

MAIN LINE UNITES ON CIVIC PROBLEMS

Thomas De Witt Cuyler Heads Suburban Association—Many Included in Membership

OFFICES ARE IN ARDMORE

Prominent Main Line residents have organized the Suburban Association, with Thomas De Witt Cuyler, of Haverford, as president. The members will interest themselves in civic matters along the Main Line. Among the membership are railroad presidents, bankers, lawyers and clubwomen.

Samuel Rea and Samuel T. Bodine are among the six vice presidents, who also include Horatio Gates Lloyd, of Haverford, a member of Drexel & Co. and president of the board of commissioners of Haverford township; Albert J. County, of St. Davids, vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad; Edward Bok, of Merion, president of the Merion Civic Association, and Mrs. Alexander Brown, of Bryn Mawr, chairman of Main Line Branch No. 1, of the American Red Cross.

Nathan Hayward, of Devon, is the secretary and Richard J. Hamilton, of Ardmore, president of the Merion Title and Trust Co. and head of the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce, is treasurer.

Members of existing local civic organizations will be enrolled in the Suburban Association as honorary members. There will be an active membership of $1 a year besides a membership of persons who desire to contribute a larger amount for the work of the association. Thirty-six directors, not more than six from any one community, will manage the association. The association has opened an office at Ardmore in the remodeled Red Lion Hotel building on Lancaster avenue. Directors already elected include the officers and Mrs. Ralph Kinder, Bala, president of the Woman's Club of Cynwyd; Edgner S. Gardner, Cynwrd, president of the Neighborhood Club of Bala and Cynwrd; W. Logan MacGoy, Overbrook; Mrs. R. C. Cornish, Merion; Miss Mary K. Gibson and H. Bartol Brazier, Wynnewood; Robert W. Lester, J. Heron Crossman, Jr., and Major John Lewis Evans, Haverford; Richard E. Norton and Charles H. Ludington, Ardmore; William Struthers Ellis, president of the board of commissioners of Radnor township; John S. Clarke and Major Alfred M. Collins, president of the Main Line Citizens' Association, Bryn Mawr; Mrs. David S. Ludlam, Rosemont; Miss Evalina Walbaum, Ithan; Clement B. Wood, West Conshohocken; George H. Bors, president of the North Wayne Protective Association; Charles C. Shoemaker, president of the Men's Club of Wayne; J. Clifton Buck, Devon; Dr. George C. Stout, Berwyn; Richard Haughton, Paoli; Mrs. Clarence P. Fowler, Narberth, and Joseph H. Nash, Narberth.

LEAGUE SEEKS MEMBERS

Women Will Make House-to-House Canvass in Drive

The Philadelphia League for Women Citizens today opened a campaign for 5000 new members.

At a luncheon at the City Club plans for the campaign will be outlined by Mrs. William Lingelbach, newly elected member of the Board of Education; Mrs. Edolph Blankenburg and Dr. Ellen C. Patton.

Several hundred women, who will conduct a house-to-house canvass in the six congressional districts, will be present at the luncheon.

The aim of the women "is a country in which all voters speak English, read their own ballots and honor the American flag," Mrs. George A. Piersol, chairman of the league, declared.

WALLA WALLA CLUB DANCE

The annual Easter dance of the Walla Walla Club will be held tonight in the Germantown Auto Club at Polban; Harry Waddington, chairman of the dance committee, has made arrangements with the Pennsylvania Railroad to have extra coaches added to trains from Broad street and North Philadelphia. The committee in charge has arranged a series of novelty and exhibition dances for the entertainment of the guests. The dance is for the benefit of the club building fund.

2 MAYORS TO OPEN REALTY EXPOSITION

Moore and Ellis to Meet on Bridge at Building Show in Armory

TO STUDY HOUSING PROBLEM

Education of Philadelphians to the necessity of building their homes, and the advantages of owning their homes, will feature the Real Estate and Building Exposition, which opens at 8 o'clock tonight in the First Regiment Armory.

Broad and Callowhill streets. It will continue all this week.

Mayor Moore and Mayor Ellis, of Camden, will formally open the exposition tonight, when they greet each other on a miniature bridge symbolic of the proposed bridge over the Delaware.

The exposition will be under the auspices of the real estate board. Addresses will be made by the two mayors, following which the exposition will be turned over to all who desire to avail themselves of the opportunity of acquiring knowledge of building and real estate matters.

Admission will be free, by ticket, hundreds of thousands of which have been distributed. Each ticket bears a number, and prizes will be awarded every evening.

"The exposition is regarded as one of our contributions toward the solution of the present housing problem," said William H. Wilson, president of the Philadelphia Real Estate Board.

