11 YEARS' SAVINGS

Man Faces Loss of House When Money to Pay Mortgage Is Stolen From Wallet

Fielder Brennerman, an engineer for the C. & P. Corbin Co., locksmiths, at Eighth and Arch streets, saved $500 to pay off the balance of a $2000 mortgage on his home at 117 South Montgomery street, only to have the money stolen by a pickpocket.

Eleven years were required for him to save the money necessary to free his home from the mortgage. The last dollar of the $500 balance was in his hands Wednesday night.

Thursday morning he put the money in his hip pocket and went to work. He forgot about it until Thursday afternoon when he discovered the wallet was gone.

Brennerman reported his loss to the police of the Eleventh and Winter streets station this morning. The $500 was in $50 bills.

Governor Well Again
Governor Sprout has recovered from the effects of the cold with which he has been confined to his home, Lapides Manor, near Chester, for the last few days. The indisposition came as a result of overwork in the mediation of the recent railroad strike.

MARKET: CHESTNUT: EIGHTH: NINTH
For Tomorrow—Tuesday

Philadelphia, Monday, April 19, 1920.
We separate goods more by degrees of sturdiness than price—the Subway Store holds the "everyday things."
Reliability first of all.

Tuesday—Gimbel Subway Store Day

You've heard Dr. Conwell's great lecture on "Acres of Diamonds"—"Opportunities" is the other meaning. Why worry about high prices in New York or London or here—when so very many of the household wants can be supplied at little outlay by watching Gimbel advertising and taking advantage of "bargain feasts"—which Subway Store Days surely are?
