

F. I. Cobb Denounces Deportations and Expulsion of

N. Y. Socialists

PENDULUM SWINGING BACK

"The senatorial dignity has now been "The senatorial dignity has now been salved, the President has been re-buked, but in the meantime the United States has lost every friend that it ever had; and nobody in Europe, Asia, Africa or South America believes in the honesty of our purpose or the integrity of our professions, or trusts us, or is likely to trust us again.

"While we were engaged in destroy-ing our political and moral influence throughout the world, we were likewise engaged in destroying our personal liberty at home. "The clamor for sedition laws, for the deportation of aliens who advocate communistic theories of government, for the expulsion of Socialists from legislative bodies on the ground that their platform is inimical to the best interests of the state, for the stern repres-

Ican people were not only the dominant political and economic force in the world, but they were the moral masters of civilization, with the opportunity to mold it mightily to their ideals. Having gained this commanding and unique eminence, they at once proceeded to abandon it.
"The President having affronted a powerful element in the Senate, the leadership of the United States in the world was wantonly sacrificed by way of rebuking the President. We fell to playing schoolboy politics with the mightiest international issue ever known to man.

SECOND CHILD FOR M'ADOOS

Birth to Another Girl

New York, April 7 .- Mr. and Mrs William G. McAdoo announced the birth of a daughter, Mary Faith McAdoo. This is the second child born to Mrs.

McAdoo, who was Miss Eleanor Wilson, youngest daughter of the President. The first child, named Ellen Wilson, after the mother of Mrs. Mc-Adoo, is now four years old.

observances, of which there have been a number during former years. Travelers say that anti-Semitic feel-ing has developed acutely recently among the Arabs, but that there has been no show of hostility between the Moslems and Christians. When processions of Moslems and Christians met on April 2 not an un-friently word was uttered, but bands of Moslems and Jews clashed the same day at the Jaffa gate, the Jews crying : Mosiems and Jews clashed the same day at the Jaffa gate, the Jews crying: "We won the country by the sword and will keep it by the sword." A melee ensued in which knives and stones were used. British soldiers ar-rived quickly and calmed the trouble, but there were subsequent disturbances as processions were passing through the city's narrow streets, Jews being at-tacked whenever met. ITALIANS TO BUY IN RUSSIA