"The real estate board's committee, under the chairmanship of Philip N. Arnold, has been actively engaged for three months making the exposition instructive, interesting and successful."

Give your file clerk a course in filing

Send one of your bright girls to our school. Let us teach her the science of filing—the fundamental principles which underlie all filing systems—day and evening classes.

An AI file calls for an AI file clerk. Give your file clerk the opportunity to enlarge her filing education and you will be rewarded by more efficient service.

EIGHTY-THREE years ago, at Second and Callowhill Streets, then the city's important shopping centre, this store opened its doors for the first time! And from that day in April, more than three-quarters of a century ago, we have been continuously in business right here in Philadelphia—a record unsurpassed, to the best of our knowledge, by any similar organization in this section, and in only a few instances, by any large retail concern in the United States!

There have been some changes in name and location in this long period, but from the first, Darlington's has been a "quality store." We started out in 1837 to sell high-grade, dependable merchandise only, and have never deviated from that principle. Last year was the largest in our history, both in volume of sales and number of customers served, and we have every reason to believe that 1920 will far surpass 1919.

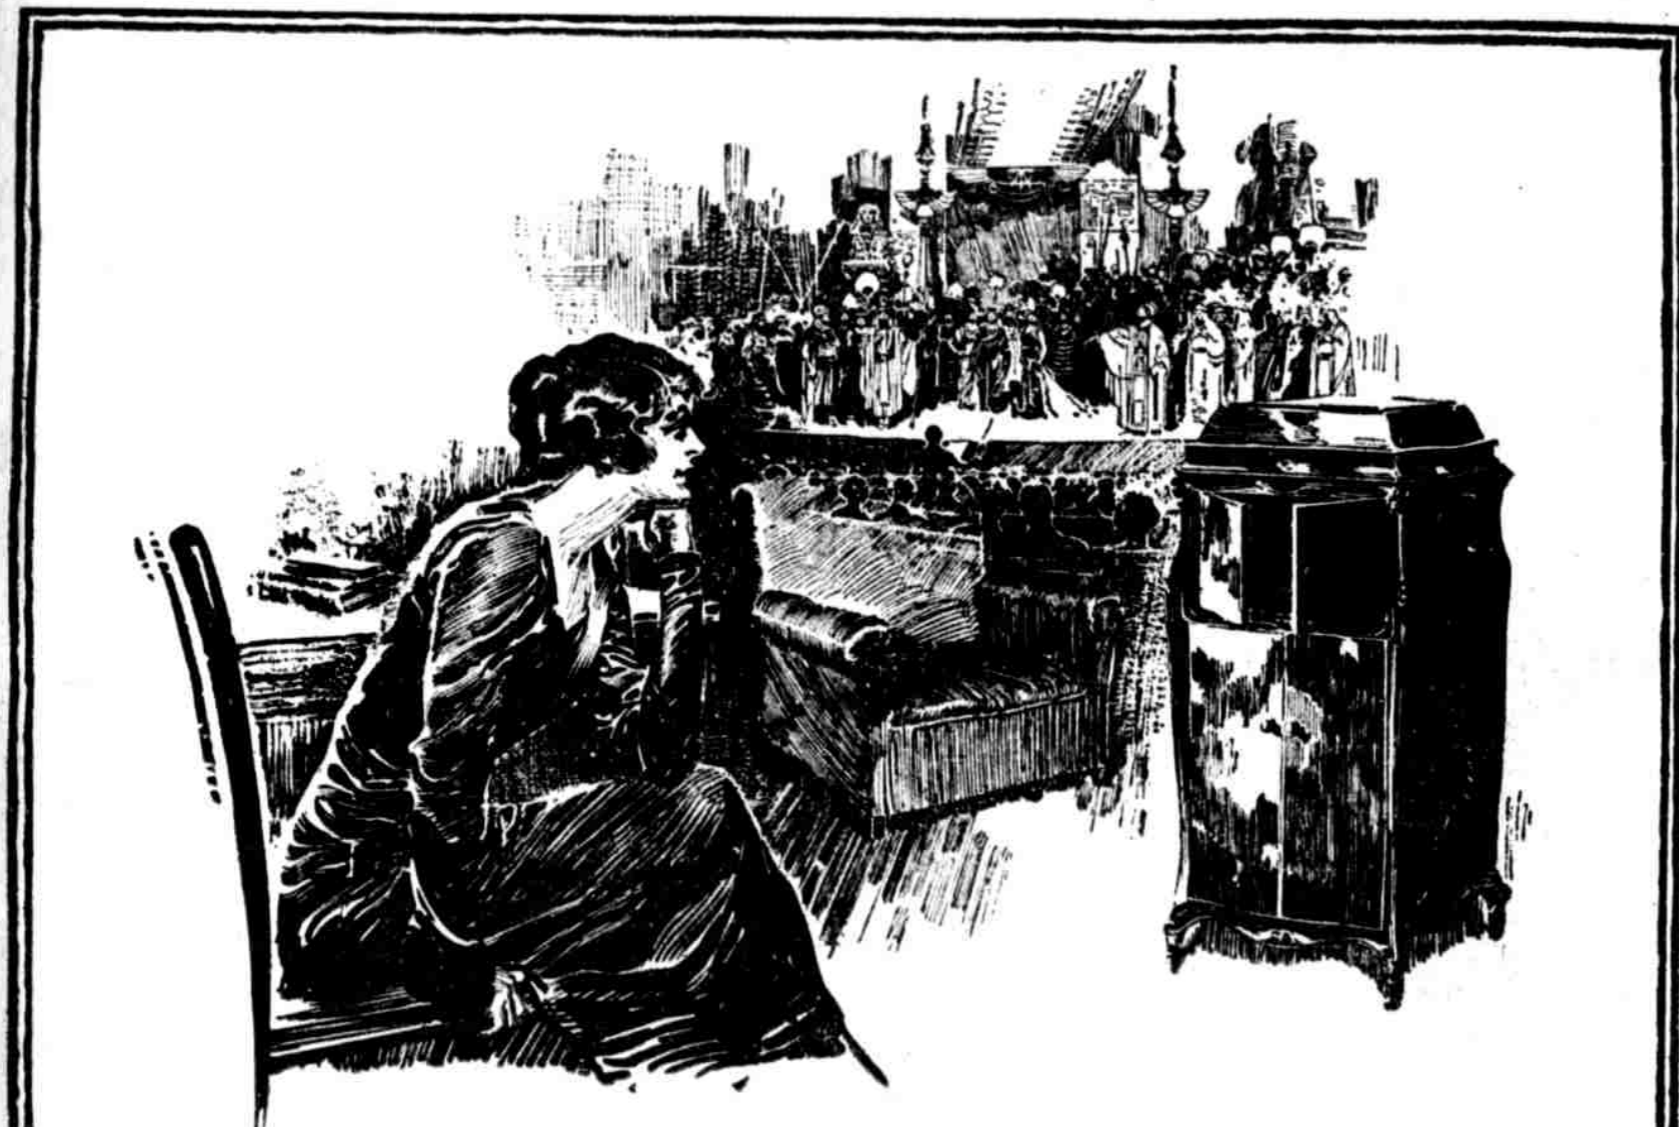

The 83d Anniversary Sale will be the Most Important Event of Its Kind We Have Ever Held

