HAVE you heard about the pageant that Mrs. Otis Skinner is getting up in connection with the Devon Horse show and Country Fair on Monday eveing, May 31, which this year will be Decoration Day? (The date is always May 30, you remember, but as it falls on Sunday this year the holiday will be May 31.) Mrs. Skinner has such artistic sense that anything she undertakes is always successful, I find. You remem-ber she planned the pageant they had at on May 2. the Indoor Show at the First City Troop Armory some years ago. That was a beautiful thing. Mrs. Archibald Barklie is home from the West now, and is hard at work with all her plans for the show, because you know it is only five weeks off now, and ere will be the Indoor Show first and the Pony Show out at Mrs. Clothier's.
