

Easter at Atlantic City Marred by Rain : Congressman Carries Lunch : Soccer Action

MORE THAN A SCORE of boxcars on eastbound freight No. 267 were wrecked shortly after 1 o'clock this morning a few hundred yards west of the St. Davids station on the Pennsylvania Railroad. Automobiles, toys, dentists' equipment and bales of felt were scattered among the wrecked cars that blocked the four tracks. The photograph shows the general scene of the wreck.

MISS IDA LANGDON and Miss Charlotte Langdon, both Philadelphians. Their pokla-dot short-sleeve dresses were among the very attractive ones seen on the Boardwalk at Atlantic City on Saturday. Ledger Photo Service

IT STOPPED RAINING yesterday at Atlantic City sometimes, but just enough to get another good start. This photograph was taken in the afternoon from the Alamae Hotel and tells the true story of the 1920 Easter on the Atlantic City boardwalk. Ledger Photo Service

CARRIES HIS LUNCH to the Capitol. He is Representative Percy Edwards Quin, of Mississippi. He was willing to pose with his lunch box. Harris & Ewing

IT'S A QUESTION. Does John D. Rockefeller, Jr., drive an electric because he likes to, or is he one of the many fighting the present high cost of gasoline? International

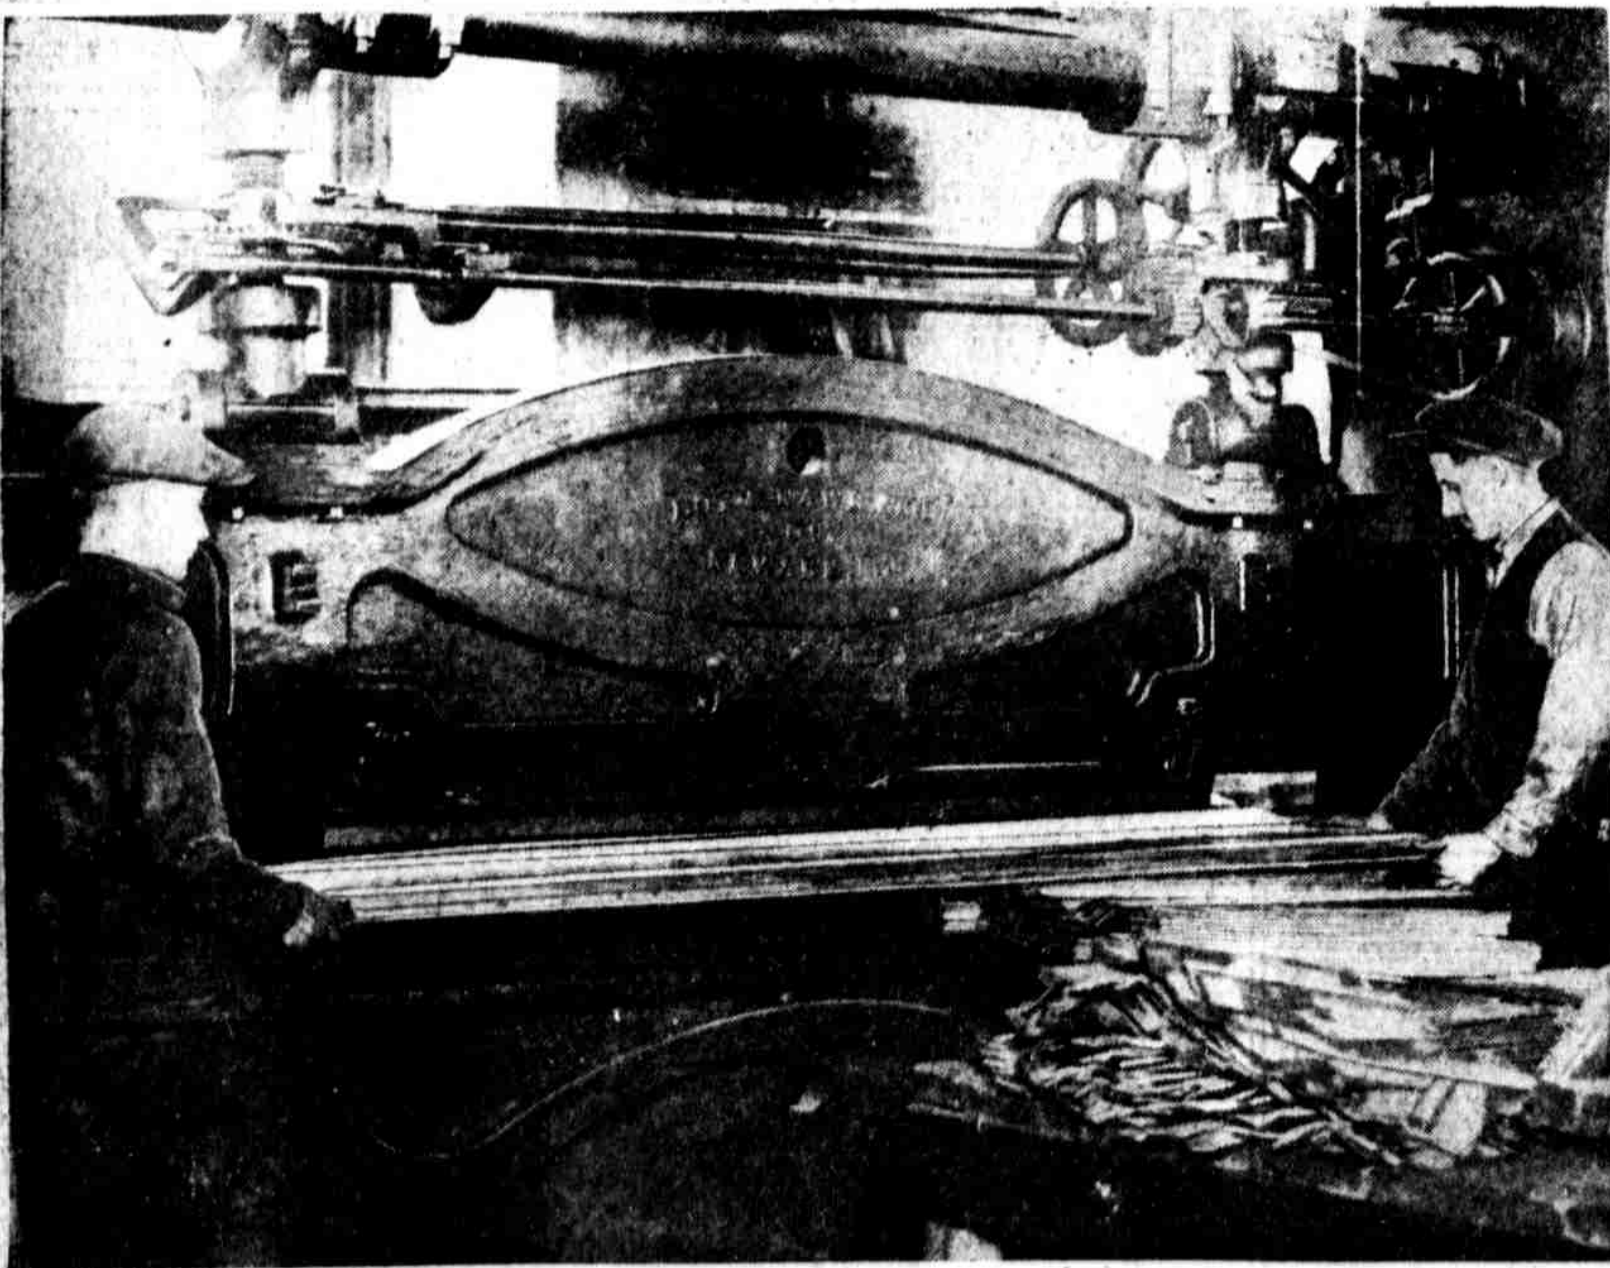

W. WILSON, left, of the Veteran Soccer team, "kneeing" the ball, kicked by McPhil, of the Kaywood team, in the fast game on Saturday at Tenth and Butler streets. It was a thrilling close-range play. Ledger Photo Service

THE WEST POINT class which has just returned from Europe, doing swimming strokes on the camp stools at Camp Benning, Georgia. Under new rules each West Point class must spend one year at this camp. International

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

FORMING AND CUTTING bulkhead plates for Hog Island ships at the plant of the International Metal Manufacturing Co., Wayne avenue and Berkley street. Two operators are necessary to handle the machine and the heavy steel. At the left is George Hotter, 2535 North Franklin street, and at the right, Ned Krelhoefer, 2315 West Agate street.

LESTER H. WOOLSEY, former solicitor, Department of State, but now a law partner of Robert Lansing, former secretary of state. Harris & Ewing

HAMPSON GARY, who has been nominated by the President to be the United States minister to Sweden. He was former consul general at Cairo, Egypt. Harris & Ewing

JOY RIDING at Coblenz, Germany, on Missouri mules. American officers like them for week-end trips around Germany. Central News Photo

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ROSE LINDY, 1539 North Sixth street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.