The placing of Victor H. Frank, who rowed a splendid oar at No. 2 for Penn in the recent Yale race, in the junior varsity boat as stroke caused the biggest surprise.

"Frank is as good as any other man in the varsity boat," said the Red and Blue coach, "but I want him to build up our junior crew. We need another stroke for the varsity boat, and I want to develop Frank. If the varsity stroke, Thomas, would be incapacitated we would be up against it without auother man ready for his place."
