

Yale's Eight Row on Schuylkill : Penn's Co-eds Fencing Team : Youngest Cavalry Squad

TWO KEEN SPECTATORS at Dover, Del., await the action of the lawmakers of that state on the suffrage amendment. Miss Caroline Katzenstein (left) and Mrs. William Reynolds, of Philadelphia

YALE VARSITY EIGHT, busy on the Schuylkill yesterday afternoon, getting ready for the tilt with Penn on Saturday. From the left, coxswain, Carson; stroke, Peters, captain; Ellis, Lovejoy, Flagg, Shiefflin, McHenry, Moulton and Allen

THE CO-ED FENCING TEAM of the University of Pennsylvania snapped with foils ready for action. From the left they are: Leonard Terrone, instructor; Misses Elizabeth G. Canning, Carol Poindexter Bent, Helen Marie White, Marion Rice, Emmeline Bent, Harriett Deacon, Eleanor Webster, Ruth Wilkinson and Marion Harvey

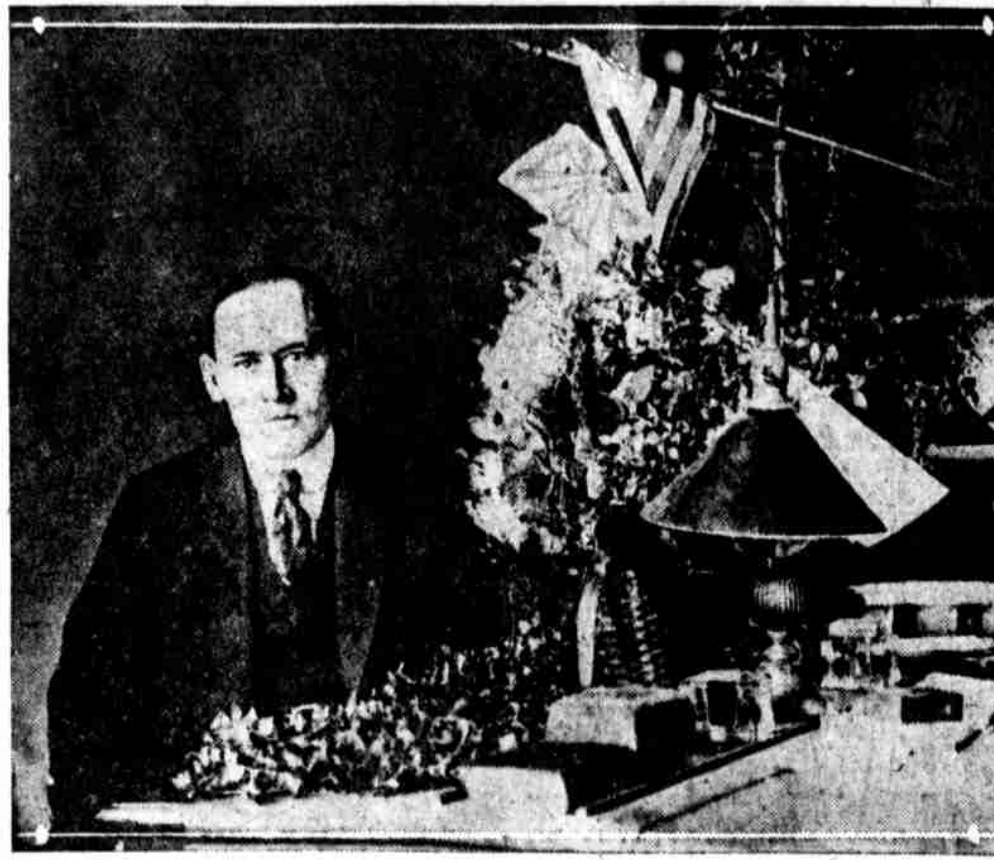

BOYS of the Northwestern section of the city yesterday proved to our photographer that they could climb a flag-pole as well as they could climb trees and were willing to be photographed at Moylan Park

WAITING for the deputy sheriff, and while they wait coffee and sandwiches are served. All are ready to protest against the eviction of George W. Glassmier and wife at 19 South Redfield street

