

MANY ARE RESCUED IN TENEMENT FIRE

Blind Woman, 80, Is Carried to Safety—Nearly 150 Endangered in Midnight Blaze DUE TO DEFECTIVE FLUE

Thrilling rescues featured a fire in a tenement house at 328-30 Bainbridge street when the lives of almost 150 persons were endangered and the residents forced to flee in their nightclothes. The fire occurred about midnight last night. Forty families occupy the 9th room of the building, and a panic ensued when the fire alarm was sounded. Mrs. Jacob Seeds, eighty years old and blind, who had carried her two grandchildren from the fourth to the third floor, was rescued by William Borzari, formerly special policeman of the Second and Christian streets station. The woman had fainted. Borzari carried her out. The children held on to his coat and, following his admonition to cover their heads to prevent being burned, were led to safety. Other families were led to the street by firemen. The blaze, which was caused by a defective flue and confined to the lower floor, filled the house with smoke, but was soon extinguished.

PLEADS FOR BABE IN VAIN

Two Women Held in Jail on Shoplifting Charge
Plea that her husband and baby were waiting for her at home failed to save a woman arrested before Magistrate Pennock today charged with shoplifting. She was held with another woman in $500 bail for further hearing April 6. Mrs. Katherine Koch, twenty-six years old, of South Fifty-fourth street, near Morris, entered the pitiful plea. Her companion was Miss Margaret Wilson, twenty-four, East Walnut near Germantown. A clerk in a department store at Germantown avenue and Coulter street, testified that she saw the two women pick up some pocketbooks and leave a store with them late yesterday. She said she summoned Katherine Goodshall, another clerk, and they followed the women to the street. They brought them back into the store and called a patrolman. Miss Goodshall corroborated Miss Steinle's story.

SEEK CHILD AND MOTHER

Woman Said to Have Been Seen in Auto With Missing Daughter
City police are searching for Mrs. Spencer Hibbs, mother of Catherine Hibbs, twelve years old, who disappeared from the home of her father at Hulmeville, near Bristol, about 6 o'clock Wednesday. Sergeant Parker, of the state police at Langhorne, said that Mrs. Hibbs was seen in an automobile with a child passing the constabulary headquarters, about forty-five minutes before he was notified that the child was missing. The car was traced toward Philadelphia as far as the Boulevard, where the trail was lost. Parker believes that the woman lives in Germantown. Mrs. Hibbs has been traced from the father of the child for three years. The father obtained custody of Catherine and provided for her.

OH, MY! NOW HOPE FLIES

3/4-Cent Sugar and 25-Cent Butter but Visage of '91
"We have no bad debts to make up at the expense of our cash customers," is a statement contained in a circular issued by James Doak, a grocer, 1803 Passyunk avenue, which then states, "How is this for a tumbler?" The following prices are quoted: Best granulated sugar, 3 1/2 cents; best creamery butter, 30 cents; good butter, 25 cents; Lily White flour, per barrel, $4.25; best Rio coffee, per pound, 25 cents; best Java coffee, 32 cents; best tea you ever drank, 50 cents; best headlight oil, per gallon, 5 cents. Grocers and dairymen shown this circular were amazed until they learned that it was a relic unearthed by a printer who was forced to move on account of the exorbitant rent demanded by his landlord. The circular was printed in August, 1901.

DEMAND FOR JAZZ KEEPS UP

Music Stores Depleted of Snappy Compositions
Many music stores are jazzless both in the way of records and sheet music. The demand for those jagged airs which go with snappy dances and shrugging shoulders has swamped the dealers. Many of them said so today. Attempts to appease the jazzites with slow, dreamy airs which carry the idea of spring romance and tear drops about gray-haired mothers who are forever sitting by windows looking for long-lost sons are in vain. Several dealers said today that their stock of records and sheet music were jazzless. But they promise to have a new supply on April 1.

MANY HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

Navy Yard Car Jumps Track After Passing Over Trestle
A crowded south-bound navy yard car ran off the track this morning twenty feet past the trestle over a thirty-five-foot cut near Pollock avenue. The rear trucks flew off the track and the car, which is said to have been going at a high speed, swayed and bumped for a considerable distance. The crowd was alarmed by the nearness of the escape from the trestle and the half dozen who were on the car were very faint. They were treated at a nearby hospital.
