JACKSON AND TENDLER MAY NEVER BOX AGAIN

Hitch in This Great Lightweight Match Is Personal Reason—New Yorker Refuses to Perform in Show Promoted by Phil Glassman

By LOUIS H. JAFFE

Philadelphia's major clubs. That doesn't necessarily mean that the former high school kid is just breaking in as a star performer. Brown is one of the best cardinals in the New England States, where promoters want him for some big matches this summer. Semifinaling tonight will be Jack Toland, who wants to prove that he is entitled to a bout with Lew Tendler. Opposed to Toland will be Mike Evans, a Detroit light-weight, who comes here highly rated. Other bouts: Roy Ennis vs. Muckles Riley; Johnny Campi vs. Marty Kane; and Martin Judge vs. Billy Devine.

One thousand $5 tickets for the Willie Murray match at the Camden Sportsman's Club Wednesday night were put on sale at the Bingham today.

A Murray will be represented at the bottom and top of the Camden program. Tommy Murray will appear in the first bout against Mike Evans, while his brother, Billy Murray, will show in the headliner against Jimmie Conroy. The other bouts are: Frank Conway and Little Bear vs. Willie Spencer.

Don Moran is on the war path again. This time in the interest of Eddie Fitzsimmons and incidentally Law. Moran is the target of the "dumb" person's mean type of fan-club writing, but as he has become a member of the press, he is not to be trifled with. Moran is a big, burly fellow and Tendler's feet are still a little tender from his fight with Frankie Conroy. Moran will start the fighting blood of Mr. Tendler circulating.

Joe Jackson, Southwark lightweight, has decided to make his debut in Philadelphia by getting a match with Willie McClelland, and this bout may be put on one of Joe Williams' lightweight elimination bouts.

Harry Smith, who has resumed boxing under the wing of Billy Silverman, got under way again in a bout with Joe Richards last week. The Eighteenth Street boxing hall will have a big fight on right after the big stuff and wants a set-to with Hughey Hutchinson.

Hughey Hutchinson is not going to meet Johnny Walker in Trenton tonight. Another bout with Hutchinson is set for Joe O'Donnell at Reading.

Law Tendler boxes Banty Sharpe in Paterson, N. J., tonight. Sharpe is taking the place of Paeky Hommer, who, it was believed, would have been a "set-up" for Tendler.

Tom Cowell, a swimmer of West Philadelphia High School, is going to don the blue and white of the Philadelphia team in the first round of a bout at Shibe Park. Water was thrown on the fallen boxer. Arguments are still on in the locker room as to whether Tendler would have been able to get up without the revival effect of the deluge.

Philadelphia fans this summer will have a chance to see a series of bouts at the Phillips Ball Park under the patronage and matchmaking of Jack Weinstein, who plans to blossom out as a big leaguer in pugilism. Jack has indicated that he would like to get back on and Tendler for his opening show. He has not mentioned yet what course he would put up for such a bout, realizing that a majority of the officials by unorthodox and meaningless "promoters" are of the well-known "sugar" variety. In other words, several matchmakers who know they cannot get the fight are offering big guarantees, while those who are not even connected with a club are getting publicity as being in line for the match.

Jack Laces Martin

Johnny Martin proved a terrible fly in his bout with Jackson on Saturday night at the National. In looking at the bout one way, Martin was successful. He went into to start the six rounds, and did. But there was no comparison between the New Yorker, Jackson, who was the way, he administered a terrible beating to Martin, scored a knockdown in the fifth and outclassed him throughout.

Young Neil, of Allentown, walloped Sotter Karparski, scoring a knockdown; Joe Cervino took more punishment than he could take in his bout with Harry Linder. Harry Linder, who was the way, he administered a terrible beating to Martin, scored a knockdown in the fifth and outclassed him throughout.

GREEK RUNNER WINS MARATHON

Peter Trivoulidas Is First in Twenty-five-Mile American Road Race

Boston, April 19.—Peter Trivoulidas, of New York, a native of Greece, today won the American marathon road race of twenty-five miles. The official time was two hours, twenty-nine minutes, twenty seconds.

