EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1920

CARDINAL MERCIER'S OWN STORY

the passionately moving record of the greatest struggle between spiritual power and brute force the world has ever seen. "My war experiences in their most tense and vivid reality; all the issues I night with the occupying power, their methods and mine clearly effined, undeniably fixed in black and white."-Cardinal Mercier. defined, undeniably fixed in black and white. Preface by Cardinal Gibbons. New Portrait frontispiece. 8vo. Net, $4.00

LEONARD WOOD: Conservator of Americanism

A Biography, by Eric Fisher Wood Wood's career is here recorded for the first time. A fascinating and inspiring story of a life of constructive work, true to the best Net. $2.00 traditions of America.

By Admiral Lord Fisher MEMORIES AND RECORDS

The raciest and most unconventional memoirs published in many years. England is agog over these revelations of the Admiral who built up the modern British Navy and checkmated the Germans. A rapid-fire story of world events, naval, social and political, a perfect mine of delightful anecdote, shrewd comment, startling personal opinions of important people and affairs. Illustrated. 2 Vols. 8vo. Net, $8.00

By Joseph Cummings Chase SOLDIERS ALL

Portraits and Sketches of the Men of the A.E.F.

The famous Chase portraits made in France. An absolutely unique record of America's War Heroes. 12 portraits in full color and 125 in black and white, biographies, signatures, and an introduction 4to. Net. $7.50 by the artist.

By Admiral Sir Percy Scott FÍFTY YEARS IN THE ROYAL NAVY

A delightfully matter-of-fact story of a picturesque naval career. alive with the romance of British history on the sea. Tells of Sin Percy's long fight for the gunnery reform that saved the English Navy at Jutland. "No one who seeks any understanding of naval conditions can afford to miss it."-Providence Journal. Net, $6.00

By Admiral Sir Reginald Bacon THE DOVER PATROL: 1914-1917

The heretofore secret story of how a tiny section of the British Navy guarded the English coast and kept the Channel safe for food and troop transportation. Described in delightful style-of intense interest to general reader and naval expert. Illustrated, 2 Vols. Net, $10.00

By William E. Barton THE SOUL OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN An intimate historical study of the evolution of the spiritual life of Lincoln, in no way controversial, but the result of original and thorough investigation. Contains important material never before published. For Sale at All Bookshops Net, $4.00

America two famous diamonds stolen from the Sultan's sash and concealed in an opium can bearing a Chinese. label. Among those implicated are Chinese, Mexicans, a retired American army officer and an international spy. This is a mystery story of the unsensational and altogether plausible sort-its methods being those of subtlety and finesse, rather than coercion or force. Illustrated by Ralph P. Coleman. $1.75 net.

THE LA CHANCE MINE MYSTERY

SOME NEW WORTH WHILE NOVELS AMERICANISM IN Famous Mysteries In "Famous Mysteries" John Elfreth THREE WAR NOVELS Watkins, the well known newspaper and magazine writer, has collected and Miss Tarbell, Doctor Steiner incorporated into readable stories a couple of score of the curious and fanand Mr. Kauffman Authors tastic riddles of human life that have of Notable Fiction never been solved. He has delved back into history for Marie Antoinette and "Victorious" is the solidest and the the Diamond Necklace -- immortalized by Dumas; the uncertainty of Cleopatrn's death; the identity of the Man ih Reginald Wright Kauffman. It is a