Most important because there is much more merchandise than ever before, and because the savings are so timely and far-reaching. We shall not attempt in this announcement to go into details as to the items included, but only to print a partial resume of the values you may expect on the opening days.

- Our entire Third Floor Stock of Women's and Misses' Suits, Coats, Skirts, Dresses and Blouses will be offered at 10% less than the regular prices.
- Several hundred Dresses for girls of 6 to 14 years at decided savings.
- Thousands of yards of Silks, Woolens and Cotton Goods under price.
- Four very desirable lots of Gloves.
- Women's Knit Underwear at economy prices.
- 1100 Utility Dresses for women at $5.85, values $7.50 to $10.50.
- 1500 Washable Suits for Little Boys of 2 to 6 years at $1.90, worth $3.00.
- All Dorine Corsets at reductions of 15%.
- Six very special Anniversary Sale lots of Men's and Women's Hosiery.
- Sheets, Pillow Cases, Towels and Linens much under price.
- Our entire stock of Lingerie at reductions of 15%.
- Our entire stock of Millinery (Third Floor) at reductions of 15%.
- Savings in Bed Spreads, Curtains, Cretonnes, Seat Cushions.
- 10% reduction on all Furniture and Lamps.
- 10% reduction on all Bags, Jewelry and Leather Goods.
- Neckwear, Veilings, Ribbons, Handkerchiefs, Notions—every department has Sale items.

The Sale will run for two weeks and new lots, kept in reserve, will be added daily. Store hours 9 to 5.30. Charge accounts can be arranged for by conference with the Credit Manager. Reduced-price goods are not sold subject to return; none sent C. O. D. without deposit. Early morning Shopping is advised whenever possible to avoid the throngs which come later in the day. Mail orders will be filled for those who cannot come in person.
