The Suit sketched ($55.00) is from this group.

Strawbridge & Clothier—Second Floor, Centre

their long, slender lines accentuated by long rows of buttons. Notched, shawl and Tuxedo collars. The Suit sketched ($55.00) is from this group.

These Coats and Capes Seem to Be Urging Spring Along

They are so lovely and springlike in themselves, and so becoming and graceful—in fact, Spring Wraps are so suitable to the season, and so adequately fill spring Wrap requirements, that this Easter will find the separate Wrap more prominent than ever before.

Capes Will Be Worn

Capes long and short, single, double and triple effects, with vests and without vests, belted or rippling, on straight lines or Dolman lines, in plain weaves and checks, in one color or faced or banded in plaids or a contrasting shade. There are velours, serges, twills and tricotettes, in great variety, from $25.00 to $100.00, according to materials, etc.

An unlined Wool Velour Cape, in tan, with contrasting color in collar and facing, $25.00. And an especially good model of serge, lined throughout, at $37.50.

Three-quarter Length Coats

Very fashionable, and particularly effective over light frocks or with contrasting skirt. Of Bolivia cloth, covert cloth and plain and two-tone velours—some very mannish effects—$30.00 to $60.00.

Smart Tweed Top Coats—$25.00 to $75.00

Hand Bags Of Rare Beauty For Easter Costumes

As the final touch to the smart Easter Costume a woman chooses with greatest care her—SILK HAND BAG.

Hand Bags of rare beauty in design, of rich fabrics, exquisitely lined, and with unusual trimmings, a graceful tassel, quaint little plaitings or quilting, bead fringes, or intricate embroideries. FABRICS include moire and faille silks, handsome brocades, bewitching sports silks, and figured tricotette.

SIZES, from a picturesque little Tea Bag to an odd-shaped but dignified Dress Bag.

FRAMES are of every variety, from a narrow metal band to a deep carved top. Again come the cut steel frames, daintily carved effects of metal or in shell effect. All kinds of Bags—$5.75 to $67.50.

Silk Hand Bags, on metal frames, exceptional—$3.95
Moire Silk Hand Bags, deep carved frames, shell effect, unusual—$10.75

LEGION WEEKLY PLEADS OWN CASE

Publication Explains Position on Question of Adjusted Compensation for Veterans

Under the caption "We Plead Our Own Case," the American Legion Weekly, which made its reappearance yesterday, explains the position of the Legion on the question of adjusted compensation. The delegates at Minneapolis magnanimously refused to take the initiative in favor of beneficial legislation for disabled soldiers and sailors, because, as they said in a resolution, "The Legion feels it
