

Jersey's Governor Plants Trees : Wooden Hat and Shoes : Girl Athletes : Slides to Second

GOVERNOR EDWARDS, of New Jersey, assisting in planting four trees on the New Jersey Capitol grounds, at Trenton yesterday. They are in memory of four members of Company C, 10th Engineers, who died in France.

A HAT made of shavings, a new Paris suggestion. So all you have to do now is look for a building operation and collect hat material.

THEY WEAR blue and pink and lavender colored shoes. All made of wood and from Holland. The sextet were out for a little stroll on Chestnut street yesterday, and they visited Independence Hall. Of course, they got tired and were snapped as they rested at the Curtis Building, Sixth and Walnut streets.

Mlle. SUZANNE LENGLEN, the French tennis star, snapped while practicing at Nice, France. She plans to play American women in this country.

TWO PATRONS of the free restaurant that has been established by Colonel Alice V. Hebron, of the Volunteers of America, at 324 North Tenth street. Under-nourished children are enjoying a real breakfast.

PETRO MASCAGNI, the widely known composer, who may be elected a member of the Italian Senate.

TACHI PASHA, a Turkish leader, whose capture and arrest by General Milne, at the occupation of Constantinople, has been reported.

WALTER HAGEN (putting), open golf champion of the United States, laughed when he missed the putt, as seen above, which cost him the north and south championship at Pinehurst last week. The emotional expressions of a golf gallery are well brought out here as they groaned aloud.

