NAVY WAS READY, ASSETS FLETCHER HOUSE PEACE NOTE FIXED FOR TODAY

Sims' Charges on Unpreparedness of U. S. Denied by Admiral in Senate Inquiry

PAY INCREASE IS URGED "UNHOLY ALLIANCES" HIT

By the Associated Press Washington, April 9.—Two years before the United States joined the Allies in the world war the navy general board prepared a comprehensive plan for war against a "central power of Europe," says Admiral F. E. Fletcher today told the Senate investigating committee. It was replying to Rear Admiral Sims' charge that when the United States entered the war the navy was unprepared.

Explaining that he wished to comment on certain specific charges, the witness first took up Sims' criticism that the navy was not prepared for war in April 1917. No navy ever was or ever will be fully prepared for war in the eyes of every one, the admiral declared, but the American navy, when entered the war, was prepared to meet any other navy in the world when the great war burst forth.

Higher Pay Necessary Congress must increase the pay of both officers and men if the navy is to be able to attract the best talent.

ADVOCATES RADICAL CHANGE IN SCHOOLS

Lewis Tells Educators Upper Classes Should Fit Students for Life, Not College

RAPS ANTIQUATED COURSES

Radical revision of courses in high schools of Pennsylvania to render them beneficial to the 90 per cent of the pupils who never reach college, rather than the 10 per cent who do, was advocated today afternoon by William D. Lewis, deputy state superintendent of public instruction.

Revising Courses A general committee is now at work at Harrisburg under the supervision of the Department of Public Instruction, revising present high school courses, and attempting to formulate a new, useful course for high schools.

History Study Important A Duquesne professor of educational research at the University of Pennsylvania, emphasized the need of a better study of general history in high schools.

Equality of Education and Democracy in the schools is a very beautiful phrase that rolls trippingly from the tongue, but unfortunate if it isn't backed by facts.

Time is coming when we'll have a greater amount of compulsory education. A great many persons seem to think that you offer equal opportunities to the child when you open the schools.