Are thwarted her English executioners Was." It is firmer in its structure. dethroned Hapsburg line; and the strange vanishment of General Sir Hecor Macdonald. Some of the stories are only recently removed from the first pages of the sensational newspapersch as the Dorothy Arnold disappearance, the identity of John Carter, the prison poet; and the mysterious death of Kent Loomis, the well-known brother Pennsylvania Dutch environment which Mr. Kauffman knows so well, but as of an American diplomat. There is for his essential and typical Ameri-much odd material in Mr. Watkins's canism he might have been from any , and he has embedded in them other of the sister commonwealths, authenticated data about his Against a background of some of the chapters, and he has embodied in them subjects. His story-telling is simple and vivid. boy who gave his life today that civiliza-FAMOUS MYSTERIES, By John Elfreth boy who gave his life today that civiliza-Watkins. Philadelphia, John C. Winston tion might have its tomorrows proceeds compellingly, graphically, movingly. It is a novel rich in inspirational Americanism. A few years ago George Weston, nuther of "Mary Minds Her Business," just published by Dodd, Mead & Co., wrote an anonymous article "Thirty-three-and Still a Bachelor." Within two weeks he had received, through the weeks he had received, through Americanism is also rich and full in "The Rising of the Tide." one of the few pieces of fiction by Ida M. Tarbell. distinguished historian, publicist and journalist. "The Story of Sabinsport." as it is subtitled, tells of the reactions his publishers, nearly 300 proposals of marriage. These he sent to New York of a typical American town to the call and the urgencies and the poignancies of the nation embattled in defense of o be bound in sheepskin-probably the nost unique volume in existence. One day the bookbinder telegraphed him. freedom of individuals and institutions. This is Miss Tarbell's first long novel, "Do you want any title on cover?" The author wired back, "Yes. Call it "There Is Speed in the Song of Solobut her trained literary sense, her capacity for forthright thinking, her valid philosophy, her keenness of in-But There Is Safety in Numbers. sight into motive and her almost uncanny power to analyze and psycholo-

A Book of Proposals

Selah

"There is something Cotswold story.'

ably drawn character."

Modern China

Peeps at People

most spirited accomplishment to date of "Little what-you-call-ems" is the way Robert Cortes Holliday describes the Iron Mask; the mystery of the story of the war, and of course being by and classifies the papers collected in Chevalier de Saint George : the numer- Mr. Kauffman, is fiction-with-a-pur- "Peeps at People." The papers, of ous claimants who said they were the pose. But it is not propagandistic in the rather fragile texture but tinted with lost Dauphin; the story that Joan of sense that "The House of Bondage personality, were originally printed in the magazine section of the New York Evening Post. All sorts of personat Rouen; and many another perplex-ing and unsettled page of history or pseudo-history. Many of the events or characters described will be recalled within living memory, such as the May-brick case; the Tichborne heir; Johan Salvator, the lost grand duke of the now idethrough Hamburg line, and the out a hint of gray in the tone, its some-times exuberant rhetoric, and its octhe characterization is wholly external and then he digs under the skin of say. times exuberant rhetoric, and its oc-casional looseness of writing. It is really the Iliad of a typical young American, and his Odyssey, too, in his adventuring to the front to fight his share in the battle of democracy against autocracy. He happens to be from the Rennerthenia Database environment which the office boy, or the old fogy, or some other of his subjects. "Peeps at Peo-ple" is a light book for light read-ing. PEEPS AT PEOPLE. By Robert Cortes Holliday, New York: George H. Doran Co.

THE NEW BOOKS More extended review and mention will made as space warrants.

General

SONGS OF SEERING AND FINDING. By Tertius Van Dyke, New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. The first collection of the notable verse of one of the promising singers of the younger American choir. It is dedicated to his father, Henry Van Dyke, poet, professor and diplomat.

HISTORY OF THE GREAT WAR. By Arthur Conan Doyle. New York: George H. D. ran Co.

Volume five covers the British campaism Finders and France in 1918. It also by special attention to the American tracter i these fronts. a these fronts.
S AMERICA WORTH SAVING? By Nicholas Murray Butler, New York: Charles Serbiner's Sons. $2.
Addresses on national problems and party olicies by the president of Columbia University.

RECREATION. By Viscount Grey of Fallo-den, K. G. Boston; Houghton Mifflin

RECREATION. By Viscount Grey of Fallo-den, K. G. Boston, Houghton Mifflin Co.
 One of the most famous of living British diplomats and statesmen writes charmlesly of the well-ordered life and the value of pastimes in real living.
 HELLENISM. By Norman Bentwich Phil-adelphia. Jevitah Publication Society of America.
 A new volume in the Important series on "Movements in Judaism."

FRANCE AND OURSELVES, By Herbert Adams Gibbons, New York, The Cen-tury Co.

tury Co. One of the most notable publicities, histor-ians and writers developed by the events of the world war discusses what the interven-tion of the United States meant to the French sister republic. Emphasizes also the fact that the problems which confront France in the future are in a real sense American problems also. A stimulating and informing work, equal in value to the author's impor-tant "The New Map of Asia." and similar works on Africa and Europe. CARDINAL MERCIPE'S OWN STORT:

CARDINAL MERCIER'S OWN FIORT: With an introduction by James Cardinal Gibbons New York: George H. Doran Co.

Co. The book publication of the series of pas-ioral letters, state papers and other docu-ments relating to the policy and program of the heroic Belgian prelate in his dealings with the German invaders. A notable record of an important phase of history. naturally in the wake of great move-ments; Miss Tarbell shows this is not deeply ingrained. She has written a big, true, fine, inspiring book and has

of an important phase of history. THE GERMAN GENERAL STAFF AND ITS DECISIONS 1914-16, By General Erich yon Fallenhayn. New York: Dodd, The German minister of war and later chief of the imperial staff tells briefly and concisely his actions and the underlying rea-sons. Dr. Edward A. Steiner, himself an

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

"Net $3.25

Net $3.75

John Galsworthy's Tatterdemalion

Published This Week

The title expresses the variety of stories in this volume. All are written with that peculiar power which has made Mr. Galsworthy pre-eminent among fiction writers for suggesting the inmost significance of the scenes, the characters, the episodes he presents. $1.90

FIFTH AVE. AT 48 ST. NEW YORK

The Worldlings

is a fresh evidence of the quality of charm which has so fully justified the admirers of

LEONARD MERRICK

in the issue of a Collected Edition of his Works

The New York Times says: "It has the fineness as of pure gold. . . . Those whose primary demand is for a 'story' will find in this book a series of events as enthralling and often as unexpected as any one could wish; . . . while those who wish to see humanity portrayed truly, portrayed with its foibles and weaknesses and potentialities for greatness, will scarcely need to be advised to read a novel which bears upon its title page the name of Leonard Merrick."

the author of "Conrad in Quest of His Youth," "The Actor-Manager," "Cynthia," "The Position of Peggy Harper," "The Man Who Understood Women," "While Paris Laughed," etc.

Each, $1.75, at any bookstore or may be ordered direct from

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Avenue, New York

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES

By ANNA DE KOVEN (Mrs. Reginald de Koven) An amazingly definite personal narrative of experiences in spirit ommunication which seemed so indisputable to the author that she has felt it her duty to the world to declare the facts. Dr. James H. Hyslop in an Introduction vouches for the seriousness and sincerity of these experiments.

$2.50 in all bookstores, or may be ordered direct from E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Ave., New York

The Cresting Wave By Edwin Bateman Morris

The story of a man who made money his god. He was looked on as a big man. Then a girl called him a pigmy—and proved it. And he found what was wrong with himself and business America. There is a love element, humor, a big shipwreck, and all in sprightly style.

ALLEGRA world war, despite mistakes and muddling, can fail to profit by its benipatriotism. It is particularly valuable to read now that the war is By over because it is a prophylactic and insurance against the reactions and de-L. ALLEN pressions of war weariness and the dispelled illusions which come when the fine flush of battle for ideals has waned. HARKER Some of the ideals and illusions are mance of English fields and very refreshing in this sunny, breeze-invigorating

-Philadelphia Press. "Delightfully written and Allegra herself an admirably conceived and admiralways dispelled in the aftermath of superficial selfishness that comes so written it humanly and well.

immigrant who sought has a written the epic on our free shores, has written the epic of the immigrant in "Sanctus Spiritus and Company." He himself, by his own energy, endeavor and initiative, has won his way from humble station to high estate as an educator and publicist. In state spidling. Boston: Houghton Mifflin North by the wife of the famous Lobrador docter, and the nurse who accompanied them in their expeditions.

this novel he wins new rank as a writer of graphic and worth-while fiction. While the book is not autobiographical it is none the less born and bred in the

Mr. Turner's attitude toward life. He likes his fellow men and can find some-thing good in them even when he is laughing at their foibles. The tale is written in the comedy spirit, yet under-neath the pleasantries there lies a sound view of life. It is a book that can be commended to all lovers of their kind.

By S. G. CHENG A PLACE IN THE WORLD. By John Hast-ings Turner. New York: Charles Scrib-ner's Sons. $1.75.

A valuable and timely volume throw-ing a dear light on the chief prob-lems of modern China with construc-tive suggestions for their solution. The discussion is notably temperate and free from political bias and deserves the close attention of all interested in Chinese matters.

Napoleon

A Play By Herbert Trench. Net $2.00

"One of the surprising events of the English dramatic year has been Mr. Trench's 'Napoleon'. Like Mr. Drinkwater's 'Abraham Lincoln' it has been successfully performed as well as read and emerging from the propaganda drama of the Shavian School it becomes a work of art and aracterization, of spirit and passion.

in the service but also its effect on the ordinary activities of the old established insurance companies.

This easay pictures Ireland in the new light of an outpost not only of England but also of Europe, which has been profoundly influenced first by its natural physical structure and then by the successive and overlap-ping waves from which her people and civilization have been drawn.

Moslem Architecture

By G. T. RIVOIRA Net $21.00

An original work of the greatest value describing the development of the Mosque in Syria, Egypt, Armenia and Spain from its birth down to the rwelfth century. The remarkable series of photographs collected by the author are illustrated on 158 plates. Every student of architecture should become familiar with this work.

At all booksellers or from the publishers

Its Origins and Development

The Mechanism of

Exchange

By J. A. TODD This book can be profitably studied by everyone who has to do with either sale or purchase of foreign goods. The factors which control foreign exchanges are clearly explained and enable the business man to care-fully judge their direction and trend.

Effects of the War

Upon Insurance With Special Reference to the Institution of Insurance for Pensions

By W. F. GEPHART. Net $1.00 The author is a well known authority on life insurance and has directed his attention not only to the immediate methods and purposes of the govern-ment in providing insurance for men

THE LURE OF THE PEN. By Flora Klick-man. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons. A book of advice and guidance for would-be authors written out of the author's per-sonal experiences as a writer and editor. Ireland the Outpost By G. A. J. COLE. Net $2.50

By S. CARLETON

LITTLE. BROWN & CO. Publishers BOSTON

There's Mystery in Uneasy Street; there's Love; there's Money-$200,000 of it, without an owner. There are New York cafes and hotels and homes; and millionaires and gamblers, and two men you will like and the girl.

She's a real New York girl - a kind which New York makes. "She glanced up at him. The upward glance, so close were her eyes, had the effect on Baird almost of physical contact. Sophisticated as were those eyes, they held youth in them. What it was about her that conquered him, Baird could not tell. He had met a girl who would not look upon home as the be-all and endall of existence, but would treat home as a man treats it - a girl who possessed as much individuality as a man and who would not permit that individuality to be submerged beneath marriage." The Romance of Unromantic New Yorkers in Broadway hotels.

at jazz parties, and in the company of chorus girls, ex convicts. and millionaires, colors this great mystery story.

NEASY STREET

The Great Broadway Mystery By ARTHUR SOMERS ROCHE PRICE $1.75 Illustrated by James Montgomery Flagg osmopolitan Book (orporation _____

- novelists, easily the first. . . I am tempted to say that he writes better English prose than any living English novelist save only Conrad. Whether that is true or no, his work is of very real importance and not to be missed by any student of the English
- The Young Physician, By FRANCIS BRETT YOUNG is now in preparation for publication later in the spring.
- $1.90, postage extra, at any bookstore or may be ordered direct from P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Avenue, New York delightfully human tale about the adventures of a nobleman and a working ventures of a holieman and a working girl. The new novel is tolerant and sympathetic. Its characters beside Iris are typical residents of a Loudon sub-urb. The only exception is the rector of the village church, an old man who might have been a bishop if he had been more worldly minded. He is spiritual-ly minded, and with such a broad com-prehension of human nature and the as-distinguished suthor of wartime and peace, by the sure of wartime and peace, by the suthor of such as the form of warthy. New York: Chas. Scribner's Sons. 11.90. A variety of abort stories, of England and France, of wartime and peace, by the Swarty By Bills Parker Butter Bon LE LIVRE CONTEMPORAIN French Literature application. SCHOENHOF BOOK CO. French Bookshop Beacon St. Boston, Mass.

The Harbor Road

By Sara Ware Bassett story of homely folk on Cane Cod-

$1.75 net. At All Bookstore Penn Publishing Company, Philadel