LIEUTENANT COLONEL E. B. MORDEN, chief of the Bureau of Street Cleaning, wearing gold badge, presented yesterday by former associates

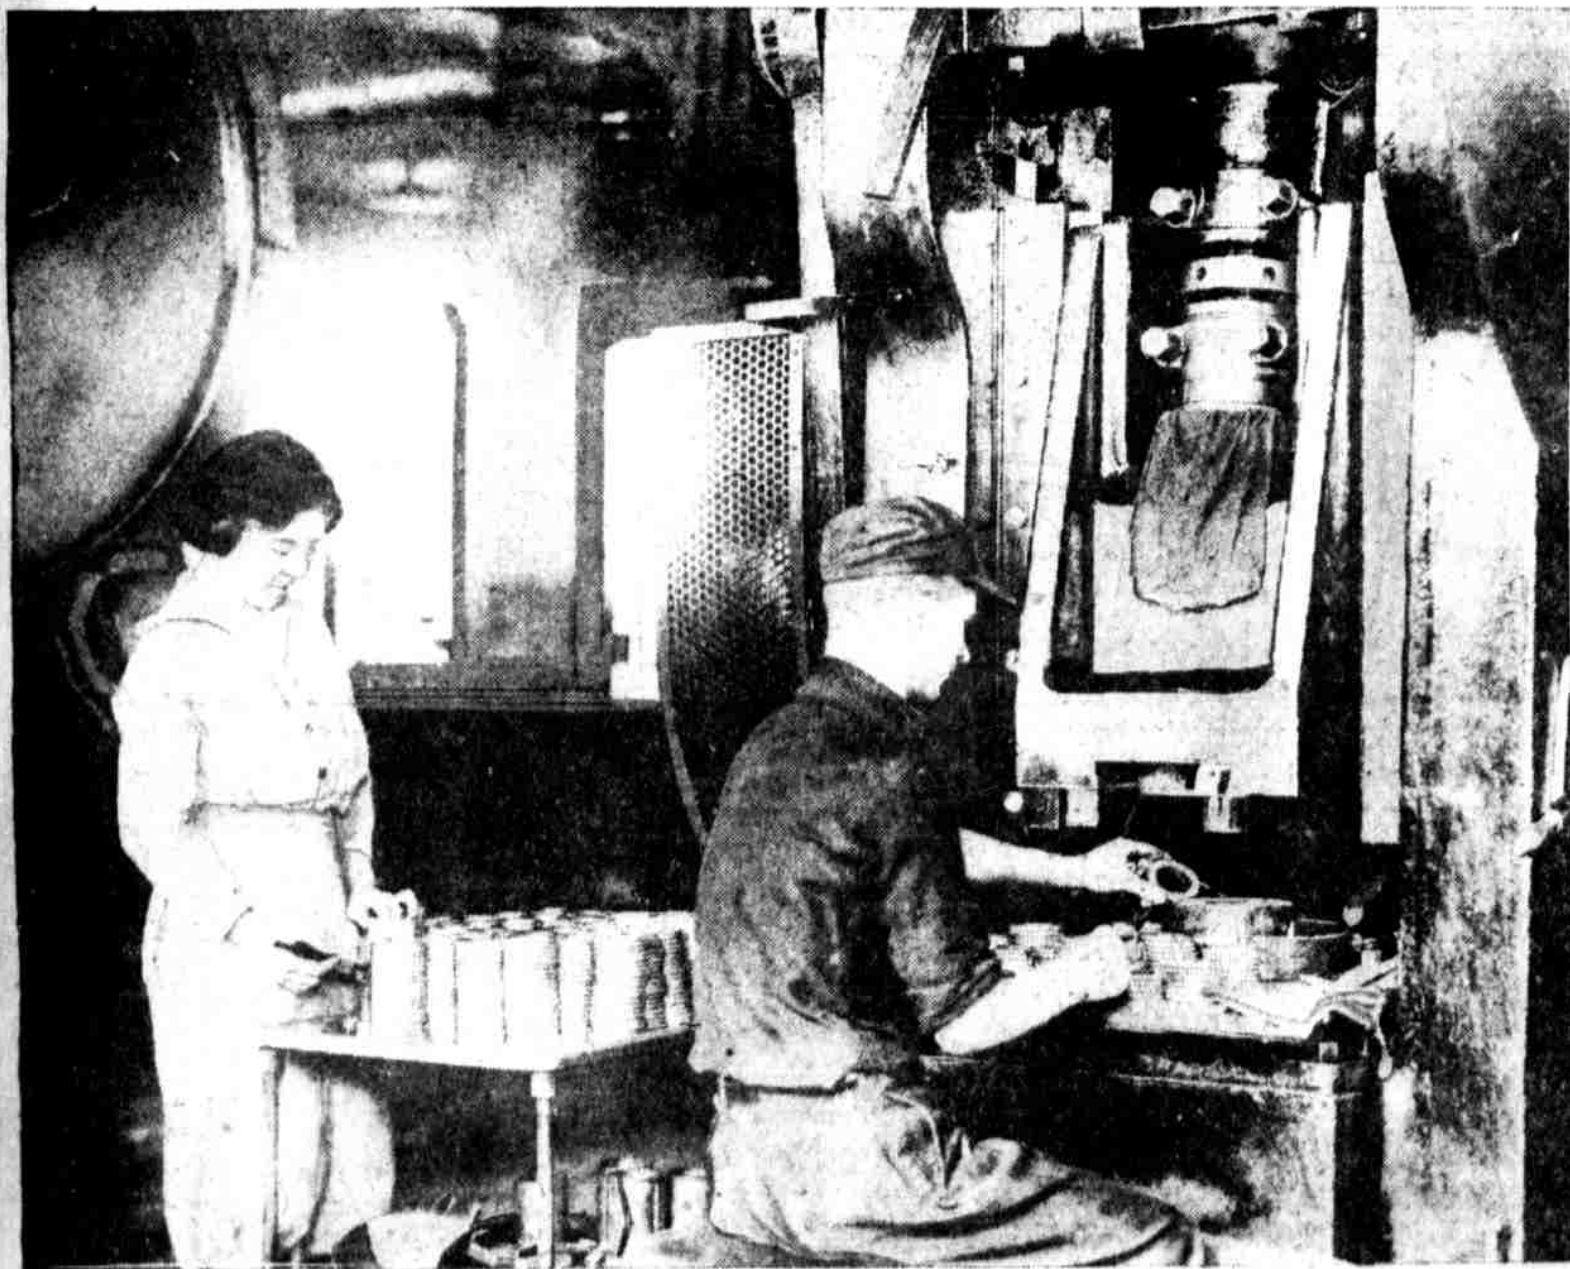

JOHN VORHEES, who this morning took up his duties as real estate assessor, was photographed at his desk in City Hall. His friends in the Republican Alliance sent many floral gifts

"DOUGHBOYS" and "Gobs" quickly take flowers from the sponsor's bouquet at Hog Island yesterday. General Pershing and Miss Julia C. Stimson, the sponsor, enjoyed the fun

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

JOHN ZELIK, 2239 Ruffner street, operating a 400-ton pillar-gear press at the Nice Ball Bearing Co., Thirtieth street and Nicetown lane. With this great pressure grooves are pressed into the thrust washers that are used with the steel ball bearings. Miss Elsie Frantz, 2468 West Thompson street, is preparing the washers for the press

THE "Wiseest tongue in Albania." He is Kola, the chief interpreter of the American Red Cross mission. He talks eighteen different languages (left). Marie Theresa Stefansen, said to be 137 years old, on grounds that she is an orphan has applied to Red Cross in Rumania for assistance. Her husband died in 1853 (right)

YOUNGEST cavalry squad in America. Ages from twelve to fifteen years. The boys from left to right are: Gerald E. Haffigh, Oak Lane; George Steppacher, Meadowbrook; Boylston Hutchins, West Medford, Mass.; Henry Harrison High, 1407 Jefferson street, Philadelphia; Walter H. Zartman, Columbus, O.; Frederick H. Steidle, Jr., Wilmington; John Wister Evans, Jr., Media, and Alfred M. Gross, Lenox Apartment, city

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS VIOLET KING, 806 North Forty-sixth st., Philadelphia Photographs for this feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER