Nancy Wynne Talks of the Many Weddings Scheduled for Today-She Hears Plans for the Tower-Whitney Nuptials—Other Matters and in to the Reed-Boyd one at h Two weddings ought to do me in one day.

FEEL as if I had so much to talk about I do not know quite when and where to start. In the first place, have you heard how many ushers Roddy you heard how many ushers Roday Tower is going to have when he and Flora Whitney are married in New York? Twenty!! Think of it! It is unusual, but I think it will be very smart. He's got some mighty good-lookers among them, too. Charlie Choate, for instance, and Tom Frothingham. Geoffrey, his brother, will be best an, but all of the ushers are New Yorkers or Bostonians, mostly Har-vard classmates, I should say. The three little Szechenyi children—

Guilla, Alice and Gladys—daughters of Flora's aunt Gladys, who is Countess Szechenyi and a sister of Mrs. Whitney, and who is over here from Austria for several months; will be flower girls together with Beatrice Straight, who is another little cousin. Small Whitney Straight will be a page.

The wedding is to take place in St.

Bartholomew's Church, New York, on the afternoon of April 19. A number of Philadelphians are going over to the wedding, among them the J. Bertram Lippincotts, Nicholas Biddles, William, very many others.

THEN, did you know that the Colouist Dames of America, Chapter 2. Philadelphia, have sent out invita-tions for a Service of Dedication of Flags. The flags, it appears, are a gift of the chapter to the Cathedral Foundation and the ceremony of acceptance and blessing of the flags will be held at the Diocesan Church of St. Mary on Sunday, April 18. The Colonial Dan gave the flags at one of the meetings several weeks ago, and they were ac-cepted by the vicar, but the formal dedication service will be held in the church. The flugs are four in number, of beautiful silk and are very
