

78 POSTS FIGURE IN MEMBER DRIVE

500 Legionnaires to Participate in Campaign Between April 17 and May 2

OFFICERS' MEETING TONIGHT

Five hundred members of the American Legion in Philadelphia county, representative of the seventy-eight posts, will participate actively in the membership drive between April 17 and May 2.

It is an important fact in connection with this drive that it is being conducted prior to and will come to a climax on May Day, which day was characteristic by an American outbreak last year throughout the entire country.

There will be a dinner meeting of the officers of the posts in the First Congressional district tonight at the City Club, 313 South Broad street, to effect a proper organization of the district in the pending membership drive.

Frank W. Melvin, Post 70, and Herman H. Berlin Post 95, are in charge of arrangements and a large turnout is looked for. This district is one of the largest in the city and should produce real results in the drive. The dinner tonight is intended to instill in the post officers the necessary enthusiasm and spirit to carry the First district over the top.

George Wentworth Carr, chairman of the Philadelphia county committee, and Thomas F. Meehan, chairman of the central membership committee in the campaign, will make addresses and it is expected that as a result of the combined efforts of all the posts the membership in the American Legion will be increased to 50,000 ex-service men throughout the city.

It is planned to have a thorough canvass made of the entire first district, and that every ex-service man will be approached and his enrollment solicited in the Legion. There are approximately 90,000 ex-service men in this city, only one-third of whom have thus far aligned themselves with this splendid 100 per cent American organization, which seeks to better the conditions of all men who answered their nation's call.

The Yeomen (F) Post, No. 50, has just completed its roster of appointive and elective officers and has announced them as follows: Margaret C. Thomas, commander; Elizabeth H. Wunderle, vice commander; Anna V. Edmonds, adjutant; Caroline Steinbock, finance officer; Lenore M. Lawson, historian; Mary E. Pittinger, chaplain; Patricia F. Crosby, county representative; war risk insurance officer, Mary E. McGuckin; publicity officer, Madeleine M. Hoban; employment officer, Elizabeth Wunderle; entertainment officer, Mrs. Hallowell Irvin; welfare officer, Mary E. Pittinger; assistant adjutant, Marjorie Slocum, and assistant catering officer, Marion L. Reutenman. The members of the executive committee of Post 50 are as follows: Anna D. Boyle, Mary Flynn, Mary E. Gallagher, Mary A. Kemp and Patricia Crosby.

The regular monthly meeting of the Joseph H. Bellack Post, No. 105, will be held Tuesday, April 6, in the Bellevue-Stratford.

CAMDEN HOME ROBBED
The home of Samuel King, 741 Mount Vernon street, Camden, was robbed during the night, the thief obtaining about $2000 in cash, jewelry and Liberty Bonds. The valuables were in a room on the first floor. The robbery was discovered when members of the family came down to breakfast.
