A time for sound investments

It is not necessary today for the investor who desires to increase his income to turn to speculative ventures.

A very unusual opportunity presents itself right now to obtain very high interest return on the most conservative investments, either stocks or bonds.

95 Years of Hosiery Making and Now Leading the World

Fifteen pairs of stockings are made every second in Philadelphia hosiery mills. 15,000,000 pairs of hose were produced last year in 115 mills in Philadelphia.

The first hosiery mill in America was established in Germantown in 1825 by John R. Fisher as the Wakefield Mills, at 18th St. and Fisher's Ave., on the site now occupied by the woolen mill of Wilson H. Brown, Inc.

Since that time there has been a steady growth in hosiery manufacture in Philadelphia. This year the output will have a value estimated at $46,000,000.

Among the big hosiery companies in Philadelphia are the Thomas W. Buck Hosiery Co., William F. Taubel, Inc., Cadet Hosiery Co., True Shape Hosiery Co., Harry C. Aberle & Co., the group of Brown Mills, Hancock Knitting Mills, the Wallace Wilson Hosiery Co., Herbert Hosiery Mills, Haines Hosiery Mills, Philadelphia Knitting Mills, Notaseme Hosiery Co.

A number of the best hosiery makers carry accounts with the Corn Exchange. We have cooperated with them in upbuilding their business here, and in many cases in the foreign field also.