After leading for half the race, Henigan ran himself out on the Newton hills and was forced to quit. Roth took up the lead and at Lake street, in Newton, about six miles from the finish, had an advantage of nearly two minutes over Trivoulidas. Mellor was third, with White and Tomikowski running almost even with him. Giannakopoulos and Linder, slower of pace but well within their strength, came next. Roth's time at Lake street, 1:55:13, was nearly five minutes behind Ryan's record.

Four miles from the finish, Roth held his lead, but Trivoulidas had stepped up his stride in an attempt to overtake him. Linder, White and Mellor, too, had abandoned their waiting policy and set out to make the fastest possible time to the finish. Zuna, in tenth place, was running strong, but with a big handicap to overcome.

RED SOX WIN

Defeat New York Yankees in Morning Game, 6 to 0

Boston, April 19.—Hoyt pitched pitched ball for the Red Sox against Mo McGraw and McGraw of the Yankees, in the morning game, Boston winning, 6 to 0. New York made five hits, two of them by Ruth, playing his first game here for the Yankees. Hooper stole three bases and Foster's fielding excelled. The score:

| NEW YORK         |         | BOSTON           |         |

It was decided yesterday by the Bethlehem management that Ferguson, former right-half of Liverpool, England, and captain of the English national team, will appear on the team probably in the first game he has had time in which to get rid of his sea legs.

Breaks Swimming Record

Honolulu, April 19.—Ethelwyn Stibbrey made what was said to be a world's record for fifty yards backstroke when she swam the distance in 36 seconds flat at the Hawaiian centennial swimming meet here Saturday. She also broke the 100-yard record in swimming 440 yards in 6 minutes 21.3 seconds.

ALL chatter and "reliable inside" information about Lew Tendler and Willie Jackson, pro and con, as to which fears to meet the other in a lot of hokum, buncombe, or something. The secret is out. No S. Holmes is necessary to get the facts, because the facts have become known. Jackson is not a match with the New Yorker. Both admit they are anxious to meet—that's the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth—BUT—the chances are, they will NOT meet.

Here's the dope, first giving the floor to Jackson: "Certainly, I want to box Tendler. I knocked him out last summer, and I cheated, and if I got the chance to meet him again, I'll put him to sleep without any doubt. But I will not box for Phil Glassman. Any other promoter in Philadelphia, in fact any promoter in the country will have no trouble getting my consent, but I'm off Glassman. If he wants a Jackson-Tendler bout for his hall mark this summer, that is one match he will not get. Glassman's Offer

Next on the stand is Glassman. "I am willing to give Jackson as much as any other promoter in the country. Nobody has offered him $7500 yet, and that goes. He can take it or leave it. There is no reason why Jackson should take offense to my promoting the show. I am in the game as a promoter, then why should he take that little loot? He has to take it or leave it. If Jackson wants the $7500 he can have contracts signed today. No other promoter will get this match but myself.

Tendler speaking: "Box Jackson? Absolutely. I'd sooner box him than any one else in the lightweight class. Remember that kicking I gave him in last summer? Well, I'll give him tonight even one better by knocking him out. The signing of papers is all up to Glassman. Anything Phil does is perfectly all right with me."

So the big fight in making a Tendler-Jackson match—the greatest bout of interest in the country from a Philadelphia standpoint—is nothing more or less than a personal vendetta between Jackson and Tendler. Jackson has won the first round of a bout at Shibe Park. Water was thrown on the fallen boxer, and arguments are still on in the locker room as to whether Tendler would have been able to get up without the revival effect of the deluge.

Philadelphia fans this summer will have a chance to see a series of bouts at the Phillips Ball Park under the patronage and matchmaking of Jack Weinstein, who plans to blossom out as a big leaguer in pugilism. YOUNG CHANEY, of Baltimore, really will not be an eleventh-hour moment for Harry Kid Brown when this pair answer the tinkle of the gong at the Olympia Club tonight, despite the fact that the whole city had well enter the ring in the role of a substitute. Joey Fox, of England, originally was scheduled to go on with the Kid, but when Chaney knocked out the Briton last Monday night at New Haven, Conn., he also was knocked out of the Brown bout. There was no trouble in getting Brown to consent to box Harry and Harry D. Edwards says that this was one of the few cases in boxing where no demand for an increase in price was asked by a boxer who is a substitute. Chaney is considered to be more dangerous than the original opponent. Tonight Brown will make his debut as a wind-up boxer at one of
