Pot-Hunting the Pennant No. 4—Detroit and Pittsburgh By GRANTLAND RICE

The Answer as to Detroit KINDLY observe these historic figures from last season:

It Can't Be Done DETROIT has the hardest-hitting outfield in baseball, an attacking machine in general that has been averaging between four and five runs per game.

The Pirate Revival PITTSBURGH flopped with Detroit eleven years ago. Neither has ever come back.

Effective Machine THE outfield is strong. Carey, Southworth and Bigbee round out a fast, keen trio.

SCRAPS ABOUT SCRAPPERS

WITH the reopening of the Armory A. A. tonight, fans will have the choice of two different and distinct boxing shows.

Bob Hutchins, a flyweight is to get in action here in about a fortnight. Hutchins bats from South Philly.

Malch Raymond, the Wilmington boxer, is a distance runner. He finished first in a five-mile run in that city last week.

Marcus Williams clinched a good local lightweight match today when he pulled off Frankie Clark to meet Young Jack Toled.

Higher Hutchinson probably will get a return date with Joey Burman at a local club early in May.

Stonest Engineers' Club, members of which are world war veterans, will hold a reception and dance tonight at the Mercantile Hall.

BIG STEEPLECHASE DRAWS INTEREST

Three High-Class Events for Horsemen Tomorrow at Huntingdon Valley Farms

Considerable interest among horsemen is shown in the arrangements made for the regular spring steeplechase meeting of the Huntingdon Valley Hunt Club.

Three cup events are on the program, the third being the Challenge Cup, which doubtless will be closely contested.

The first race will be for the Easter-ville Cup, in which maiden thoroughbreds and half thoroughbreds are to be entered.

Stonest Engineers' Club, members of which are world war veterans, will hold a reception and dance tonight at the Mercantile Hall.
