

STONE ESTATE $20,000

Former Governor's Brother Named as One Beneficiary—Willis Probed

After bequeathing a small sum to a brother, Mr. Stone provides that the balance of his estate be disposed of according to the interstate laws of Pennsylvania.

Other wills probated were those of William Hamilton, Twenty-fourth and Delancey streets, $33,200; Mary C. Stimple, 1822 North Seventeenth street, $15,000; Elizabeth Prische, 6048 Cedar street, $12,000; Edwin Y. deBeust, 80 Westview avenue, $7,000; John B. Hamilton, 3004 North Twenty-fourth street, $7,225, and Washington Herch, 410 South Forty-fourth street, $6,500.

Beneficiaries were filed in the estates of Ada Z. Longstrech, $37,620.42; Maggie F. Goode, $14,948.08, and Michael N. Fox, $11,534.

Bryn Mawr Dean to Speak

Miss Hilda W. Smith, acting dean of Bryn Mawr College, will be the principal speaker this evening at the third annual dinner of the Pennsylvania League of Women Workers' Clubs in the Roosevelt, 2027 Chestnut street.
