

The Woman's Exchange

The Newest Sweaters!
 Dear Madam—Kindly inform me through your valuable column if flannel sweaters will be worn much this summer and which style will be the most popular, the tuxedo or the slipover. What shades of blue is pretty for a sweater and does not soil easily?
 A READER.
 Flannel sweaters seem to be almost as popular this year as they were last year. Either the tuxedo or the slipover is worn, even if they are short sleeves. The darker shades of blue are the only ones that will not soil easily. Also blue, king's blue, navy and light blue. The shades of old blue and gray blue that shade to light blue are also very popular. Be sure that you are becoming before you get them, for they have not much life in them.

Business Women's Club

Dear Madam—Can you tell me if there is a league or club under a name such as "The Pennsylvania Chapter of the Business Women's League" which has a tea room at Fifteenth and Locust streets? If so, can any one join same? Also, kindly let me know if I can become a member of a high school society alumnae or fraternity. I attended high school one year. The senior girls at this school appear to have nothing of an alumnae, so I have heard from another girl who inquired about the same.

May I also ask you for full information regarding the making of a parchment, price of frame, etc., and how to make the shade?
 T. S.
 You must have this league confused with some other organization. There is a Business Women's Christian League which has a tea room at 1118 Walnut street, and the Y. W. C. A. is now organizing a business women's league. Neither of these has a tea room at Fifteenth and Locust streets. Any one who is a business woman can join the Business Women's Christian League by registering at the desk and paying $1 a year. It is preferable that she know some one who is already a member, but this is not necessary. Anybody can join the Y. W. C. A. If you were not a member of a society or fraternity when you were in school, you could not join now. Most schools number only those who have graduated or have had more than one year in school among their alumnae. Why don't you consult the faculty of the school and find out whether you are considered an alumna or not? If you are there is no reason why you should not take part in alumnae activities. You can buy the parchment and other

Eight Kittens to Give Away!
 Two letters arrived on the same day, each offering kittens for the readers of the Woman's Exchange. Three of them are perfectly black without a white mark on them. The others are all pretty, but the owner didn't give any description of them. Who wants a kitten? This editor of the Woman's Page will be glad to forward any letters to the owners of these pets as soon as they are sent to the paper.

THE EZERMAN RECITAL
 Pianist Gives Fine Program for Appreciative Audience
 D. Hendrik Ezerman gave his annual piano recital in Witherspoon Hall last evening before an audience that was large in size and spontaneous in its enthusiasm over the excellent piano playing which it heard. Of the pianists of Philadelphia there is none more versatile in style than Mr. Ezerman and his program of last evening made full demands upon this versatility. The numbers played were all highly different in character and generally strongly contrasted in musical feeling. The two rhapsodies of Brahms, op. 79, are characteristic of the contemplative, restrained mood of the composer and these were followed by the difficult and brilliant concert etude of Blumenfeldt, a work seldom if ever heard here before, and which was so successful that Mr. Ezerman had to give an encore, a Chopin scherzo.

And did some of the finest playing of the concert in this number. Then came the six variations from the D minor suite of Handel, possessing all the lack of imagination of a Handel instrumental composition, but finely played, and after this Debussy's "Reflections in the Water," an imaginative piano work as has ever been penned. The concert closed with the comparatively unknown Petrarcia sonata and the popular twelfth rhapsody of Liszt, both of which were very successful.
 Mr. Ezerman met with apparent ease the many requirements of his program: technical, intellectual and temperamental, and as a whole did some of the best work he has yet done in his recitals. He was obliged to give a number of encores.
Grice Estate to Widow
 Edwin C. Grice, 3318 Arch street, who dropped dead April 11 in Fairmount Park, left an estate valued at $50,000 to Mrs. Mary V. Grice, his widow. His will was probated today, as were the wills of Mary A. Muldoon, 1737 West Columbia avenue, who left $25,000, and Sarah P. Bergtesser, 1809 Erie avenue, $15,500. Inventories of personal estates were filed as follows: Elizabeth E. Keating, $83,742.01; Anna M. Fischer, $8,887.82, and Zygmunt Pancoast, $10,476.89.

Pathé
 Le Phonographe de Qualité

Quality
 Quality is the outstanding feature in the best of everything—it is the one thing that assures continued satisfaction in ownership and use.

In music, whether classic or popular—sober or gay, it's the quality compositions that endure.

—Very important, then, is it that quality music be rendered in a quality way.

Pathé, Le Phonographe de Qualité, is a quality instrument. It has a wonderful reproducer that plays all records without needle hiss or metallic glare. Also an all-wood violin sound chamber gives full value to the nobility and uplift of the classical, brilliancy and fascination to the popular. Therefore—

Hear and see the Pathé. The full, well-rounded tone, the beautiful designs and finishes will delight your ear and eye.

Wherever you see Le Chanticleur Rouge—the sign of Pathé—you will find courtesy and every convenience for selecting and purchasing a Pathé Phonograph.

 Out on the porch or on the lawn, a couch hammock means so much more of comfort and enjoyment of the fine Spring and early Summer days.
 So many women at home spend too much of their time indoors and a couch hammock will prove more effectual than doctor's advice or a "scolding" from the man of the house.