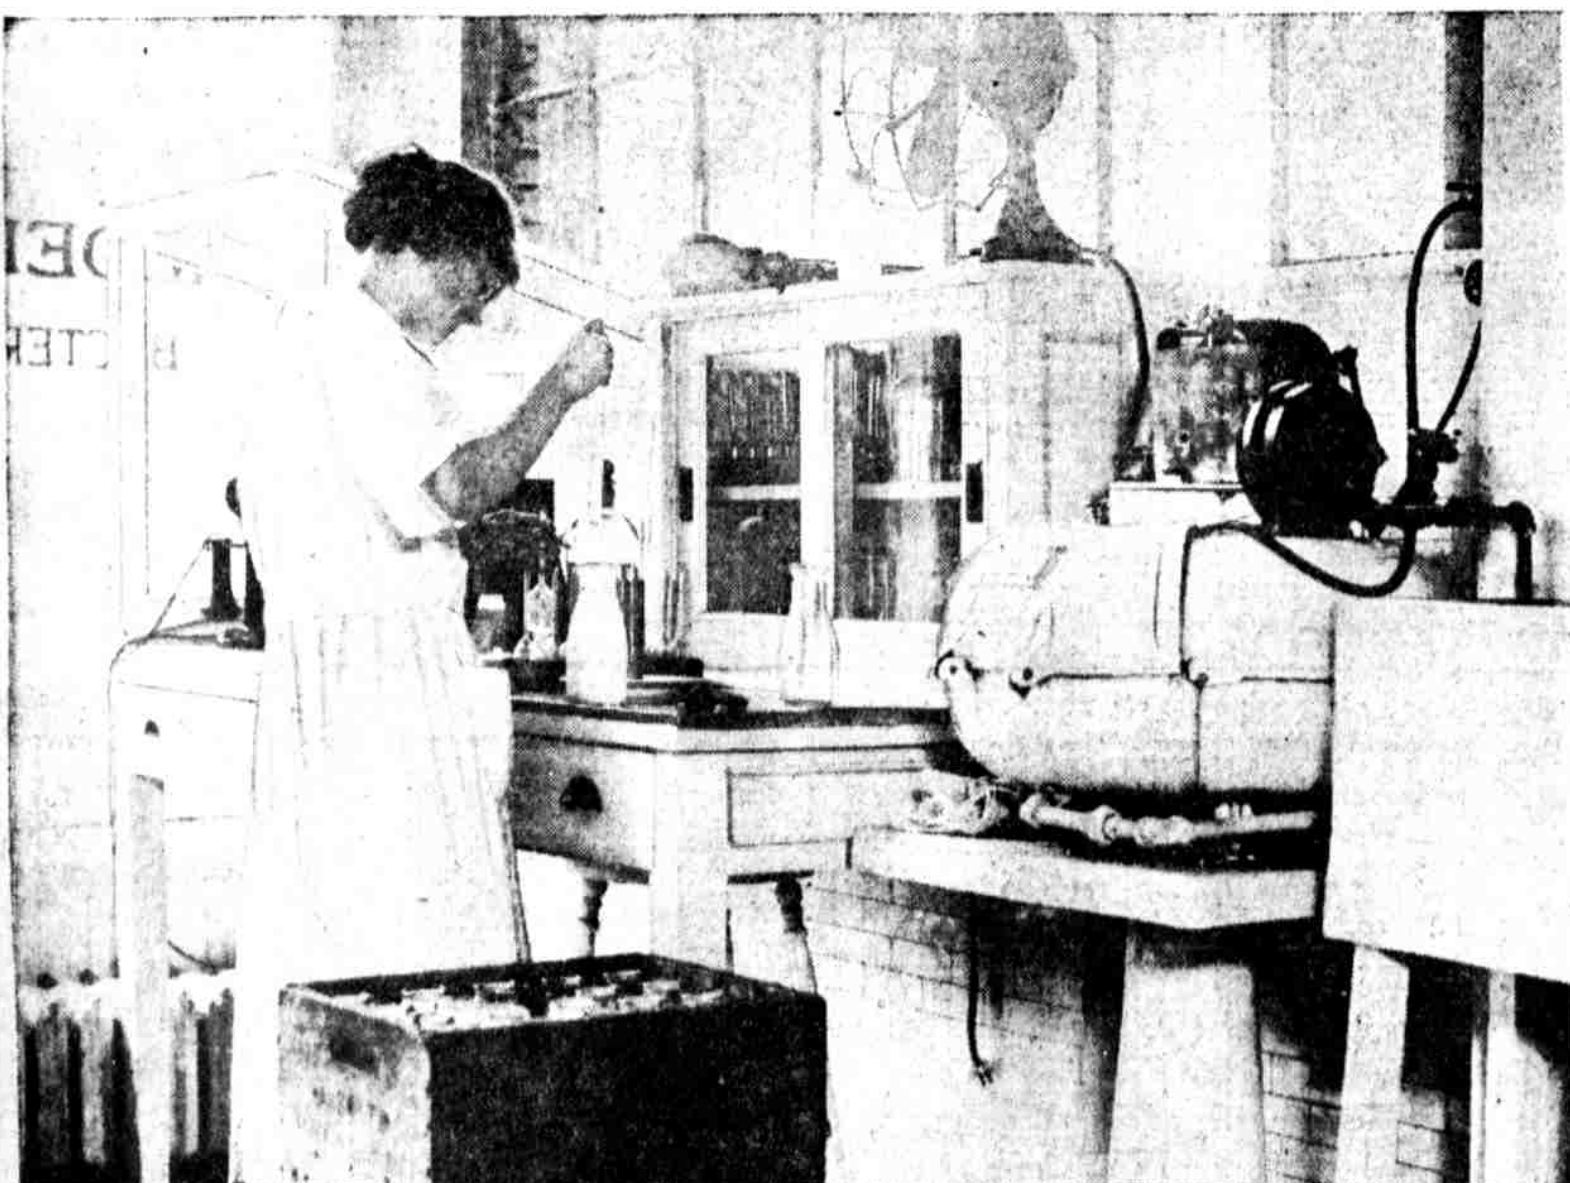

IN CHARGE of a Broad street booth, where collections are being made for the St. Agnes's Hospital fund. They are, from the left, the Misses Margaret Tinsman, Madeline Naughton, Ursula Naughton and Helen Tinsman.
